Ivy Tower '66
The Senior Class of Dunkirk High School Presents The IVY TOWER 1966 Dunkirk, New York
The Class of 1966 invites you to recall with them the 200 day challenge of the 1965-1966 school year to see what 900 students did for 10 months — to see them in action — working, learning, creating, participating, striving, following the day-to-day routine, and just plain having fun. For this is what school is — a place where people interact in many different ways.

Seniors
The class of '66 enjoyed its liveliest and most exuberant year at D.H.S. As seniors, they set many precedents to be followed by the underclassmen in years to come.

Planning early for this year of years, they chose their class officers in May of '65, a first at Dunkirk High. When the school year commenced, they wasted no time in getting down to work. With their advisor, Mr. Ray Case, they formed committees for their dances, their skit, and their class song. They also originated a Sunshine Committee, an idea well appreciated by many seniors.

For the Homecoming Celebration, the class nominated four beautiful queen candidates, one of whom, Miss Diane Price, was chosen queen of the festivities by the entire school.

To raise funds, the senior class held a dance on February 1. This money helped support their activities.

The class party was held on January 29, the first class party to be held in the new school. It turned out to be an overwhelming success, thanks to the willing help of many class members.

This was followed in February by the senior class production of "Archie Andrews," directed by Mr. Albert Samuel. This play featured a double cast, another D.H.S. first.

The class ended its busiest year with their class day picnic late in May. This was followed by their Prom in June—the most exciting and grandest of the year's events—and finally graduation.

In bidding a sad farewell, the class of '66 held many fond memories of its favorite people—the students and faculty of Dunkirk High—and their favorite place—Dunkirk High School itself.

"Mark"
Calm and collegiate . . . familiar sight at the beach . . . such striking blue eyes.

Gary Zielinski
"Gary"
Natural leader . . . all American boy . . . attractive combination of brains and brawn.
Graduation will soon be here,
As we near the close of year.
Happy memories of days gone by
That we shared at Dunkirk High:

The Homecoming Game we'll never forget,
Lenny's election we think of yet,

Teenage dances, our Junior Prom —
These are memories of times now gone.
Lunch hour sessions were so much fun
Football games we lost and won.

The times we laughed, the times we cried
They're all part of Dunkirk High.

Remember the nights of the senior play,
"Archie" was the biggest hit of the day.

And "Holiday Inn" we'll always recall
As the party we thought greatest of all.
Meeting in the hallway between each class,
Walking home after school.

High school picnics and senior day,
Filled with laughter all the way.
But in secret our hearts will cry,
On the day we say goodbye
To Dunkirk High.

All the exams we didn’t pass,
The teacher we could never fool.

Top 20 Averages

This year the Ivy Tower pays tribute to those seniors who academically led their class. The following students have distinguished themselves by maintaining honor averages throughout four years of high school. They are the upper percentile of their class—the twenty highest over-all high school averages.

New York State
Regents Scholarship Winners

A total of seven seniors brought honors to their class by winning New York State Regents scholarships.

Holders of these scholarships not only distinguished themselves intellectually, but also will be entitled to an annual award of $250 to $700, depending on financial need, for each of four years of his college course at a Regents approved college in New York State.

There were also a number of alternates and many incentive award winners. Congratulations to all of you!
Our Mid-Semester Exodus Moved . . . .

On January 25, the high school students began the "great move" from the old to the new school while . . .

The untouched halls of the spanking new building lay waiting for them.

In a matter of minutes, they arrived at their destination . . .

Leaving those "hallowed halls" of the old Ivy Tower empty of high school students for the first time in 40 years.
Our People To New Places.

We all encountered slight problems in adjusting to the new school and its "conveniences".

Stanley back in the store, we began to feel at home again.

But things soon settled down to routine. With Lenny back at the mike.....

But, never-the-less, crowded halls are still crowded halls.....

And classes are still classes no matter where you are.
Underclassmen
The class of '67 became quickly absorbed in a flurry of school activities. In October, they elected their class officers. Joe Bienko was chosen to be president, Sharman Bieber, vice-president, Sue Haynes, secretary, and Jim Douglas, treasurer. Under the leadership of these officers and the direction of Mr. Brown, their class advisor, they soon became involved in many school activities.

In November the class chose Ann Proper to represent them in the Homecoming Celebration. Their next activity was the junior party. With the theme of "Gay 90's," it was held December 11. Ann Proper headed the decoration committee and Val Tenemore was chairman of the entertainment committee. They, and their committees, deserve much of the credit for the party having been such a success.

In late winter, the class sponsored a dance. The income from this dance was used to support their other activities.

The Junior Class Prom was the final production of the class. Held in the last weekend of May, it proved to be even more wonderful than the party.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Joseph Bienko, President; Susan Haynes, Secretary; James Douglas, Treasurer; Sharman Bieber, Vice-President.

Juniors

Juniors

Taking many exams is a task most Juniors encounter in the course of the school year.
The class of '68 put forth a burst of enthusiasm to begin their second year in high school. Choosing the class officers was the first and one of the most important of their functions. Electing John Scott to lead their class as president, they got down to serious work early in October, with the help of Mr. Shubert as class advisor.

The class's first function was the selecting of a miss to represent them in the annual Homecoming Celebration. Claudia Kujawa was chosen the lucky girl.

Following the example of other classes, the sophomores held a spring dance to obtain revenue for their other activities.

The class chose February 12 as the date of their party—the event most eagerly awaited by all sophomores. Held in the new school, it was presented in the theme of "Moonlight in Paradise" and was a big success.

Class of 1969

The class of '69 found being high school freshmen more rigorous and active than they had expected. After choosing their officers early in October, they set about under the advisement of Mr. Krawczyk, planning and carrying out their various activities.

Participating actively in the annual Homecoming Celebration in November, they chose Sue Meyer to represent their class in the festivities.

The class party was held in mid-January. With many couples attending, it turned out to be the highlight of their class year.

Organizations and Activities
It takes a co-operative, hard-working Senior staff to publish a good yearbook, but the co-editors and advisor bear the burden of administrative decisions. Shown at left are Ivy Tower co-editors Carol Cline and Kathy Ahlstrom with Advisor Robert Bleck.

Staff meetings, although not always formally organized, are open to discussion and encourage the voicing of different opinions and ideas. Shown here at a typical session are seated left to right: Carol Cline, Advisor Robert Bock and Lucille Chimento. Standing: Kathy Ahloeston and Antone Kuzcina.
The Student Council was led this year by President Leonard Ippolito, and Mr. Roger Bratton served as faculty advisor. The other officers were Gary Zielinski, Vice-President; Pierra Bonora, Treasurer; John Scott, Secretary; and Russell Valentine, Parliamentarian.

The coronation of the Football Queen was held during the half-time activities of the Dunkirk-Salamanca game. The Student Council sponsored a food drive, together with the Salvation Army, during the Christmas season, for the needy families in our community.

In March, a faculty basketball game between the D.H.S. and Silver Creek Faculties was held. A fashion show to begin the better-dress campaign was again sponsored by the Student Council.

The election of new officers for the forthcoming school year was held late in the spring. The hard working members will be rewarded with the annual picnic late in June.

The Homecoming Queen Contest, which attracts much attention each year, was held prior to the Dunkirk-Salamanca game. Shown are the candidates and their escorts: Senior Diane Price and Vin Rossoto, Senior Theresa Gutip and Ron Halberg, Senior Mary Lou Ticknor and Joe Catalano, Honorary Queen Karnaporn Janekarnkij and Alan Washington, Junior Ann Proper and Jim Douglas, Sophomore Claudia Kujawa and Dave Orcutt. Freshman Susan Meyers and Dave Orth.
"Walk together, talk together, all ye people of the earth; then, and only then shall ye have peace."

AFS Motto

For one year Dunkirk High was my school. I will never forget all the wonderful times which I shared with you—lots of fun and lots of new things. Saying good-bye is very sad since I may not come here again.

I would like to thank you all for your kindness during my stay here. I would especially like to thank my American family, my teachers, friends and the American Field Service Program for this wonderful year.

The French club, composed of students who have studied French sometime during their high school career, supplements the basic classroom knowledge of French history and culture through monthly meetings. The meetings are both educational and recreational in nature.

The French club initiated many activities through the school year. Besides putting on a program for the Language Clubs Christmas Party, they showed slides taken by Mrs. Jones, Mr. Bixby's student teacher, on her tour of France. Also, names of French pen pals were distributed to members of the club, and several French-speaking students were from area schools to speak on their life and customs. At the close of the year, the club held its annual banquet.

One of the many worthwhile projects of the Student Council this year is the salvaging of the old Ivy Tower bell. It is pictured here with custodian Robert Bernard prior to the removal from the red brick building. Plans are being made to have the bell, a lasting remembrance of the old Ivy Tower, erected in a place of honor in the courtyard of our new school.

Varsity Football

The Marauders, coached by Al Estes, suffered through another long season finishing in last place in the Southwestern Conference, but did salvage a lone victory over the Gowanda Panthers at Mindszenty Stadium. There were bright spots though as halfback Bill Bamonto was named to the Southwestern Conference all-star team, the only Dunkirk player chosen, while Ralph Feniello and Dave Jakubiec, both tackles, received honorable mention. Other standouts were Tim Callahan, Rick Bamonto, and Bob Wessells. Ron Pachol finished the season as the leading scorer.

Freshmen

The Freshman team, in its very first year in the Chadakoin Valley League, took first place with a record of 5-1-0. In a very impressive season the team, under coach John Mancuso, scored 80 points while rendering just 7 points in 6 games. Standouts on the squad were: Lamattina, Dykas, Testa, Criscione, Nalepa, and Penkaty. Bob Barlette was voted most valuable player of the team by the players. Their title was not obtained easily as they had to defeat high scoring Southwestern 7-0 in the season's finale.
Bob Wessells catches a touchdown pass in the annual Fredonia game.

Bill Bamonte scampers for a sizable gain as Dunkirk defeated Gowanda on a muddy turf.
Tim Callahan eludes several Mindszenty would-be tacklers as Dave Jakubiec (70) lends a hand. Tom Scaglione (17), Sam Crino (59) and Rick Bamonte are other Marauders.

Ron Pachol bucks the middle of a tough Salamanca line as Ralph Fenziello (77) and Tim Callahan (32) prepare to block.

Varsity Basketball

This basketball season didn't live up to expectations. Dunkirk got off to a slow start by losing to Silver Creek by a heartbreaking 45-44. We came back to beat Gowanda and then dropped several games in a row breaking their losing streak by beating Gowanda again. The Marauders then lost to Jamestown but came back to a big upset victory over second place Salamanca. Scaglione hit a season high of 28 points in that contest. Tom Scaglione and Jake Dengler were the only two consistently in double figures. The Maroon then beat Falconer by 18 and lost the last two of the season to Silver Creek and Fredonia. The Dunkirk cagers went on to the AA playoffs, meeting Olean at Southwestern.

Junior Varsity

First Row: Jay Warren, Joe Muscarella, Dave Polochetti, Roger Newell, Dave Criscione, Ken Ahstrom.

This year's junior varsity squad, under the fine tutelage of first year coach, Kevin Durkin, enjoyed one of its best seasons in recent years. In compiling a 13-3 record they captured first place in the conference. Their victories included Jamestown, Mindszenty, Fredonia twice, and a win over a previously unbeaten Silver Creek team. Team scoring honors went to freshman Dave Criscione, followed closely by Dan Allessi and Rich Gotowka.

Junior Varsity
The baseball Marauders enjoyed a fine winning season last year, with double wins over Jamestown and Mindszenty and a split with Fredonia highlighting the year.

Outstanding individual performances were turned by Dan Krupinski with a no-hitter, and Joe Bienko with a one and a two hitter. The pitchers had fine control giving up only eight walks on the season.

Fine young players like Krupinski, Bienko, Ramos, and Criscione give promise of fine baseball to come.
The Dunkirk High School Track team, under Donald Rozumalski, showed a fine blend of experience and potential last year, despite their 1-5 record. Established veterans, such as Dan Barlette, Ron Sievert, Bob Wessells, and Dan DeWolfe, collected most of the points with valuable aid from newcomers Harry Centner, Gene Hamernik, and Charlie Harris.

The lone victory, over Gowanda, was highlighted by the breaking of a school mark in the high hurdles by Harry Centner who was clocked in 10:4. Our strong 880 relay team also did a good job by finishing a close second in a field of 15 at the sectionals.

Farewell
The publication of this yearbook marks the end of another 200 day challenge—the last for the members of the senior class, for this is the end of their high school career, but not, by any means, the end of their education. These young adults will now go on to learn new things and explore new frontiers, whether it be on a college campus or working at a job. In bidding farewell to these departing seniors, we wish them all the luck in the world and hope that their four years at our ivied tower has been enough preparation for what lies ahead.
