"We Love Thine Ivied Towers"

The Juy Tower

1952

The Senior Class

Dunkirk High School

DUNKIRK, N. Y.

Theme

Myself when young did eagerly frequent
Doctor and Saint, and heard great argument
About it and about; but evermore
Came out by the same door where in I went.

With them the seed of Wisdom did I sow,
And with mine own hand wrought to make it grow;
And this was all the Harvest that I reap'd—
"I came like Water, and like Wind I go."

Foreword

There is a definite purpose behind the publishing of every book, and so it should be for a high school yearbook.

Our book contains two main purposes.

First the usual reason behind yearbooks that has been stressed for so many years; the bringing back of fond memories of enjoyable high school days.

It is true that we have this purpose in mind but we are also trying to set up a high standard of good living to follow in our later life.

So secondly; by presenting the philosophy of such great thinkers as Aristotle, Ovid, Wright, and Epicurus, we are trying to establish a criteria to guide us in our future.

We feel that by the adoption of these principles by our readers, their later lives will be greatly improved.

Following the dancing there was an excellent program of entertainment. William Booth served as Master of Ceremonies. Solos were sung by Joyce Huff, Barbara Hartorow, and Marie Eldridge. Frank Mignole played a trumpet solo. Accompanists were Nancy Hanrahan and Joan Swelbka. Frederick Kattas sang and played a guitar and lames Eden played a piano solo.

Our willing o	nd	able	ad	visor	WUS	Mr.	Paul	Reber.

The club sent delegates to county, area and state assemblies. Leslie Chard was the Dunkirk Hi-Y delegate sent to Albany.

The club activities this year included the refreshment stand at the football games and Christmas baskets.

Every year at the commencement exercises, the Hi-Y presents its annual Peace Award in the form of a gold key. This award is given to any pupil in the Dunkirk School System who has made sacrifice for the benefit of others. Any student or teacher may nominate a pupil they think is worthy to receive this award. A committee composed of students and faculty members decides the person who, they think is most deserving of the gold key. This award is given in memory of the servicemen who lost their lives in World War II.

The most important activity of the year was the Hi-Y's annual "Sweet-heart of the Hi-Y" dance.

The year's activities were brought to a close by the annual Hi-Y banquet at which the new officers were installed.

Figures speak louder than words. Food speaks more lavorably than either figures or words. That is the situation in our Caleteria.

Let's take the ligures and words first. In 1949, the total number of meals served during the first semester were 4,643. In 1952, for a comparable period, 16,536 meals were served. That is an increase of 11,893 meals over the 1949 figure. (And every year it gets better and better). This year the increase in the number of meals served is 1,538 over last year. So much for the words and figures on the Food situation in the Cafeteria.

Now, what's the explanation? Food is the explanation. Food that has quality. Food that has variety. Food that is priced within our capacity to pay.

We want to say a particular word about that last "priced within our capacity to pay" item. Mr. Bill Cease makes that possible. He supplies first quality food, in variety, at cost. Yes, he supplies the food without profit. That is one of Bill Cease's quiet, unassuming philanthropies. We want even the Freshmen to know what we are talking about. This is a dictionary definition of Philanthropy: "Disposition or effort to promote the happiness or social elevation of mankind; desire or effort, or beneficence, as by making donations, intended to mitigate social evils and increase social comfort".

And our definition of Mr. Bill Cease is "He's a swell guy that gives us swell food." We want to thank you, Mr. Cease.

The object of the Girl's "D" Club was to instill in the girls a feeling of good sportsmanship and to create a friendly atmosphere among the girls.

To become eligible for the Club, a total of seven hundred points had to be earned by participation in basketball, deck tennis, soccer, volleyball, archery, and softball.

The Club was under the supervision of our two physical education instructors, Miss Aileen Murray and Mrs. Iane Hegmann. Officers for the year were: President, Helen Albertine: Vice President, Gail Briggs; Secretary, Arda Faust: Treasurer, Nancy Nowak: Reporter, Joanne Sobecki.

On October 9th, an informal initiation of new members took place at the school library. Four dances were held during the course of the year, in cooperation with the Boys "D" Club.

The girls participated in several playdays. They were the guests of the Fredonia Leaders Club at a basketball tournament. On March 4th, the "D" Club was host to girls from Fredonia and St. Mary's in a volleyball and basketball tournament which featured "Komic Kapers" as its theme. The "Little Lulu's" were the victorious team. Awards were given at the luncheon which followed in the high school cafeteria.

On May 9th, the annual Spring Dance was held in the boys gymnasium. The theme of the affair was "Spring Fever", and dancing was to the music of Tony Salatino's orchestra.

The main purpose of the Leader's Club is to assist in teaching the principles of fair play and good sportsmanship. From this club it is hoped there will be developed the spirit of leadership in each of its members.

With the present threat of aggression, our country needs leaders! That is the job for all society—to be sure that ample energies are spent to develop good leaders.

It is uninhibited human nature that causes man to take advantage of authority once it is gained. Here lies the aim of creating leaders—to emphasize the duties, responsibilities, and correct usage of leadership. A despot or dictator is not a leader but a destructive tyrant because he is still human and no matter how noble his intentions he is finally overwhelmed by his position.

A true leader is one who works for the benefit of all. We need this kind of leader; it is our job to create him.

Majorettes

The majorettes contributed to the marching band a look of snap and precision. Two of the girls, Irma Schnabel and Charmaine Brown, both juntors, have been twirling with the band since they were freshmen. Dolores Rafalske and Mary Schoener were chosen from several who competed for positions vacated by seniors last year.

Susan Summerlee, a third grader, did an excellent job of entertaining the speciators with her improvised routines.

Barbara Brick, the drum majorette, did a capable job of putting the band through their various maneuvers. She transferred from Fredonia in her junior year.

These girls all worked very hard to put on excellent entertainment at half time of the football games, in parades, and the competition at Fredoria State Teachers College.

The Dunkirk Marauders set out on the 1951 campaign with an experienced but injury hampered team. Traveling to Hamburg the Maroon was defeated 6 to 0 in a hard fought gridiran battle. The following week suffering from further injuries the hard lighting Marauders were downed 34 to 0 by a strong Niagara Falls eleven. Ranks refilled and spirits high the Dunkirk men traveled to Tonawanda to outdo their powerful team 20 to 6. Returning to the home stands the Maroon challenged the highly rated Jamestown Raiders, losing in a close and hard fought game 14 to 6. The following week the proven Lackawanna eleven traveled to Dunkirk to defeat the Maroons in a close 24 to 20 battle.

Tradition was resumed when the Marauders challenged their old rival Warren. The Marauders eleven emerged on top of the 7-0 score. Traveling to the Mud Bowl the Marauders slipped and slid on the sloppy field but were only able to cross the goal once. The Orange too were hampered by conditions and succeeded only in tying the score. The only winner in the 6-6 battle was old man mud from F, H. S.

Statistically, the Maroon and White ended their campaign in two victories, 4 defeats, and one tie. We, the Class of '52, wish to extend to the team and to Mr. Hoeppner, Mr. Rozumalski, Mr. Pagano, and Mr. Clemens our sincere thanks for the time and effort put forth.

Class History

H. Albertine, C. Betz, M. Smith, P. Rhinohari

In the fall of 1948, we entered our freshman year, freshies of course, but fresh in spirit and eager to tackle the Job ahead of us. We elected as our class officers—President, William Custer; Vice President, Helen Albertine; Secretary, Priscilla Rhinehart; and Treasurer, Michael Smith.

On October 21, we held our first class party in the boys' gymnasium. The Woodcliffe orchestra furnished the music for our dance. Michael Smith acted as Master of Ceremonies on a well planned skit. These members of our class entertained: Roberta Bartkowiak, Jo Ann Hoover, Regina Phelps, Nancy Ryan, James Pomroy, Priscilla Rhinehart, Louis Wyszynski, Salvatore Pusateri. Alona Nowak, and Joan Muscato. Refreshments, served during intermission, helped make the party a real hit.

Much of our success during our freshman year is owed to the faithful guidance of our class advisors. Miss Jesse Florence, Miss Katherine McKeon, and Mr. Robert Shafer.

We entered our second year of high school, in the fall of 1949, with our first step toward graduation behind us.

Our class officers, chosen for their initiative as well as their popularity, were: President, Helen Albertine; Vice President, Michael Smith: Secretary, Carol Petz: and Treasurer, Priscilla Rhinehart.

Our class party, "The Shmoo Hop", was held in the boys' aymnasium. The theme was Al Capp's "Li'l Abner".

The decorations, depicting the community of Dogpatch, consisted of Shmoos—Hairless Joe, Lil Abner, and butter, eggs, and cheese. In a typical Dogpatch cabin Cliff Corbins played for the dancing.

During the intermission Master of Ceremonies, Ronald Sobecki, introduced the following numbers: A trombone solo by James Pomroy; an accordion number by Louis Wyszynski; a vocal selection by Patricia Sikorski; Clover Schoener, Gene Wright, Salvatare Pusateri and Jo Ann Hoover. Joan Sweibka acted as accompanist for the vocal selections. One of the highlights of the entertainment was the skit, "Where's the Baby?" presented by Edmund Bielawski, Frances Korzeniewski, Karl Kerns, and Beverly Stowell.

Miss Dolores Ganslow, Mr. Anthony Conti, and Mr. John Benn guided us through our second eventful year of high school.

Early in the Iall of 1950, we chose the class leaders of our junior class: President, William Custer; Vice President, Clover Schoener; Secretary, Carol Petz; and Treasurer, Helen Albertine.

The class party "The Roaring Twenties" was held in the boys gymnasium. Phil Favata's orchestra supplied the class and their invited quests to a night they will never farget.

Class History

Chairmen of the committees were: Decoration, Jean Martin: Music, James Pomroy: Program, Sam Corsi; Retreshments, Laura Kemp; Entertainment, Helen Albertine; Publicity, Clover Schoener; and Cleanup, Glenn Gardinier.

Our class was honored to have as our year around guest. Peter von Schweitzer, all Felsburg, Germany in the American zone. He was one of the hundred boys and girls chosen to come to the United States as part of a student exchange program. Peter was active in all athletics and our school programs. He also addressed various clubs and churches, telling about his school and home conditions in Germany.

The Honor Society and the Class of '52 made him an honorary member and advisor.

Miss Edith Osborne, Miss Agnes Higgins and Mr. Paul Reber guided us safely throughout the year.

We returned in the fall of 1951 to begin our last lap of our high school career. Early in the year we elected class officers who were: President, William Custer; Vice President, Albert Foley Secretary, Jean Martin; and Treasurer, Michael Smith.

Early in October, the Ivy Tower Staff was announced, with Clover Schoener and James Pomroy appointed as Co-Editors.

To help us finance the senior class, we sold Christmas Cards and Magazine subscriptions.

The first important event in our senior year was the class party on November 16th. The Master of Ceremonies, William Custer, assisted by David Bridge and Carol Petz, helped to make the program run smoothly. The theme of this occasion was "Memories". A skit, written by Meladee Stark, titled "Why Parents Get Gray" was given by: Michael Smith, Meladee Stark, Betty Rae Foster, Carroll Hayes, Gail Briggs, Joan Muscato, Peter Schwert, and Albert Foley.

The next big event was the Gross Prize Speaking Contest which was held on Senior Day, February 29. The speakers contesting for the Gross Prize were: Mary Ann Tilly, Daniel Putnam, Nancy Ann Tinley, William Custer, Barbara Brick, and Carl Zimmerman.

The judges were: Rev. Francis E. Mariarity, Dr. Mildred Dawson, and Mr. Joseph Rubenstein.

Due to the untiring efforts of Miss Mary Weber and the members of the music department, Senior Day was a success.

One of the highlights of our senior year was the senior play "Father of the Bride", Members of the cast were: Gene Wright, Betty Rae Foster, Vincent Lambardo, Richard Towne, Mary Ann Tilly, James Pomroy, Nancy Ann Tinley, Carroll Hayes, Carl Zimmerman, Nancy Smith, Keith Orts, Robert Newell, Glenn Gardinier, Meladee Stark and Evelyn Case.

Under the guidance of Miss Mary Weber, Mr. Charles Repert, and Mr. John Kreider, the senior play was a real hit.

May 5, brought the formal History League Banquet, which was held at the Shorewood Country Club. The guest speaker, that evening, was Dr. Charles Brady. He gave a very interesting talk on the topic "Stage of Fools" which is the making of a historical novel.

The General Chairman was William Custer. Toasts and readings were given by Glenn Gardinier, Carl Zimmerman, Barbara Brick, and Nancy Ann Tinley. Mary Ann Tilly was Toastmaster, Solos were given by Jo Anne Hoover, Salvatore Pusateri, and Gene Wright, accompanied on the piano by Joan Sweibka. Greetings were given by Mr. Thomas E. Harney and Mr. Richard W. Hayes.

Another important festivity was the English Tea held in the school library, on the afternoon of May 23rd. This tea was attended by the laculty and the senior class. The program consisted of speeches and music.

Under the direction of Miss Catherine Morrissey and Miss Hildegarde Foss the tea ran smoothly and it was a success.

Then came the month of June with the Senior Prom, June 21; Class Night, June 23; and Commencement, June 25. Our days at Dunkirk High School are now in the past, but the memory of them will remain with us forever.

Senior Play

Act II Act I

"The Father of the Bride", dramatized by Caroline Fracke, from the novel by Edward Streeter, was presented before record audiences on the evenings of March 18 and 19, at 8:45.

Dedicated to the concept that all brides are beautiful and entitled lovely weddings, even if their lathers are, thereby, exhausted tinancially and emotionally, "Father of the Bride", relates one uproarious incident after another, through which Stanley Banks and his family pass, from the time his lovely daughter, Kay, casually announces that she is engaged to be married.

Everyone is anxious to have a "small" wedding, but everyone also feels the need to slight no friends by not inviting them—so the guest list keeps mounting crazily, to the dismay of the bride's father, who must pay for all the food and drinks. The wedding rehearsal, the inevitable quarrel of the couple—none of the elements are overlooked, that go into making an uproar in families preparing for a wedding ceremony.

The success of the play was largely due to a well chosen cast, excellent production assistance and a most competent director.

Music between the acts was provided by Mr. Richard Corbin, who played several numbers on the new organ. Members of the Honor Society served as ushers.
