Democratic ideals transformed into a way of life inspire the United States and the rest of the free world to work toward a common goal — Peace.

Peace is not the absence of war; nor is it the absence of problems or strife or discord. Peace is understanding, compassion, and assistance.

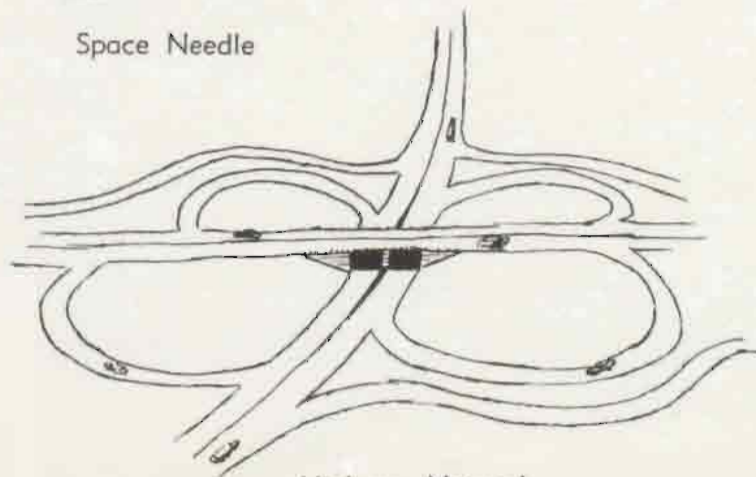

When America extends her richness and power, her freedom, her human and natural resources, to aid other nations, she is making an investment in peace.

Every American graduate can pledge his particular responsibility in this investment, "Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me."

The class of 1962 had an all too brief acquaintance with Mr. John Benn, who, from 1948 until his death on September 18, taught English at Dunkirk High.

To the graduates who enjoyed the pleasure of his company on journeys to Canterbury, Elsinore Castle, and other literary points of interest, he is a treasured memory. To those students who knew him best, he is becoming a legend — of optimism, of faith.

Were he to speak of himself, he might say: "I am not a teacher; only a fellow-traveler of whom you asked the way."

Some may enlist in the dynamic, new movements, such as the Peace Corps, an example of the good will and energy to be found in the grass roots of America.

CLUBS

America's forefathers first acknowledged their common bonds at the old town meeting. Thereafter in academy and lyceum, in religious and cultural institutions, they promoted their interest in and responsibility for one another.

Equally symbolic of their spirit are staid Independence Hall, housing relics of their influence, and bizarre Guggenheim Museum, loan center of contemporary art.

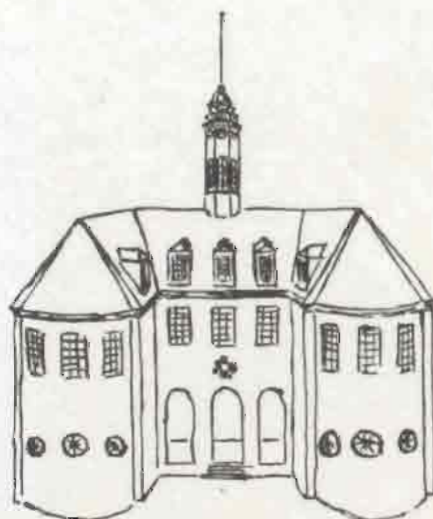

Encouraged day after day in the United States, whether at Cape Canaveral, in a university lecture room, or during a student assembly, the practical and inventive character of America turns her great powers to peaceful purposes.

The Dunkirk High School varsity letter club, appropriately called the "D" Club, has been engaged in many activities during the school year. Organized to promote the betterment of athletics at D.H.S., the "D" Club accepts athletes from any of the four major sports who have won their letter. Joyously conducted is the initiation ceremony, which many athletes still feel. The Club attended a football game in Buffalo when the Bills played the A.F.L.'s champion Houston Oilers. Of all the activities the "D" Club has sponsored, they are most proud of the new dictionary given to the library in memory of Mr. Benn. Officers of the club are: President, Joseph Kuzara; Vice-President, George Catafano; Secretary, Michael Criscione; and Treasurer, Paul Swebjka.

GIRL'S "D" CLUB

The purpose of the "D" Club is to promote leadership, sportsmanship, and high ideals of fair play.

SPORTS

Democracy in action — this is the true spirit of the Olympic Games. National rivalries and jealousies are superseded by the desire to perform skillfully.

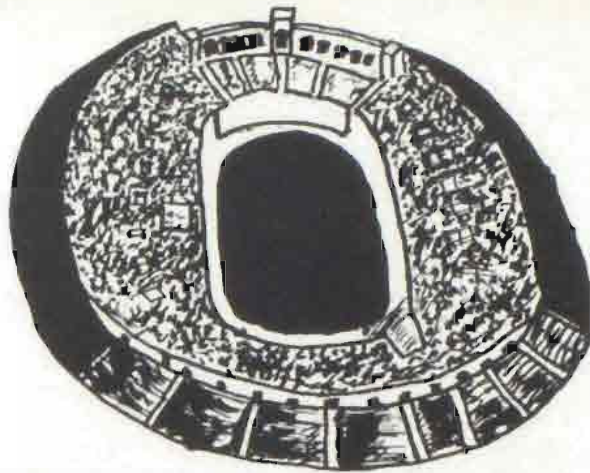

Each sportsman learns for himself the meaning of fairness and courtesy, and walks from the athletic field of his youth into another realm of democracy, — ideally, that of competent citizenship in a peace-conscious society.

FOOTBALL

Our Dunkirk High football squad experienced a rather disappointing season once again, dropping their first encounter to the Jamestown Raiders by a mere one point. This one point margin soon was seen again by the Marauders with the Southwestern Trojans, but in our favor as Dunkirk squeezed a 7-6 victory. The Maroon and White then suffered a surprising loss to a much improved team from Gowanda. The Panthers went on to surprise other teams in the Conference and then settled for a first place tie.

In one of the major battles of the season with our home-town rivals, the Mindszenty Monarchs, we drew equal straws and were forced to compromise with a 6-6 tie in a real thriller.

Nerve-racking closeness witnessed in the first four games was certainly not a characteristic of the next three. The Marauders came up against powerhouse squads from Salamanca, Falconer, and Warren. Dunkirk gave plenty of ground to all three teams.

In the last game of the season with our arch-rivals, the Fredonia Hillbillies, another thrilling show was put on. Both ball clubs fought hard, displaying equal strength, however, and thus ending in a 7-7 deadlock.

The Southwestern Conference proved to be an unusually tough league shown by the fact that it terminated in a three-place tie for the first place between the Salamanca Warriors, the Golden Falcons of Falconer, and the Gowanda Panthers. Because of this tie, our Dunkirk Marauder's 1-3-1 league record was good enough for second place in league standings.

HOOP NOTES

The Dunkirk Maroon Marauders, under the fine leadership of Coach Allan Stuhlmiller, had a sparkling season coming out high in the winning column.

Momentary disappointment came when the Maroon dropped their opener to Strong-Vincent after leading throughout most of the game up until the final minutes of play. However, our Marauders bounced back strongly, knocking the Silver Creek Black Knights off their 29-game win streak throne by a thrilling 51-50 margin. Then, hosting Falconer, the Marauders clipped the wings of the Golden Falcons with a 51-43 chopper. While on the road, Dunkirk crossed the "Frontier" and lost a tight battle. The Marauders made up for the loss by defeating the Southwestern Trojans by a 65-54 score. Doing a little successful hunting, the Marauders managed to capture a team of Gowanda Panthers and another D.H.S. victory in a 62-43 trap. The Dunkirk Maroon arrived on the home scene just in time to put our arch-rivals, the Hillbillies of Fredonia to bed with a 50-38 sleeping pill

"Knight" time came and Silver Creek gained revenge on the Maroon, handing us a defeat on Silver Creek's home court. Quick relief came, however, when the Jamestown raiders made their attack and were downed by the "big guns" of Dunkirk.
