FOREWORD

The United Nations . . . a name that inspires thoughts of a world realizing its ills and expressing a desire to reform . . . has been selected as the theme of the 1959 Ivy Tower.

The perennial problems of government have always challenged the best minds. The difficulties of the United Nations have been made real to Dunkirk High School students through their own government, the Student Council.

The wishes of the Class of 1959 are expressed in the words of Thomas Paine, — "Those who expect to reap the blessings of freedom must, like men, undergo the fatigue of supporting it."

AS SENIORS WE . . . elected Jim as Senior Class Prexy in September, to lead us through our activities.

. . . sold Christmas cards . . . to finance our party and prom. Ronald Kolassa, Shirley Drummond, Susan Graham, Edward Harris, Miss Morrissey and Robert Grimm helped the Senior Class attain its financial goal. Later we honored Kathleen Steffan, Patricia Walbeck, Patricia Abatta, Patricia Pagano, Juanita Miles, Joseph Tobiczek, Robert Krystofiak, Ruth Gestwicki, Carolyn Hoth, Patricia Mancuso, and Lucille Kopliner as high salesmen at a luncheon at the Dunkirk Club.

. . . collected papers . . . for the annual history league paper drive. David Young, with Bob Will and his faithful jeep, pitched in with a helping hand to make the drive a success.

. . . relaxed at our Senior Party . . . which was held on Nov. 14. The theme, Mardi Gras, and the refreshments seemed to be enjoyed by everyone.

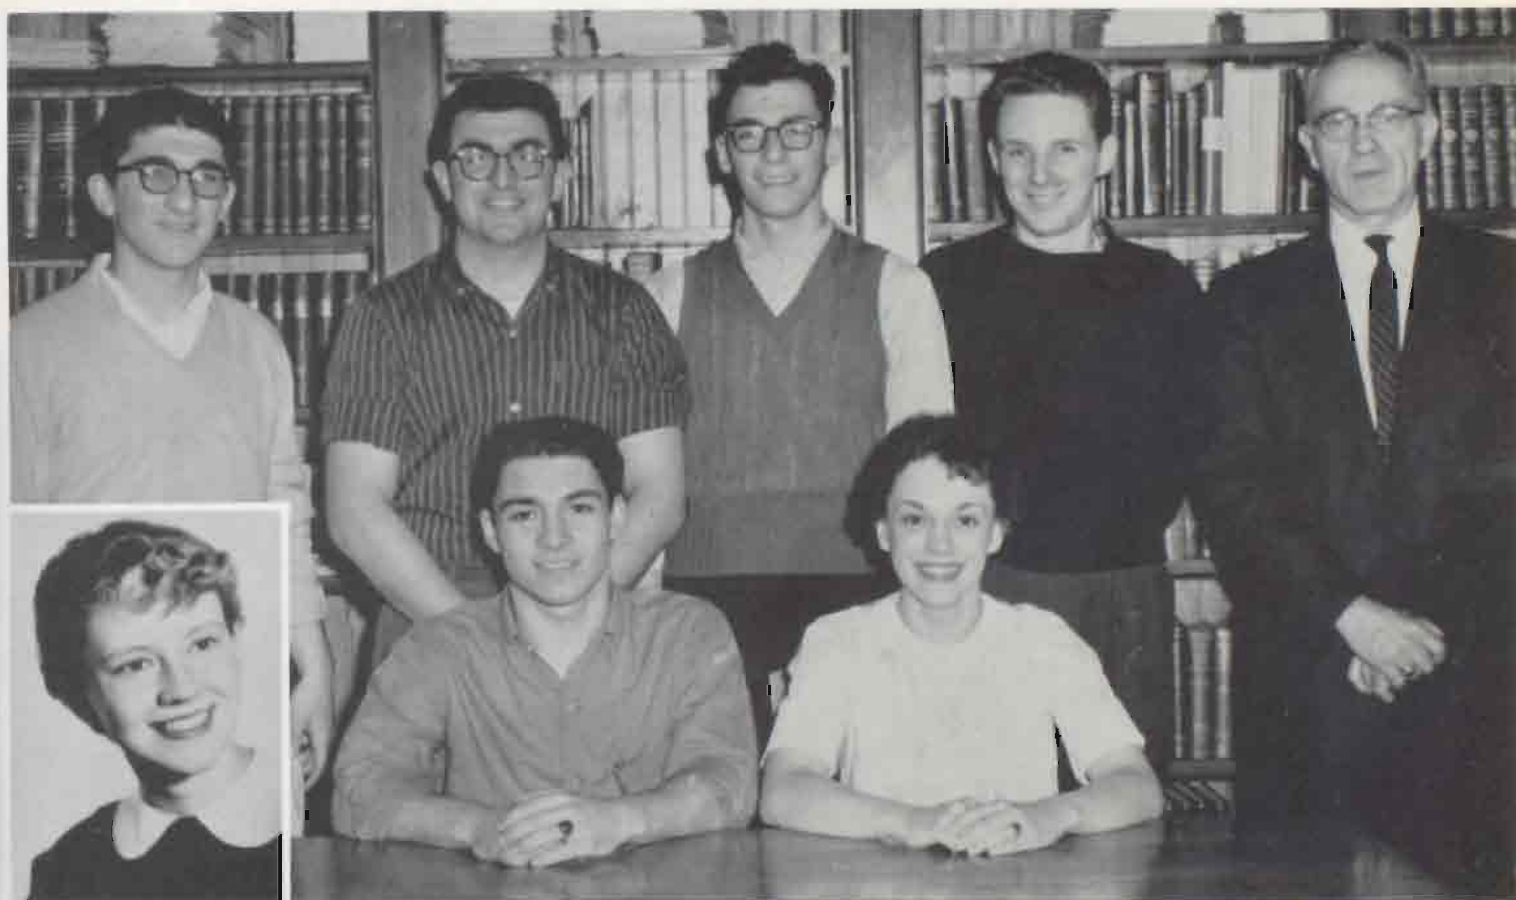

... also attended the All-Clubs Christmas party ... at which a variety of activities including games and dancing were offered. Here Barbara Mackowiak, Carol Leone, Suzanne Hunt, Marie Graminski, Audrey Kuzara, and Barbara Block concentrate on "Clue," one of the games.

... Vivien Withington won the "Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow" award which is being presented here by Miss Florence.

... and just before the yearbook went to press ... we heard the good news that seven seniors won New York State Regents Scholarships. They are shown here with Mr. Hayes. Seated: Chris Clarke and Dianne English. Standing: David Woods, Michael Granto, Kenneth Graziano and David Young. Inset: Ruth Gestwicki.

On Senior Day . . . these ten classmates were saluted for their co-operation, perseverance and achievement . First Row: Robert Will, Carolyn Marczynski, Kenneth Graziano, Jean Apthorp and Marie Graminski; Second Row: Barbara Sunzeri, Robert Lyczkowski, Michael Vandette, Diane Gugino and Ronald Schmidt.

SENIOR DAY

The Senior Day assembly included a one-act play, "The Jeweled Hand." Carolyn Marczynski, Barbara Block, Mary Jo Muscato, Jean Apthorp, Michael Gelaçak, James Kaufman, and Kenneth Graziano composed the cast with Vivien Withington as student director.

IVY TOWER STAFF

This year the Ivy Tower staff departed from tradition and had an editorial board in charge of the book. Board members were Dianne English, Kenneth Graziano, Robert Lyczkowski, Carolyn Marczynski, and Robert Will with Mr. Minehan as the advisor.

Assisting the editorial board were the members of the art staff, Salvatore Alessi, Barbara Bruno, Barbara Buczek, James Kowalski, Larry Pokoj and Barbara Sunzeri. Ruth Gestwicki designed the cover and Robert Grimm designed the liner. Miss Schober was the art advisor.

The advertising staff was headed by Diane Gugino and Marie Graminski was the circulation manager. Audrey Kuzara was the business manager. Mr. Conti was the business advisor.

The entire book was typed by Patricia Mancuso and Lucille Kopliner as members of Mrs. Roach's secretarial class.

Special mention should be made in reference to the photography. Robert Will, assisted by Robert Weimer, took nearly all of the pictures.

Members of the staff participated in the Columbia University Yearbook Conference in October and were happy to be informed that the 1958 Ivy Tower was awarded first place honors in the Columbia Scholastic Press Association competition.

UNDERCLASSMEN

To scale the heights of knowledge is the goal of underclassmen. The lamp of knowledge must be won anew by each generation.

The Class of 1959 encourages the Dunkirk High School underclassmen to carry high the torch of freedom in their quest for knowledge.

JUNIORS

After a busy and happy year, including a successful magazine sale and the arrival of class rings, the Juniors feel ready to accept the responsibilities of high and mighty seniors.

On Junior Party night we entered a theme of Winter Carnival, and as all the others, it was enjoyable. The biggest night, though, was the prom held in May. That night, everyone was a prince or a princess. The sky was the limit as long as that night lasted.

FRESHMEN

Last September, the Freshmen entered a new chapter in their lives. Freshmen Day came with its hardships, both practical and nonsensical, but all was endured.

On that night came the first big high school dance, the Hula Hoop Hop with refreshments and decorations. Other social activities brightened their days of longer study hours.

Working hard, as they have been doing, will certainly carry the class of 1962 on to success.

SPORTS

Sports are the common meeting ground of men. Here, all are equal; race, religion, and creed are secondary. It is the goal of the United Nations to obtain between the countries of the world the fellowship that exists between their athletes. Thus in a sense the United Nations is like the Olympics. They represent the summit in the hopes of man.

At Dunkirk High, the importance not only of superior athletes, but the sportsmanship of the student body, is everyone's concern.

FOOTBALL 1958

The Dunkirk Marauders opened the grid season by meeting the Jamestown Raiders. The Dunkirk squad bowed to their hosts with a score of 39 to 12. Dunkirk's first league encounter was with the Southwestern Trojans of Lakewood. The Marauders unleashed an attack in the last quarter, in which they scored two touchdowns, making the final score 20 to 7. In their next game Dunkirk was over-powered by Mindszenty. The final score was 45 to 0. Dunkirk's second league tilt was with the Salamanca Warriors. This was a hard-fought contest, but the Marauders succumbed to the Warriors attack with a final count of 33 to 6. The Dunkirk squad met Gowanda in their next league skirmish and the maroon and white downed their hosts by a score of 26 to 13. The greatly improved Marauders ramblled to a brilliant 18 to 0 victory over the Golden Falcons of Falconer. The final game of the year was the annual classic with Fredonia. The Marauders ramblled to a 20 to 0 victory which gave them an overall 4 won and 3 lost record, and a 4 won and 1 lost league record.

STUDENT COUNCIL

This newly organized council under the leadership of Mike Gelacak, has done an amazing job this year. The Council sponsored a best-dressed boy and girl program. Each month prizes were awarded to those chosen by a board of judges. They also promoted a no-smoking campaign. The bulletin board on the ramp between the old and new buildings was put up by the Student Council. Among their other projects of service to all was a campaign for a stop light on the corner of Eagle and Fifth Street. The members hope to go on to even greater projects next year. Mr. Mancuso is the advisor.

HONOR SOCIETY: The Honor Society movie, entitled "The Iron Mistress," with Alan Ladd, was a success. The proceeds went to the Pearl Reed

Scholarship fund. The Society sponsored a dance on January 16, as a means of fund-raising.

FRENCH CLUB: The French Club gives the students the opportunity to use the language and to become better acquainted with the different aspects of French civilization. Songs and skits are utilized to this end. The formal part of the meetings is conducted in French. The club sponsors a correspondence program with students of France. Officers were: President, Jonel Spina; Vice-President, Joseph Dawicki; Secretary, Susan Kepple; Treasurer, Julie Ames.

ENGLISH CLUBS

The various English clubs meet according to their needs. Their main purpose is to provide practice in speech activities.

They have delved into different readings among which were, "A Tale Of Two Cities," "The Yearling," and "Cyrano de Bergerac."

The Critics' Club, newly formed this year, made a study of the field of the Communication Arts by comparing literary techniques with those of the theatre, television and other media.

The College English Clubs present research material in the form of panel discussions, symposium, and debates. The five College English Clubs are, Whittier, Longfellow, Chaucer, Shakespeare, and Tennyson. The Emerson Club centered their activities in the field of World Literature.

The traditional English Tea was held on the afternoon of March 17

In December, the Shakespeare Club read Dickens' "A Tale of Two Cities." Suzanne Hunt, Thomas Mozgawa, Ruth Gestwicki, Judy Waterman, Vivien Withington and Barb Block presented a panel discussion of certain chapters.

The Whittier English Club found it interesting to study the different types of poetry. Salvatore Alessi, Ann Marie Jourdanais, David Korpinske, Linda Carbeck, and Marcia Cybulski take notes as James Smoczynski reads a paper he has prepared.

English literature is an important part of fourth year English. Here we see Marcianna Sobczak, George Catalano, Patricia Mancuso, John Barnes and Patricia Letersky, listening to Robert Gloff as he reads one of the more humorous short stories. All are members of the Longfellow English Club.

Patricia Fuller, Ronald Frodelius, George Noto, and Carolyn Marczynski study old English version of Chaucer's Prologue to the Canterbury Tales. As members of the Chaucer English Club they chose this assignment in the unit on poetry.

Drawing seemed to appeal to many members of the Tennyson English Club when they were given an opportunity to sketch characters from the Canterbury Tales as an assignment. Carol Leone, Barbara Bruno, Reginald Corsi, Joan Sheffield, and Patricia Pagano review some of the fine portraits.

THE CITIZEN

Activity was the keyword for the Citizen Staff this year. The main project was the Charity Drive for the March of Dimes. This was conducted by means of the annual queen contest. The Citizen Staff also sold D.H.S. sweatshirts to raise extra money. Despite the many extracurricular activities, the staff managed to produce seven fine issues of "The Citizen" for the enjoyment of the entire school.

HI-Y

This year under the leadership of President Gary Woodbury, the Hi-Y has engaged in many services and money-making projects, such as the annual Sweetheart dance. This has become a highspot in the school year as any girl can win, and receive a dinner at Rusch's plus numerous gifts. She is selected by a drawing which is held at the dance.

Highlights of the year have been trips taken to Officer Training camp, Jamestown Y.M.C.A., and the State Assembly in Albany.

STAGE CREW

Every assembly, movie, play and musicale owes much of its success to the efficient Stage Crew because without their help the productions and school activities wouldn't be run so smoothly.

The members of the stage crew under the efficient leadership of Frank LaPaglia and Bob Bernard play a vital part in Dunkirk High's activities.

ALPHA TRI-HI-Y

Alpha Tri-Hi-Y has once again attained success for the past year. The meetings are held on the Second Wednesday and fourth Monday.

Alpha took part in the Legislative Assembly at Fredonia and sent a delegate to Albany. They visited the W.C.A. Home at Fredonia and held a mother-daughter evening.

This year Alpha had many interesting speakers at their meetings among which were Professor and Mrs. Dawley and exchange students from Guam, Greece and Mexico who are attending Fredonia State.

The annual Banquet held with Beta Tri-Hi-Y and the Hi-Y brought this successful year to a close.

OFFICERS — President, Ruth Gestwicki; Vice-President, Lenore Trudnowski; Secretary, Susan Karin; Treasurer, Barbara Block; Chaplain, Jean Aphorp; Sergeant-at-Arms, Maureen Karin.

BETA TRI-HI-Y

Beta Tri-Hi-Y proved successful in futhering its purpose "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school and community, high standards of Christian character."

Beta sponsored a movie, "The Caine Mutiny," and a dance as a means of raising money. Their other activities included: donations to the World Service Organization, providing a Christmas basket for a needy family and participating in the All Clubs Christmas Party. The club also sent delegates to Fredonia and Albany.

OFFICERS — President, Joyce Orlando; Secretary, Carol Leone; Treasurer, Sharon Michalski; Sergeant-at-Arms, Joanne Pagano; Chaplain, Judy Serrone.

SCIENCE CLUB

This year under the guidance of Mr. Farley, the Science Club became associated with the National Science Clubs of America. Through this association, they exchanged and discussed scientific topics of major and national importance.

It is the purpose of the Science Club to promote throughout D.H.S., interest in scientific thinking and planning. Only two years old, the Science Club has presented to the student body several items of scientific interest.

Several local scientific professional men addressed the members of the club to expound the importance of learning science and mathematics. Among the topics were: electronic computers chemistry, and metallurgy.
