The

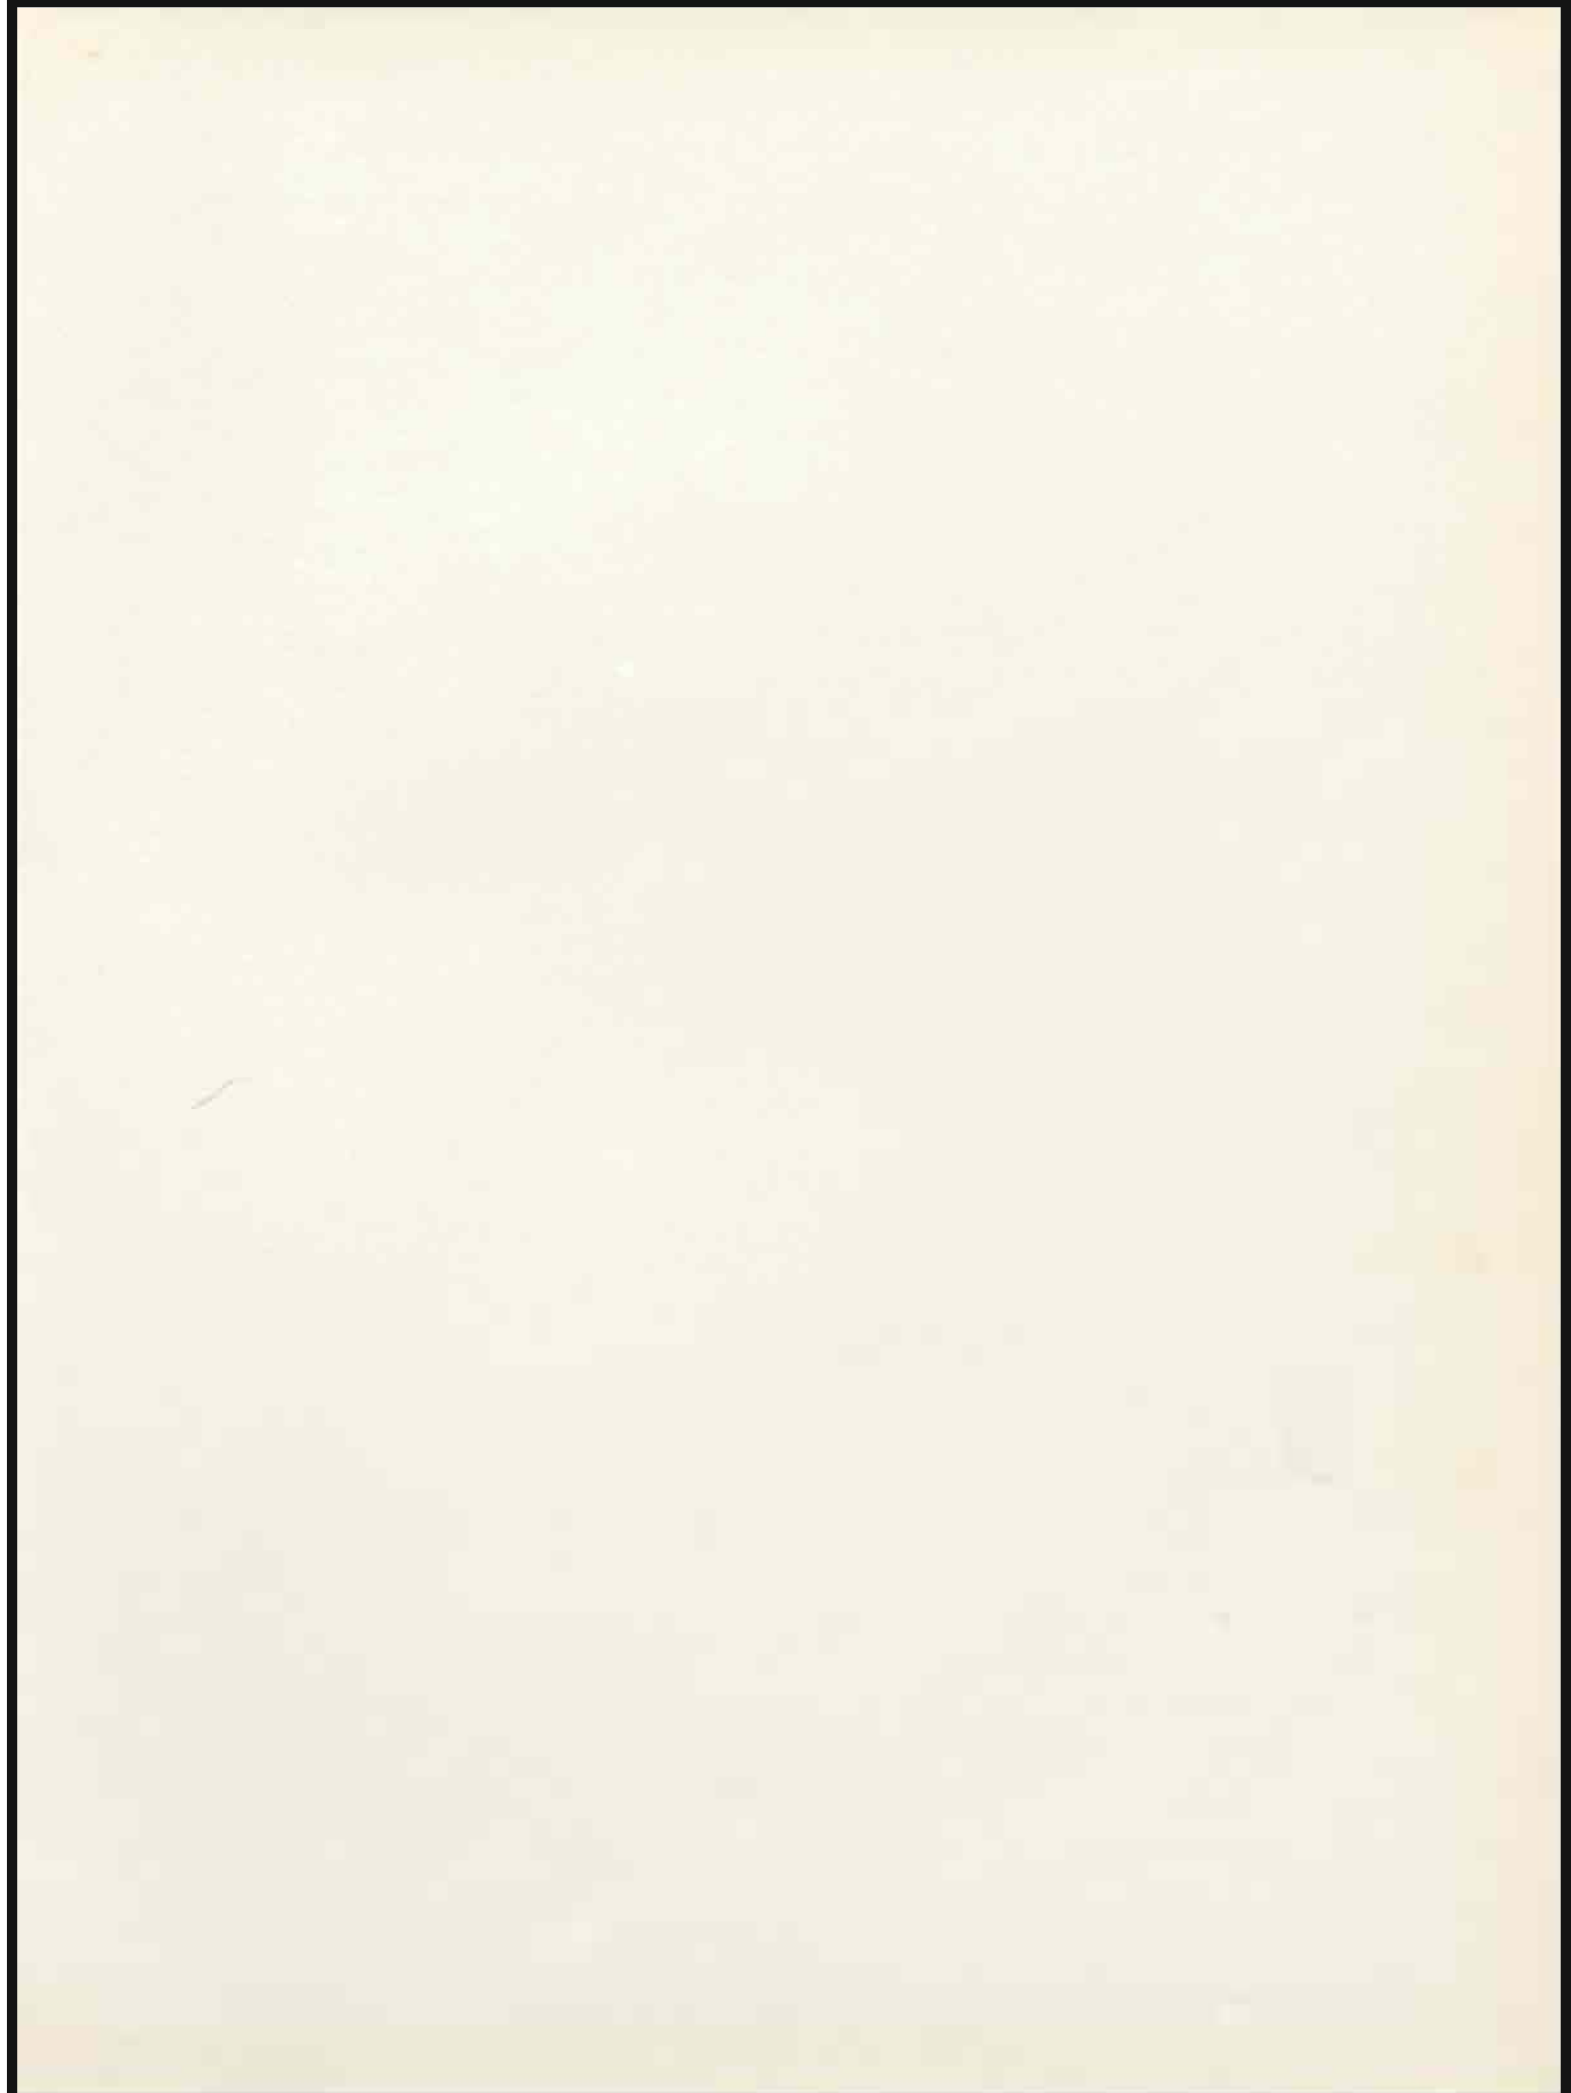

IVY TOWER

The Class of 1956 presents . . .

The Ivy Tower

A drama is a series of real events having unity and interest. What better way to describe our four years in high school! Certainly the events have been real, the action lively. Each of us has experienced joys and sorrows which have molded our character and prepared us for the next drama; the life which awaits us. The final curtain is about to fall. Let it fall! We are done with acting! Let us test our mettle on the real stage of life.

The Editors

MISS VIOLA H. COX . . .

to whom we dedicate
this book

Every author or playwright has an inspiration to guide him in his work. So too, the class of 1956, as authors of this book, have had their guiding lights. We owe a great share of this inspiration to one who has played an important role in shaping our lives for the future—Miss Viola H. Cox.

During the twenty-six years Miss Cox has been at Dunkirk High, she has devoted herself entirely to the interests of the students. From our earliest associations with Miss Cox in junior high, we knew her as the personification of kindness, understanding, and wisdom, and her interest in us has continued throughout our high school years.

With the dedication of this yearbook, we wish to express our appreciation and thanks to Miss Viola H. Cox.

In Memoriam

Let us not mourn their going;
Let us rejoice to know
That — earthly labors ended
They were prepared to go.

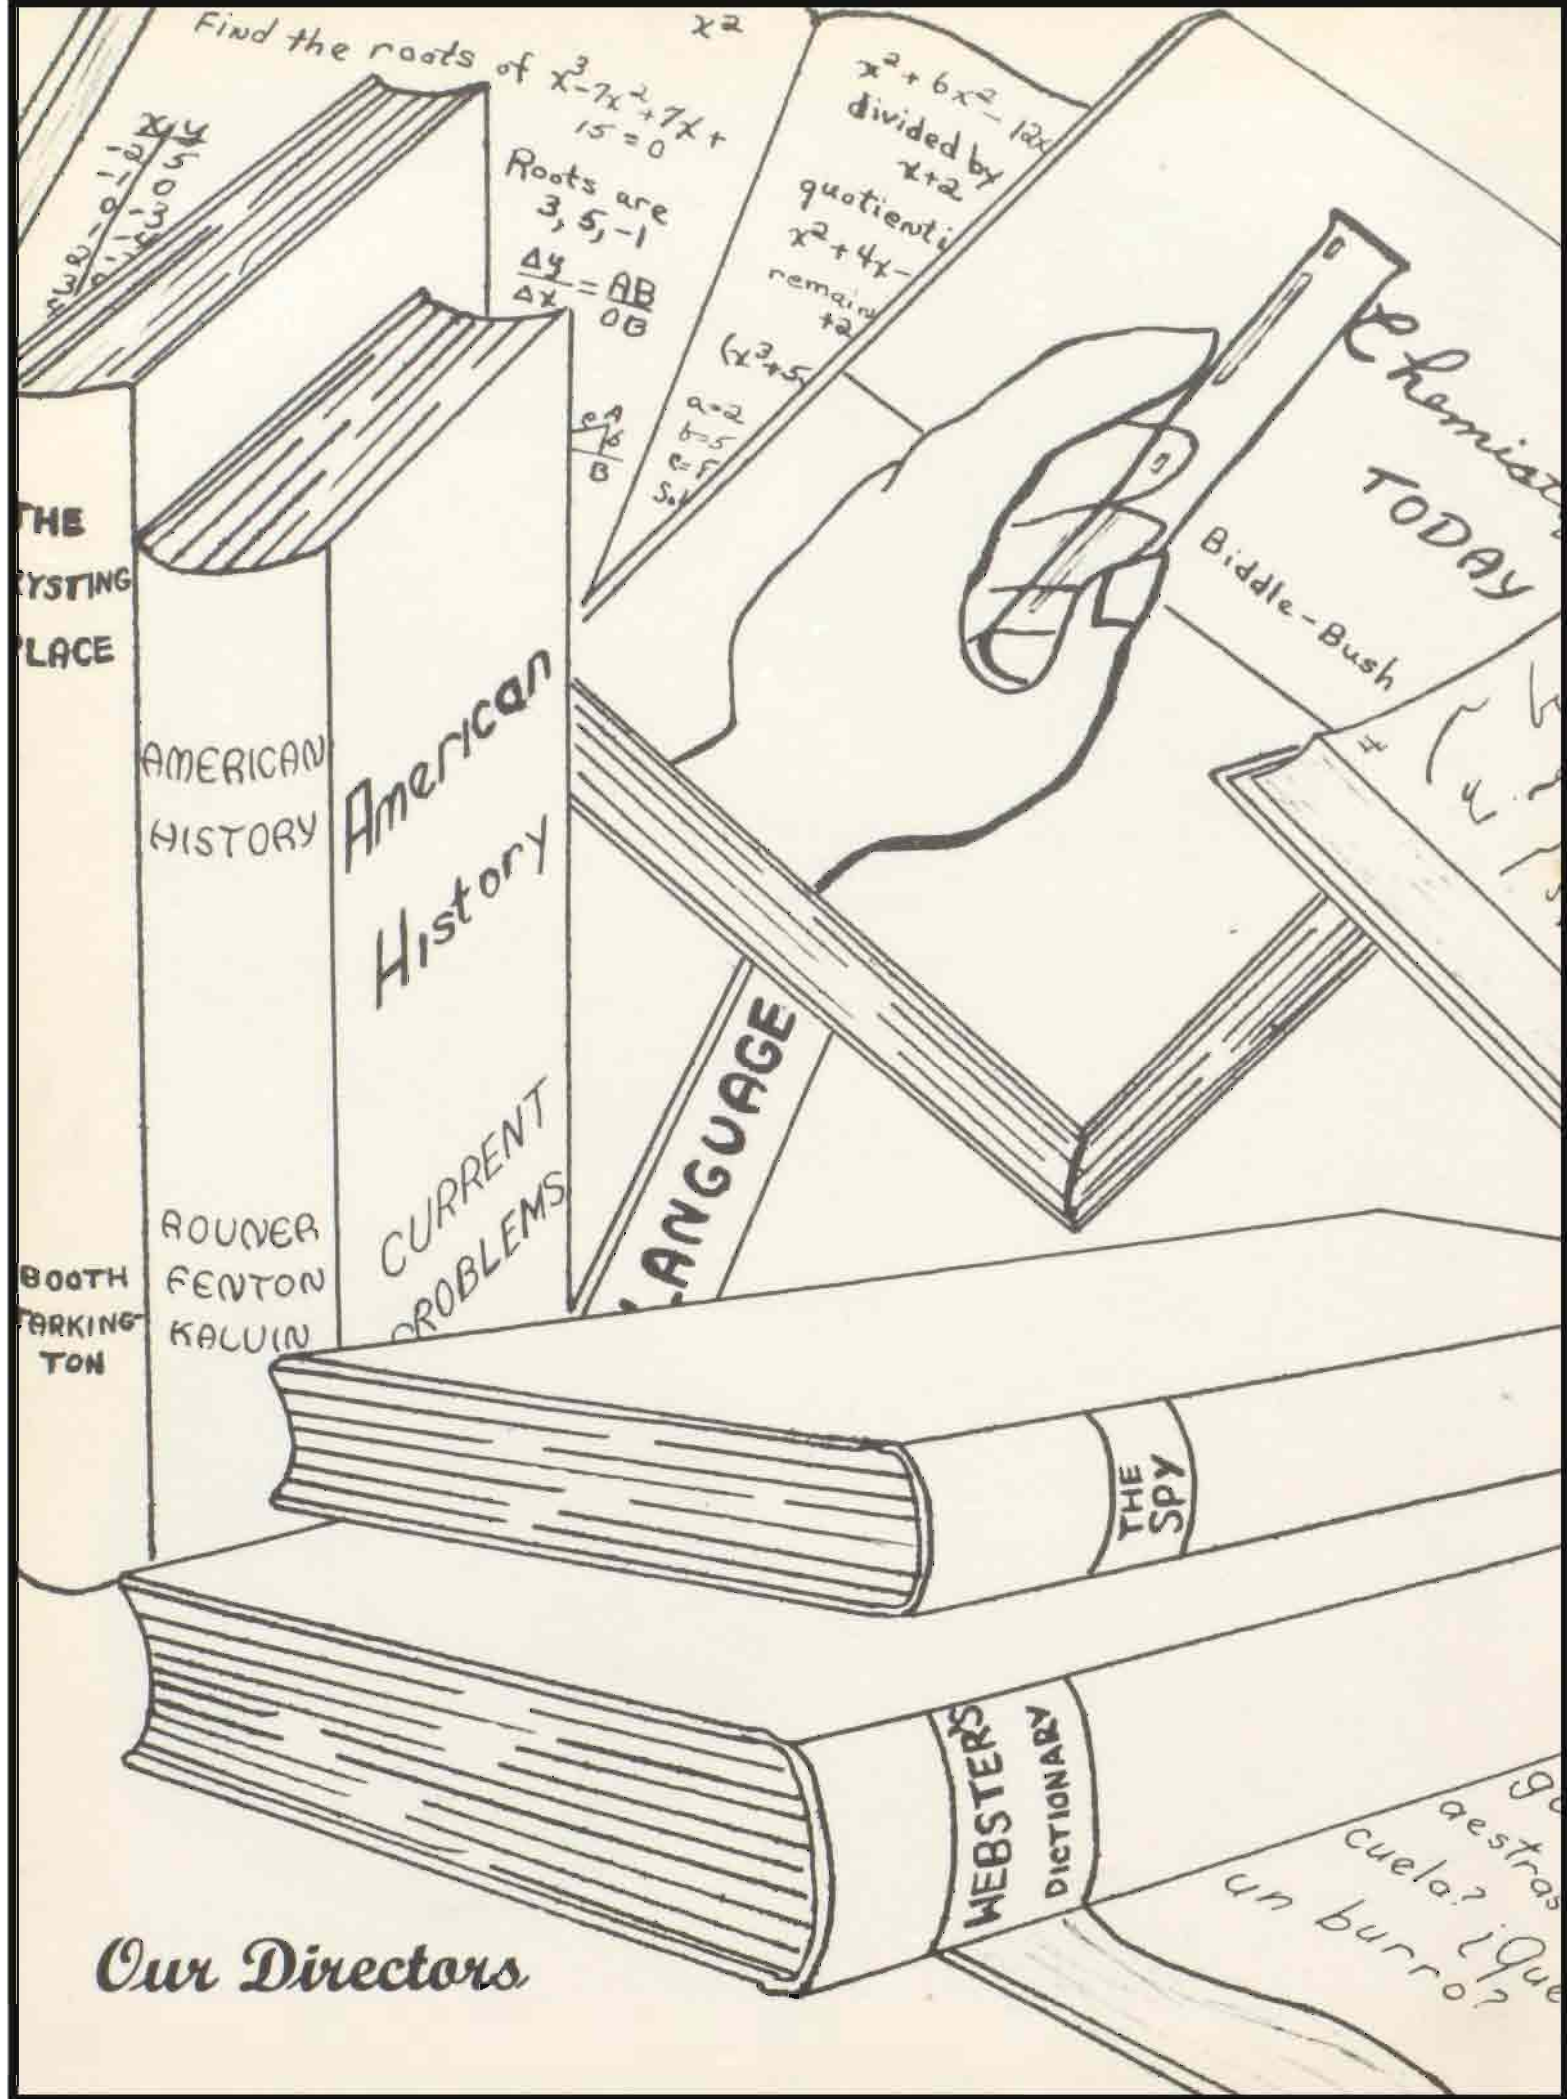

Let us emulate their virtues
That men of us may say;
The world is brighter, better,
Because they passed this way.

Senior Play

"Places everybody _____ Curtain!"

This is a time-worn call in show business but to the cast of "Time Out For Ginger" these words were new and exciting, for this was their first "opening night."

The curtain opened on a play that is not likely to be forgotten by anyone who saw it or took part in it. Dick Lutz and Carol Ebert, as Mr. and Mrs. Howard Carol, were terrific — "Howie's enthusiasm and "Agnes," subtlety contrasted very well, and together they brought forth more laughs than the proverbial "barrelful of monkeys". Elaine Rubenstein was excellent as Ginger, the fourteen-year old who wanted women's rights extended to include the right to play football with men. Andre Indelicato as "Eddie", Joan's boy friend, brought down the house with his bop dance to "Rock Around the Clock". Dave Prue gave a convincing performance as "Tommy", Ginger's boyfriend and a firm believer in "reason and logic". Martha Reed and Yvonne Greder, as "Joan" and "Jeannie" respectively, did an outstanding job of portraying the Carols' two feminine daughters. Livingston French and Willard Nopper were very well received as the irate school principal, "Mr. Wilson", and the amusing bank president, "Ed Hoffman". Last but not least, Peggy Harney as Liz, the Carols' maid, added just the right touch of cryptic humor to the entire production.

Carol Ebert's surprise birthday party for Director Joseph Parlato, affectionately nicknamed "J. L.", provided the perfect finale to a memorable production.

Class Song

To you, dear Dunkirk High School
Our hearts are loyal ever;
With campus green
And trees serene
We'll honor you forever;
Our colors bright,
They're blue and white,
With '56 our guiding light,
We'll treasure thee in memory
We never will forget you.

Senior Who's Who

In September the class of '56 for the first time used the voting machine to select their officers. David Prue was chosen to lead his class as president throughout this final year of high school. While the position is one of honor, it also carries great responsibility. Dave has shown his leadership qualities in many ways—as vice president of the Athletic Council, secretary of the Hi-Y, secretary of the Boys' "D" Club, and participation in both the senior three-act and one-act plays. Yet this does not tell the entire story. On the shoulders of the class president lays the coordination of all senior activities, large or small, and the ability to successfully carry them out has been demonstrated effectively by Dave.

Athletically, Dave is a four year man in football at the halfback slot, and earned his "D" this past season in football and last Spring in baseball. He also has basketball and track to his credit. Dave is destined to become a midshipman. He attained the second highest mark on the naval academy exam in the Chautaugus-Cattaraugus area, which entitled him to receive an appointment to Annapolis from Congressman Reed.

As president of the Dunkirk Recreational Commission, begun this year, Dave helped to initiate the Saturday Night Recreational Program.

Looking back in retrospect on his four years in high school, Dave says he will remember many things; however, three occasions stand out in his mind; his election as senior class president, reception of the Annapolis appointment—and the night of November 6, 1955, when DHS scrogged Fredonia in football 32-0.

With a record of leadership and high scholarship behind him, Dave faces a bright and promising future. The class of 1956 did well in their choice of a president.

Arlene Kokocinski combines friendliness and sincerity with that cover girl look. "Cook", as she is better known, is a petite five-one redhead and has a beautiful pair of sparkling green eyes. Her many activities throughout the past four years have included membership in the Honor Society, the presidency of the Girl's "D" Club in 1955-56, treasurer of the Alpha Tri-Hi-Y 1955-56, participation in after school sports, presidency of the Shakespearean English Club, membership in the Latin Club, and an energetic stint as Ivy Tower Advertising Editor. In her junior year, Arlene led cheers for the Junior Varsity, and this past season moved up to the Senior Varsity cheerleading squad. With that red hair you can be sure it's "Cook" leading a peppy cheer on the gridiron or basketball court.

Eating happens to be Arlene's hobby, and she says, quote: "I just LOVE food!" "Blue Moon" rates as her all-time song favorite, and teen-agers having messy appearances are thumbs down to "Cook".

Next fall we'll find her entering college for a career in nursing. With her pretty smile, businesslike manner, and warm personality, Arlene Kokocinski could be an asset to any senior class, and is certainly worthy of being chosen a Senior Celebrity.

Arlene Kokocinski

William Clifford

Typically the "Jack Armstrong" type of guy, Bill Clifford has distinguished himself as a leader in both school and on the athletic field. It was Bill who led the class of '56 through its first year in DHS as president. He also was elected to that same position in his junior year. His senior year finds him treasurer of the History League, secretary of the Tennyson English Club, and a staunch member of the Boys' "D" Club. His sports record gleams with superlatives. He played four years of football and quarterbacked the DHS football Marauders for two seasons; played baseball two years at shortstop, participated in track four years. This has earned him a sum total of six major "D's" and two minor "D's".

Naturally, Bill enthusiastically enjoys all his sports activities. He praises Dunkirk High's athletic program, stating that it teaches not only good sportsmanship but also offers excellent competition to its various opponents. Academically, Bill looked forward to his daily history and math classes, where he always had a question ready to be answered.

Bill will remember all the good, and not-so-good times of his high school days. From the carefreeness of his freshman and sophomore years to the 1955 Fredonia Football game and the 1955-56 Marauder championship basketball team—these memories stand foremost in his mind.

Bill will attend college to attain an engineering degree. With his determination, sense of responsibility, and sparkling personality, Bill Clifford is on his way to a promising future.

Kathryn Crosby

A friendly smile, a willingness to help, and a continual cheerfulness makes Kay Crosby well-liked by teachers and classmates alike. Always active, Kay is never one to shirk her duty. As vice president of the Spanish Club, 1954-55, chaplain of the Honor Society, 1954-55, secretary of Beta Tri-Hi-Y 1955-56, treasurer of the Lowell English Club, a member of the Girls' "D" Club, the Ivy Tower staff, make-up committees of the junior and senior plays, and a hard worker on the "Voice of DHS", she takes command of any situation and thoroughly carries it through.

Although Kay appears serious-natured she enjoys nothing more than a good laugh—and when Kay giggles, she REALLY giggles!!!

A wonderful athlete, Kay is right at home playing deck tennis, basketball, volleyball, or softball. Her main ambition is to become a physical education teacher, and she will enter Brockport State Teachers College to achieve this. In her relaxing moments, Kay enjoys listening to any recording of the Four Freshmen. She has a collection of these.

A truly all-American girl, Kay Crosby is a fine credit to her school and classmates.

Bob Elder is noted for his tremendous sense of humor that makes even the most somber laugh. This is by no means his greatest asset. As the only class officer who has been elected consecutively since his sophomore year, Bob has had an insight on this class of '56, enabling him to be well-liked and trusted by all.

During his four years in high school Bob has shown his leadership as an officer in various clubs as well as being vice president of his class, vice president of the Hi-Y 1954-55, president of the Hi-Y 1955-56, president of the Boys' "D" Club, and president of the Athletic Council all during his senior year. His acting ability was displayed in the senior one-act play, "The Trysting Place". His sports ability is well known. Earning his "D" during the 1954 football season, he repeated it again during the past season, at fullback. He added two more "D's" to his credit on the baseball team during the 1955 and 1956 seasons. Basketball and track are also sports in which he participated.

Bob feels that the senior class has changed significantly since its freshman days in becoming less and less dependent on the class advisors to make an activity a success. Some students always seemed to pick up the leadership and carry it through. Bob will remember DHS specifically for the fine school days the school gave him. However, the 1954 Fredonia football game with his fumble in the end zone, those biology classes when he sat next to a hanging skeleton arm, and the junior party take-off on how women play cards, he will NEVER forget.

The next four years will find Bob taking a liberal arts course. He is undecided as to a career, but will undoubtedly be a success in whatever field he chooses. Bob Elder—an all around student and one of which the class of '56 may well be proud.

Robert Elder

Carol Swica

Whenever there is a job to be done and done well, Carol Swica can be depended upon to do it. Unassuming and industrious, Carol has performed many unrecognized tasks for the class of '56. She never shuns her responsibilities and gladly will take on more if she can be of assistance. Always wearing a smile, Carol takes things as they come without a worry on her mind.

During her sophomore year she was elected secretary of the class and repeated her election in her senior year. Her other offices have included vice-president of Beta Tri-Hi-Y 1954-55, presidency of this same organization 1955-56, and the vice-presidency of the Honor Society 1955-56. The Spanish Club and Girls' "D" Club proudly claim her as a member, and this year's concert musicale was a bit brighter because of Carol's presence. The junior play "Sugar and Spice", senior three act play "Time Out for Ginger" and senior one act "The Trysting Place" functioned smoothly because of Carol's diligent prompting. And last but far from least all our class parties and proms have been artistic successes because of Carol's ingenuity with a paintbrush or pencil.

Carol loves participating in sports. From soccer to softball she never fails to make interclass. Her favorite subjects are history and math and when the honor roll came out, Carol's name never failed to appear.

The most memorable occasion of her four high school years was being chosen Sweetheart of the Hi-Y in her junior year. She also lists the senior play as hard work well worth the effort and will always remember the many laughs during rehearsals.

Carol hopes to become a teacher possibly in junior high school. The class of 1956 will never forget Carol Swica and wishes her the best of luck in her career.

Juniors

JUNIOR CLASS ADVISORS: Mr. John Krieder, Mrs. Elizabeth Roach, Miss Natalie LaGrasso.

This year's Junior Class is now standing in a position from which they can look both backward and forward, as if standing in a doorway between two familiar rooms. One of these rooms contains the memory-filled past and the other, the future that will someday become the present.

Out of the past the juniors recall their Freshman Party with its "Stardust" theme, and

Sophomores

SOPHOMORE CLASS ADVISORS: Mr. Thomas Murray, Miss Doris Dimpfl, Miss Carol Muscato.

Dunkirk High has an up and coming future class for 1958. Under the leadership of Lee Mirth, President; David Kepple, Vice-President; Paul Salisbury, Treasurer; and Margaret Hanrahan, Secretary, the Sophomores have successfully completed the first half of their high school career.

In September, the class planned their year's activities to include the Sophomore Party on October 11. A "Midnight Mood" theme set the scene for this gala

The Class of 1959 is the largest class on record at Dunkirk High with its two hundred and nine students comprising seven freshman homerooms.

Off to an excellent start this past September, the freshmen elected the following officers: Christopher Clarke, president; Mary Jo Muscato, vice-president; Jean Apthorp, secretary; and Carol Leone, treasurer.

The class then made plans for the Fresh-

Row Two: V. Incavo, J. Guenther, F. Polechetti, J. Taylor, B. Stoyke, J. Barowski, A. Sam, M. Kricheldorf.
Row Three: R. Polasik, P. Lagana, C. Pomroy, D. Reed, H. Stevens, A. Barone, S. Balzer.

Whittier Club

The Whittier English Club included in their course of study throughout the year creative writing, composition, and the history of English Literature from Beowulf to the Modern period.

Row One: M. Frankiewicz, M. Reed, M. J. Smith, President; N. Woods, P. Harney, E. Mozgawa, B. Miller. Row Two: C. Ebert, W. Nopper, D. Gawlowicz, Vice-President; L. Steward, P. Briggs, S. Jennyson Club Speeches were the order for the day on May 25 as the English Clubs held their Prize-Speaking Contest in conjunction with the annual English Party.

Preparation for this important event continued throughout the year at the bi-monthly meetings of the various English Clubs. Panel discussions, book reviews, speeches and symposiums composed the programs for these meetings, giving the students experience in speaking before a group.

This valuable training prepares the students for public speaking and debating courses in college, and at the same time provides them with a well-rounded background in English literature and grammar.

Browning Club

The Browning College English Club also studied the history of English Literature up to the modern period. The remainder of their curricula was spent on oral work, reading drills, study of Shakespeare's "Hamlet" and modern novels and plays such as "The Yearling" and "Lost Horizons."

Joseph L. Paralta, Director; Yvonne Gteder, Andre Indelicato,

Shakespeare Club

ADVISOR: Miss
Catherine Morrissey

In their survey course in English Literature during the first term, members of the Shakespeare English Club recorded or directly dramatized portions of "Hamlet", "Cyrano de Bergerac", "The Old Lady Shows Her Medals" and Drinkwater's "Abraham Lincoln". Another activity required each student to select one of the English poets for individual study and to read some of his works to the class.

Five formal programs during the second term were based on students' special interest in the life and character of the large cultural areas of the world apart from the British Isles. These presentations emphasized the beliefs, aspirations, art, music, or folklore of the peoples of the East, the Scandinavian countries, Latin America, and Europe.

Lowell Club - "Voice of DHS"

THE VOICE OF DHS IS ON THE AIR! _____ Each Tuesday at 4:30 the radio and practical speech class of Dunkirk High School presented the Voice of DHS over WFCB, complete with news, views, and interviews from the alma mater. There is much more to the preparation of one of these programs than meets the ear. For each 15 minutes of commentary, nearly 15 hours a week are spent gathering social events, sports, personality sketches, news around school, and special features, and combining them into a pleasing script. Each member of the class had his own weekly assignment whether it be writing, re-writing, typing, or broadcasting. The responsibility for getting the program on the air went to general manager Kay Crosby, and producer-directors Elaine Rubenstein and Dick Lutz.

Several times during the year various students had their own shows on the local station. Among the most memorable were the January productions of high-lited events in DHS, and the presentation "Adventure in Sound."

History League Officers

On March 24th the History League conducted one of the most successful paper drives ever held in Dunkirk. Organizing during the first week in March, the seniors contacted homeowners personally, or by phone, radio, and newspaper. Over 800 names were turned in and the paper drive was run one and a half days instead of the planned one. $24\frac{1}{2}$ tons of paper were collected giving the League a handsome dividend for the May banquet. Due to these results the paper drive will become a regular feature of the League in future years.

Club Officers

Something new was introduced at the 1956 History League Banquet, presented on May 7th. A dance was held for the first time in conjunction with the annual banquet.

Dressed in formal attire, the members of the League began their evening with the traditional receiving line. Following the dinner, New York State Assemblyman Bruce Manley, spoke on the importance and responsibilities of political parties.

Dancing from 8-11 to a four-piece orchestra provided a perfect finale to an enjoyable and memorable evening.

A great deal of credit is due Mr. Francis Geiben, advisor for the League. This was Mr. Geiben's first year as head of the history department. The class of '56 is grateful to him for all the time and effort he has devoted in maintaining the tradition and scholarship symbolized by the History League.

French Club

"MARSEILLAISE"

Strains of the "Marseillaise" drifted from Room 55 during one of the monthly meetings of the Chez Amis or House of Friends. Later in the program a lively French version of "What's My Line" literally rocked the room with laughter.

Of course it takes money to entertain in the true French style at these meetings, so the club expanded their treasury with the receipts collected from several candy sales.

Since the French are also noted for their excellent taste in food, the Chez Amis was assigned to the refreshment committee for the All-Clubs Christmas party.

Although few in number the club's active spirit and Mr. Henry Wojnarowski's guidance led them through a successful year, climaxed by their annual banquet.

German Club

"Sprechen sie Deutsch", (Do you speak German?)

If not we will also have to translate the name of the German Club, which is "Der Lustige Deutschmann"—or the Jolly Germans.

This Club is appropriately named too, for an air of joviality prevails throughout their monthly meetings. These meetings provide typical entertainment for the fun-loving members of the German Club, such as—singing, playlets, and movies on German life, plus plenty of refreshments.

However these jovial Germans are industrious by nature also, and several candy sales were held throughout the year to provide funds for the annual German Club Banquet.

Although few in number the members of the D. H. S. German Club have taken an active part in their Club's activities, and a study of the German way of life.

Spanish Club

"Poco a poco se va lejos!" Translation, please.

Well, amigos, this is the motto of "Los Electricos" Spanish Club, and it simply means, "Little by little one goes far!"

And in checking the year's record we see that Los Electricos made a great deal of progress. Besides the usual candy sales and sponsorship of the Spanish Club Dance on May 4, these "norteamericanos," who make a study of our Latin-American neighbors, exemplified a true spirit of brotherly love when they presented a Christmas basket to a needy Puerto Rican family.

When diplomats are needed for better Pan-American relations we should send for members of our own D. H. S. Spanish Club!

Latin Club

Latin is not dead as far as S. P. Q. R. or the "Senate and the People of Rome" Latin Club is concerned.

To prove this to the rest of the school S. P. Q. R. this year produced a special Latin Club Assembly in which they presented their fifth Auxilium Latinum trophy to Mr. Hayes. Each year D. H. S. Latin students enter a world-wide Latin contest competing with high school and college students for awards. Since three D. H. S. Latin students achieved scores of 115 or more out of a possible 120 points, S. P. Q. R. has now earned its fifth trophy in ten years.

Such a hard-working group should be rewarded for their efforts—and they were—at their annual Roman Banquet which was held in true Roman style and costumes, being served by slaves.

An organization that is always ready for work and willing to help is the Future Business Leaders of America.

Clothing drives and Christmas packages for the needy were an example of this club's cooperative spirit during the past year. As a means of financing their projects holding candy sales and sponsoring the annual F. B. L. A. dance on April 20, proved to be second nature to these future business men and women.

F.H.A.

The Future Homemakers of America is one of the few clubs at D. H. S. which belongs to a national organization. The F. H. A. is divided into national, state and local chapters.

This year at D. H. S. our F. H. A. chapter built its program around the promotion of international good will. The club has had speakers who have recently traveled in Europe explain the various ways of life in other lands, and they have endeavored to make pupils of minority groups in our school feel welcome in the chapter.

The F. H. A. was honored this year when one of its junior members, Mary Ann Messina, was elected to a New York State office in F. H. A. Mary Ann is recreational chairman for F. H. A. throughout the entire state, and she has charge of providing recreation at the annual state convention, where representatives from the various chapters in New York State gain valuable experience in the many aspects of home economics.

"How many can bring a deck of cards for the All Clubs Christmas party?"

If you happened to stop by the Library during the December meeting of the Theta Psi Omicron Chapter of the National Honor Society, you heard President Ronald Gestwicki giving this plea for volunteers to provide games for the third annual All Clubs Christmas party, held on December 14 this year.

This was only one of the scholars' many projects throughout the year, but perhaps their biggest task was the selection of their annual movie. Each year, the Honor Society rents a full-length motion picture which is shown to the entire student body of the junior and senior high schools. The proceeds of this film are used for the Pearl Reed scholarship fund.

This year's movie, entitled "A Walk In The Sun", was presented on April 11, and was considered one of the most enjoyable movies D. H. S. students have ever seen.

"Going to the dance Friday night?" — "I wouldn't miss it."

What was so special about this Friday night dance? Well, it was May 11 and the Hi-Y was holding their annual Sweetheart Dance.

Each year a high school girl is chosen the "Sweetheart" of the Hi-Y Dance. Every girl at D. H. S. is eligible, and a drawing is held at the dance to determine the winner. The "young miss" fortunate enough to be chosen "Sweetheart" is not only showered with lovely gifts, but is permitted to choose her own escort to accompany her to Rusch's for a free snack.

No wonder everyone was so excited about this year's Sweetheart Dance!

This annual event is the main activity of the Hi-Y, but the Club is also engaged in more serious affairs. This year David Overturf and Dick Crowell represented the D. H. S. Hi-Y at the State Assembly in Albany. Participation in the State Assembly teaches representatives of the Hi-Y the need for political responsibility and makes them aware of the importance of participating in politics before and after the age of 21 is reached.

Alpha Tri-Hi-Y

"Help us help others" was the slogan advertising Alpha Tri Hi-Y's candy sale of the "World's Finest Chocolate". This year the Alpha Tri Hi-Y embarked upon a program to help the needy. With nearly one hundred dollars profit from their candy sale, Alpha donated half of this sum to "World Service", which is associated with the Tri Hi-Y and is an organization created to help needy people throughout the world.

Of course everyone at D. H. S. is acquainted with the Alpha School Supply Stand in the High School office. This project provides the club with an additional source of revenue for their various activities.

Alpha Tri Hi-Y has charge of displays in the local stores for the 1956 Red Cross Drive, further illustrating that the charitable activities of this organization are an asset to our school and our community.

Beta Tri-Hi-Y

"Will the chaplain please read the opening prayer."

Each meeting of the Beta Tri Hi-Y is begun this way, and typifies their goal to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character. Resuming meetings in September the club initiated 26 new members and held a successful dance on September 23. Their many activities throughout the year included; donations to the Community Chest and World Service Organizations, filling a Christmas basket for a needy family, and participating in the All Clubs Christmas party and annual Tri Hi-Y banquet. The club also sent five delegates to the Fredonia area legislative assembly where their bill of lowering the voting age to eighteen was passed. The bill proceeded to the State "Y" legislative assembly at Albany where it was represented by Elaine Rubenstein.

Under the guidance of Miss Viola Cox, Mrs. Geraldine Tizard, and Miss Carol Muscato, Beta Tri Hi-Y continues to be a club of service and unique in purpose.

Concert Band

"Anybody seen my music, and who put my sax way back there?"

This was a common cry from D. H. S. Band members until this year when Director Anthony DiRusso decided to do something about it. The result was the remodeling of the instrument shelves with individual compartments for each section, plus an enlarged and newly decorated band room.

The new atmosphere lends a new spirit to the musicians within, and excitement ebbs and flows with the sounds of practice rooms as they hum through the day-to-day practice sessions, creating the intense activity which accompanies the preparation for the fourth annual full-scale production of a Broadway Musicales. Besides the intensive daily rehearsals for the 1956 Musicales, night rehearsals were called during the last few weeks of preparation to rehearse with the Dancers and Chorus. Dunkirk High's impresarios ate, slept, and talked nothing but "The March of the Little Wooden Soldiers", "Mannin Veen", and the grand finale "Salute to America".

Spirit for the many rehearsals and programs springs from the musical enthusiasm of the Band members, but perhaps the spark which kindles the light of musicianship in them is the man who overflows with a deep love for his work, the director, Anthony DiRusso.

Chorus

For those who "just love to sing", a perfect classroom activity is the D. H. S. Chorus. Although the most important qualification is interest, the ability to read music and to sing in parts are also helpful to the members of the Chorus.

This year the Chorus gave its first public Christmas program, accompanied by the Band. The result seemed so favorable that Director Anthony DiRusso decided to combine the two again for the 1956 Musicale. Of course this meant a great deal of additional work for the Chorus, for they had to rehearse with the Band, as well as their own rehearsals.

However, they came through with flying colors, and members of the first night's Musicale audience must have returned the second night just to hear the haunting, ever-popular melodies from "The Student Prince" and "Guys and Dolls".

The 1956 Musicale owes a large share of its success to the members of this organization, who have an enormous capacity for entertaining others and themselves at the same time. For as long as they can imagine, their being a "part of the Show" will reflect the gayest side of their days at Dunkirk High.

Stage Crew

Whenever and wherever a helping hand is needed, you will always find the Stage Crew on the job.

Members of this organization work "behind the scenes" for every assembly, movie, play, or musicale, giving technical assistance with lighting, curtains, and stage properties. The members of the Stage Crew also act as maintenance men by keeping the halls of D. H. S. clean and free from "clutter".

Aside from their regular duties, the Stage Crew sponsors an annual "Get Acquainted" dance, held on September 16 this year.

The members of the Stage Crew are the "unsung heroes", who, under the leadership of Frank LaPaglia and Robert Bernard, play such a vital role in the activities of Dunkirk High.

Citizen Staff

Advisor
Mr. Robert Bleck

"Now, that is neither here nor there!"

These are words that were often uttered by the long-suffering advisor of the "Citizen", Mr. Robert Bleck, as the journalism class went off on one of their tangents.

Despite serious discussions about segregation, the student council, and Mr. Bleck's age, the journalism class managed to form a solid nucleus for the "Citizen" staff. The staff successfully revived the "Citizen", which had been dead for two years, and aroused student interest in a school paper with such features as: "Citizen of the Month", "Larceny Corner", and "Liniment Lane".

Besides furnishing the school with interesting news items, personal student items, and food for thought through its editorials, the "Citizen" managed to break even financially—making it a worthwhile as well as successful year for the paper. Here's hoping that future classes will keep up the good work by continually striving to make the "Citizen" a success.

Ivy Tower Staff

"Hey! Rush that sophomore write-up, will you?"

"We could use a little more shading in that upper left-hand corner

"Darn it! Another dummy sheet ruined on this blasted typewriter!"

These sounds often emanated from the Ivy Tower Headquarters, room 66. Typewriters constantly clacked away, rulers and sharp pencils became a necessity, and slowly, the yearbook began to take shape. The six staffs that comprised the 1956 yearbook—photography, literary, art, make-up, circulation, and advertising—spent many a study hall and evening outlining their various assignments and carrying them out.

A yearbook goes through many phases. The make-up staff has the job of organizing the yearbook, deciding what goes where, and finally, getting the book to press upon completion. The literary, art, and photography staffs then gather their material as designated by the make-up staff. Circulation and advertising are essential as they bring in the money needed for the support of the yearbook. All these activities are coordinated by the editor who carries the success or failure of the book on his shoulders.

Thus, the 1956 Ivy Tower—the biggest single class undertaking—is one achievement that will serve to prime the memories of this year's graduating class.

Football

Coach Donald Rozumalski

The Dunkirk High School Marauders opened their first season as an associate member of the Southwestern Conference led by their quarterback's signals and a determination to win. To the members of the 1955 squad, football is a sport composed of many things—hard luck, breaks, work, and sometimes boredom; but even more than these things it remains as a game, something that's fun in which to participate. This is most important of all. Let's take a look at the 4-2-1 record of the 1955 Maroon Marauders.

September 30:

Dunkirk 30, Southwestern 7

Southwestern's inexperienced team was unable to stop DHS. The Marauders struck early, and took advantage of two quick touchdowns to win.

October 8:

Dunkirk 7, Jamestown 26

The Marauders were up for the game, but bad breaks snowed them under and they lost to a powerful Jamestown High eleven.

October 14:

Dunkirk 0, Strong Vincent 6 (DHS won by forfeit)

This was a night long to be remembered by both the fans and team alike. In pouring rain, DHS was definitely outclassed by Strong Vincent; but mud proved an equalizer as DHS held the Erie team to six points, and later won the game by forfeit.

October 21:

Dunkirk 7, Mindszenty 7

The Marauders played an inspired Monarch team. Outgained on the ground and in total offense, Mindszenty battled DHS to a 7-7 tie.

October 28:

Dunkirk 26, Westfield 24

Westfield Academy's puzzling offense had Dunkirk stymied for a while, but DHS, with a display of power, drove to a victory.

November 5:

Dunkirk 20, Falconer 40

Striking early, the Falcons disheartened the Marauders and rolled to a 20-0 halftime lead. In the second half Dunkirk caught fire but not enough to stop Falconer.

November 10:

Dunkirk 32, Fredonia 0

Mentally alert for this traditional game, the Marauders ran through the Hillbillie defense like Sherman through Georgia. The Marauders were never forced to punt and displayed great blocking and running as they sunk Fredonia for their worst defeat in 14 years.

Congratulations to Captain Dave Reed, his squad, and all the coaches who exemplified true sportsmanship and spirit throughout the successful 1955 season.

Basketball

Dunkirk's Maroon Marauders opened their season on the road with a league game against Cassadaga Valley's Cougars dropping a 57-44 decision. Dunkirk's first win came at the expense of independent Silver Creek with a final tally of 60 to 29. The Dunkirk Marauders moved back into league play with a 56-42 victory over the Jamestown five. Playing a game which had been postponed earlier in the season, the Maroon dropped a close decision to the visiting Tonawandans with a score of 66 to 63. The Dunkirk five went on the road to hand the Trojans of Southwestern a 61-44 defeat. The Marauders played at home and walloped the Gowanda Panthers 68 to 43 to increase their league record to 3 wins and one loss before going on the road in an independent encounter with Mindszenty. Here the Maroon lost a heartbreaker with a final score of 60-58. Dunkirk moved their league record to 5 and 1 with victories in Fredonia and Falconer by successive scores of 42-25 and 64-60.

The Marauders went independent once more to avenge their earlier defeat to Mindszenty by squeezing out a 71-67 win. The "Fabulous Five" defeated Silver Creek for the second time with a score of 65 to 51.

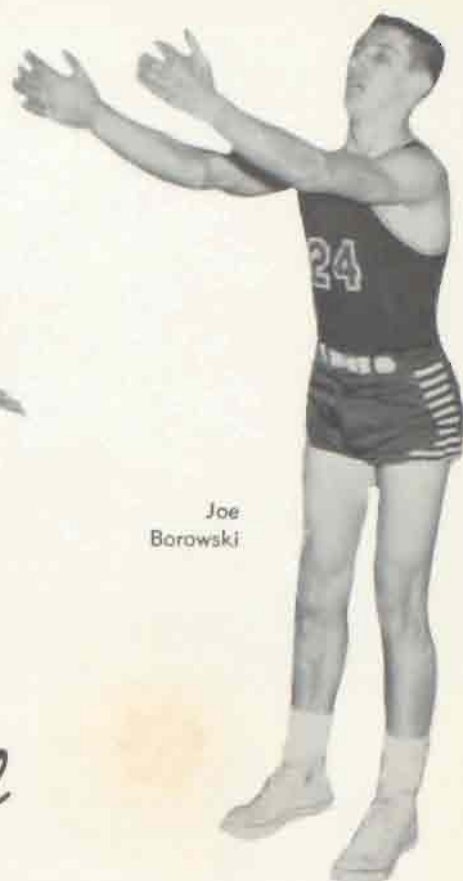

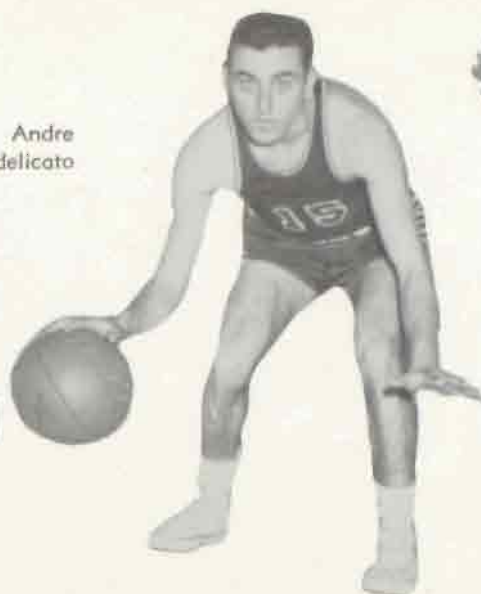

Opening their second round of league play the Marauders added to their win streak by defeating Cassadaga Valley 67 to 53. The Marauders scratched out a 71-69 win in Jamestown and moved home to defeat Southwestern 61 to 53. Dunkirk again came through in the final seconds to defeat the Gowandans on their home court by the final tally of 60-58. The Maroon again swamped the Fredonia Hillbillies—this time on the Dunkirk court with a 71-57 decision. Andre Indelicato broke both the school and league individual scoring record with a total of 34 points. He then went on to capture the Lake Shore League scoring crown. In their last league encounter the Fabulous Five dropped a close decision to Falconer on its home court. Dunkirk finished their Lake Shore League season with a 10 and 2 record—good for the league crown! Prior to playing Salamanca for the Bi-county championship, Dunkirk lost to Allegheny. But they came through to paste Salamanca to the wall by defeating them 73-46, thus earning the right to compete in Buffalo's Memorial Auditorium for the Section VI Class AA crown against Trott. The Maroon Marauders played a gallant game but were outdone in height, dropping the game 65 to 48. Dunkirk ended the season with a 14-6 record—a season filled with thrills, excitement, and memories for the "Fabulous Five" of Dunkirk High.

Baseball

Dunkirk High's Maroon Marauder 1955 baseball team, the first in twenty two years, opened the season on a successful note as they handed the visiting Southwestern nine a 5-3 defeat.

After losing to Jamestown by a final tally of 9 to 0, the Maroon went into extra innings before succumbing to traditional rival, Fredonia, 9 to 7. The Dunkirk nine broke into the win column again at home against Falconer; again going extra innings for a score of 2 to 1. Following the Falconer game the Marauders seemed to be silent as they lost to visiting Cassadaga Valley 5 to 3. Overpowered again by Jamestown, the Marauder bats were defeated 9 to 0; after which Fredonia and Falconer also defeated Dunkirk with successive scores of 11 to 1 and 9 to 4. In the season's finale at Cassadaga Valley the Marauders emerged victorious in a hair-raiser by a 3-1 count as Billy Clifford pitched a two-hitter. The Maroon's first season was disappointing with 3 wins and 7 losses, but there's always the old cry, "Wait till next year," and the Dunkirk team is looking ahead to the 1956 spring season.

Boy's "D" Club

"All right you guys—keep running or you get a taste of the lash!" This was the familiar cry at the Boys' "D" Club initiation held in November. Membership in this club is granted to those boys earning a major letter in football, basketball, track, or baseball.

The Boys' "D" Club sponsored dances after the Cardinal Mindszenty and Westfield football games, and after the Jamestown and Cardinal Mindszenty basketball games. The club also sponsored the annual football dance on November 25, when Mr. DiRusso's twelve piece orchestra provided the music for dancing. In order to earn money the club sold refreshments at the football and basketball games.

The organization this year made trips to Buffalo to see the Canisus-Dayton basketball game, two hockey games, and the Harlem Globetrotters.

Girls "D" Club

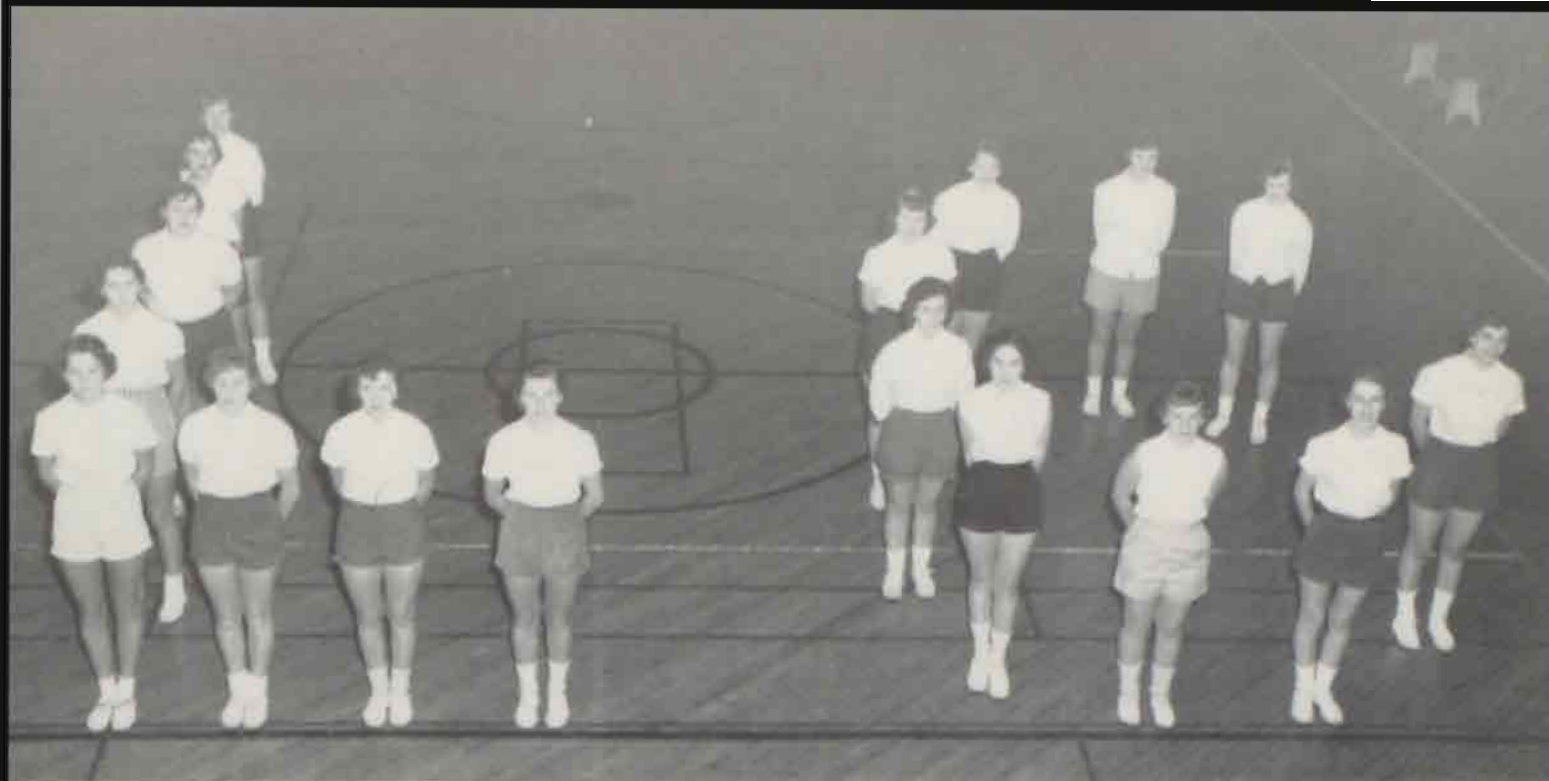

Far from being the broadest shouldered or most muscle-bound girls at D. H. S., officers and members of the Girls' "D" Club are quite petite. Their only distinguishing feature is an unquenchable thirst for sports.

A series of play days were held throughout the year to help satisfy the girls' desire "to play". Members of our Girls' "D" Club played host to girls from various area schools, as they participated in some field of activity during the various seasons.

The biggest affair of the year for the girls was the formal initiation in the Fall, when candlelight, piano music, and the rustle of hooped gowns set the scene. This year the Club was fortunate enough to have our new coach, Allan Stuhlmiller, as its guest speaker.

Leaders' Club

"All senior girls interested in joining the Leaders' Club, please sign up today."

Each year Mrs. Hegmann makes this announcement to the senior girls in her gym classes.

Leaders' Club is designed to give seniors an opportunity to promote and illustrate qualities of good sportsmanship, while instructing the underclassmen in various gym class sports throughout the year.

A rotation system enables each senior girl to be captain of a team two or three times during the year. Thus the seniors are given equal opportunities to demonstrate their leadership and to gain experience in working with a group.

The Leaders' Club is a shining example of good sportsmanship and character for the youth of tomorrow.

The Last

Deadline

He bid goodbye to the last of the faithful workers . . .

It was an unusually warm day in March when the last deadline was met . . . The journalist bid goodbye to the last of the faithful workers who had come to help complete the final odds and ends.

He had that familiar tired feeling. But this time it was spiked with an undescrivable feeling of accomplishment . . . the sensation that always came when he had done his best something.

He thought of the trials of the past six months . . . of the encouraging words, the hard work, the patient aids. And then he realized . . . there was one more deadline to meet. He returned to his typewriter.

The usual blank sheet of paper stared at him from the resisting typewriter. There were no words available to preserve the gratitude he felt. The old phrase kept coming back with the haunting realism of its true meaning. And so, with the impatience of the deadline-hardened journalist, he decided to use it.

He wrote: Thanks.

He thought of the trials of the past six months . . .

There were no words available . . .
