Project: Dunkirk Region High School Sororities and Fraternities

Please note: We understand that kids are kids and part of this project is to capture a real idea about these groups in our area, both savory and sweet memories alike. To that end, if you wish to share something that would typically not be shared publicly, you may place an asterisk or star () by any questions you wish kept private until 2045. If you wish to share this information anonymously, please feel free to leave your name off the form.*

Your name: _____

High School and years you attended:

Were you a member of a sorority or fraternity, and if yes, which one(s) and when? _____

If not, please continue to share answers to the below questions based on what you heard (note if this was first-hand (you saw or experienced it), second-hand (someone who experienced it told you) or third-hand (you heard about it from somebody else). Leave blank if you don't know.

From this point on, we will use “group” to mean sorority or fraternity as applicable.

How many and to which groups did you pledge? _____

What was the pledging process like (feel free to attach sheets if needed)? _____

Were you successful? _____

What was your initiation like? _____

What was your nickname within the group? _____

Did your group have a “sister/brother” group of the opposite gender? _____

Did your group have a rivalry with any other group (same or opposite gender)? _____

During the time you were in each or any group, what were the color(s) of the jackets worn? _____

Did you purchase your jacket(s) new or from someone else? _____

To the best of your knowledge, what was your group known for by others (ie, being more or less wealthy, being “cool,” known for being more academic, more sports-focused, etc)?

To the best of your knowledge, how far back did your or any other groups go, or do you know when they were established? (Please note each individual group if you have any knowledge of it, and please note if you are making your best guess).

What memorable charitable activities did your group participate in (ie fundraisers, helping nonprofit groups, volunteer work etc)?

What memorable “unsavory” activities did you know your group to participate in (whether or not you joined in such activities, ie drinking parties)?

Were you aware of any “naughty” nicknames for your or others’ groups based on their Greek Letters or their English letter version? Ie, “TVQ” was apparently jokingly referred to as “True Virgin Queens.”
