THE IVY TOWER
Our joys and sorrows, our challenges and satisfactions, our successes and failures: by these we live, not in the number of years, but in the number of things we have done. It is not how long we have lived that is important, but how we have lived. A year is unimportant unless something worth remembering happened during it.

The tides of these reflections are ours, though the deeds are gone and can never be brought back. But through the power of our memory we can experience the feelings of those days forever. If we are rich in nothing else, we are very rich in our reflections. We would be the poorest of the poor if we had none.

This ability to reflect is as vast as a wilderness, as far reaching as the universe, as powerful as the shining sun, and as irreplaceable as time itself. Through them we can create roses in December, see happiness where once sorrow was, turn the winter of our distress into the summer of our joy. All things pass: time, money, even friends,—nothing is ours—only our memory of things past remains with us throughout all our years. These reflections are ours alone—to others they mean nothing. No Shakespeare could ever put into words their significance to the individual who possesses them—they are in themselves the perfect novel, the purest poetry. Who could ever express those moments of greatness: scoring a touchdown . . . acting in the play . . . cheering . . . laughing . . . a friend . . .

These are our souls and our spirits. They are our link between the past and the present, the link between what we were and what we are.

“Our life is like some vast lake that is slowly filling with the stream of our years. As the waters creep surely upward the landmarks of the past are one by one submerged. But there shall always be memory to lift its head above the tide until the lake is overflowing.”

Graduates:

Arnold Bennett has said the real tragedy is the tragedy of the man who never in his life braces himself for his one supreme effort, who never stretches to his full capacity, never stands up to his full stature. You are now equipped to make the most of yourself that you possibly can. All school staff members who have known you over the years desire you to achieve your goals and hope you will be successful in STANDING UP TO YOUR FULL STATURE! We wish you well.

Robert L. Cooley
Superintendent of Schools
You who are graduating will soon discover that your years at Dunkirk High School were happy ones and passed by much too quickly. During this period you have developed the ability to think, to work with others, to assume leadership, to hold fast to the fundamental moral and democratic values in the face of pressure. Use these talents to guide your actions in the conviction that your future will indeed be bright.

I wish you success in attaining your goals, good health along your journey and the satisfaction that attends a job well done.

Class History

This year's graduating class, the Class of 1969, has now had four years of unforgettable and exciting events on which we can reflect. From our Freshman year, one of adjustment to the new social and academic life, to our Senior year, a year filled with the approach of graduation, we have strived to learn and to mature in order to be able to meet the challenges of the world that awaits us.

That first year we elected Sue Meyer, Janet Kuzdal, Nancy Clarke, and Linda Ardillo as our officers. With the assistance of Mr. Krawczyk, we planned and carried out the various activities of our Freshman year. One of the activities in which we participated was the annual Homecoming, held in November, for which we chose Sue Meyer as our Class queen. Another was our Class party, held in mid-January, which may be considered the highlight of our Freshman year.

In our Sophomore year we elected Tom Muzacz, Marianne Bender, Mary Jane DiPietro, and Cathy Petz as our class officers. This year we chose Linda Kujawa as our homecoming queen. Later in the year, on February 18, our class party was held, the theme of which was "Japanese Gardens". It was a very memorable evening for all who attended. Also that year, "Moving-Up" day was held for the first time in Dunkirk High. For this event, Mary Ann Oddo and Craig McElhaney were selected to be our class queen and king.

Under the advisement of Mr. Gullayasamin, our Junior year included many interesting and worthwhile activities. Following the election of Tom Muzacz, Marianne Bender, Lavon Sheffield, and Betsy Roman as our officers, we were involved in the excitement of Homecoming weekend. Sue Graves, our queen, and her escort Mike Gotowka, rode on our float, "Castle on the Clouds". Then on February 17, we were the guests of the Class of '68 at the Winter Ball. Mr. Spina's band and the festively decorated gym set the theme of the Ball, "Mystical Mardi Gras". On the following day a snow party was held at John XXIII Center in Cassadaga, N. Y., where tobogganing and skiing were greatly enjoyed by those who attended. Then, in late February, we received our class rings, for which we had long awaited. And finally, on March 14-15, our class play "You Can't Take It With You", directed by Mr. Case, was presented. Sue Pupenbroke, Paul Scaglione, Frank Mmaslach, and Tom Muzacz held the leading roles.

Our Senior year finally arrived, and we elected Tom Muzacz, President, Mary Jane DiPietro, vice-president, Lavon Sheffield, recording secretary, Sally Husch, corresponding secretary, and Betsy Roman, treasurer. The final high-school homecoming for the Seniors proved to be the most exciting of all, with Mary Jane DiPietro being elected Homecoming Queen by the entire student body. The Senior contribution to the Parade was a float with the theme of "Whip the Huskies", quite appropriate since the Marauders were playing the Huskies of Olean. Later, on November 14-15, the Senior Class play "Three Blind Mice" was presented, with Jill Levy, Peggi Wuerste, and Sue Pupenbroke in the main roles. The play under the direction of Mr. Krawczyk, our class advisor, was an overwhelming success. Further excitement was provided by the Winter Ball and the entire Winter Weekend, which proved to be as unforgettable as that of the previous year.

Our final events in which we took part while in highschool, the June Prom, and then graduation, were the most exciting and memorable of all.

There is no more fitting a time to consider tomorrow than now, when the reflections of yesterday are so near at hand. It is these reflections of the past that may serve as inspiration for the creation of a better future, a future in which peace, freedom, and the brotherhood of all men are realities, and not just dreams. Thus, each of us must consider the role which he will take in the world of tomorrow. Will you be an apathetic person, indifferent to the cries of humanity, dependent upon the state for your livelihood? Or, will you dedicate your life to the betterment of mankind, through your choice of a career, and by the manner in which you pursue this career? The choice is yours, and may the choice be one so that in years to come you can reflect upon it and be glad it was the choice you made.

Salutatorian

Graduation—a moment for nostalgic reflections, personal satisfaction, and anticipation of the future. It is a beginning that will reach no end. The foundations upon which the remainder of our lives will be built have been firmly established. Our fleeting high school years, now but pleasant memories, have afforded to everyone of us ample opportunity to prepare ourselves to assume our immediate role in society—be it marriage, a career, or the pursuit of higher education. Although it may not be possible for every graduate to achieve the pinnacle of success, let each of us endeavor to attain the aspirations dearest to him.

This year's Senior Class presented Guy Bolton's "Three Blind Mice" as its class play. Centered on the activities of three sisters who leave their chicken farm to go to Florida in search of a rich husband for one of them. The play proved to be entertainment for cast and audience alike. Directed by Mr. William Krawczyk, the play appeared on November 14 and 15 in the Dunkirk High Auditorium. The main roles were played by Peggy Wuerstle, Jill Levy, and Sue Pupenbroke, as the three sisters, who were supported by Bernie Haagensen, Al Salette, and Gary Tippens in the roles of the prospective husbands.

Juniors

The Class of '70 began its third year in high school with the election of officers in September. To lead the class through its busiest year yet, the Juniors elected Mark Woods, President; Steven Zielinski, Vice-President; Kathy Lasky, Treasurer; and Judy McKay, Secretary.

With the patient help of Mr. Henry Colicchia, class advisor, the Juniors participated in the first school project of the year, Homecoming. Mikey Glenn, escorted by Don Swejbka, was the class representative to the Homecoming court. Spirit and hard work succeeded in producing the prize winning float, "Mighty Marauder", which helped the Class of '70 win the Spirit Week contest.

In December the Juniors, received their long awaited class rings, another reminder that they are now upperclassmen. January was highlighted by the Junior Play, which was presented January 16 and 17. Hard work by many people made Romanoff and Juliet a great success. June brought the Junior-Senior Prom and the close of a rewarding Junior year. The Class of '70 eagerly looks forward to an even more exciting and rewarding Senior year at Dunkirk High School.

Class History . . .

The Sophomore Class started off their second year at DHS with the election of the officers, who advised by Mr. Clever, planned and helped put into action the class events. This year's officers were Frank Corsoro, President; Patricia Shephard, Vice-President; Richard Sage, Treasurer; and Joan Fedyszyn, Secretary.

Homecoming Week proved to be a fun-filled experience, with the Sophomores contributing a float entitled "We've Got the Whole School on Our Side" to the Homecoming parade. Robin Latimer escorted Sarah Warmbrodt to her place as Sophomore member of the Homecoming court.

The Sophomore Party, with its theme, "All You Need Is Love", was held in early February, and it proved to be an enjoyable evening.

First row: Sharon Widowias, Denita Tenamore, Mirna Valentin, Andrea Zeplowicz, Sarah Warmbrot, Marilyn Wicks, Ingrid VanLuin.
Freshmen

This year the Freshman class under the direction of Mr. Richard Dudzic has elected Mary Ellen Raczek, President; Allan Stuhlmiller, Vice-President; Norman Karin, Secretary; and Carol Pinkowski, Treasurer, as their class officers.

Although this was our first year at Dunkirk High, we started off on the right foot with Homecoming and the A.F.S. Magazine drive being big successes.

The theme for our float was "Marauder—King of Football." It was portrayed by a stately Marauder dressed as a king.

Thanks to the wonderful salesmanship of our class members, the Freshman class won the $200 first place prize in the A.F.S. Magazine drive.

Another big success was our February Freshman party.

A Message from the Staff . . .

The 1969 Ivy Tower yearbook was produced, as it always is, by hard work, sacrifice, and dedication on the part of the editors, staff, and advisor. All those who helped create this book can leave Dunkirk High with a feeling of satisfaction and accomplishment because of it. A yearbook is alive with the collection of our memories, and long after our school years are over we will be able to look at it and relive the many experiences of those years. The very fact that students will be able to feel and remember those moments through this book is worth the hard work put into its creation. It is therefore the hope of this staff that this book will be enjoyed by all the students.
Honor Society

Under the leadership of Mr. Guido Guayasamin, the Theta Psi Omnicron Chapter of the National Honor Society, whose membership is based on scholarship, leadership, character, and service, on November 21 inducted new members in a ceremony conducted at the Vineyard Restaurant.

To stimulate interest in community affairs, the Honor Society this year began a series of monthly appearances of community leaders, who spoke to the members and discussed various questions with them.

Again this year the Society earned money for its activities by selling calling cards to Seniors, sponsoring dances, and holding pizza sales. The funds raised made it possible for the Society's activities to be carried out. At the end of the year the Pearl Reed Scholarship was presented to a deserving Senior member of the Society.

Dunkirk High School's Student Council completed another year of fine service to the school and of spreading the good reputation of DHS in the community. Council officers William Barthold, Michele Parlato, Lawrence Przybyla, and Deborah Osborn—together with their adviser, Mr. James Will—kept the homeroom chairmen and co-chairmen busy with activities which varied from the joyous preparations for homecoming to the somber task of inscribing a plaque at the Junior High School building with the names of DHS alumni who have given their lives in battle.

The smoothness with which Student Council activities are carried out often obscures the time and energy spent on these activities by classmates on the Student Council. Few students, for example, realize the care put into the preparation of the student handbooks distributed this year. Nor is every student aware of the coordination and planning on the part of the Student Council which made this year’s Homecoming such a resounding success. Another worthwhile endeavor undertaken by the Student Council was the collection and distribution of canned goods to needy families in the community at Christmas time.

Certainly this year’s Student Council can be justifiably proud as they reflect on the work done for and in behalf of DHS.

Student Council President Bill Barthold lends a helping hand to representatives Kathy Mekus and Michele Parlato.
Homecoming

John Webster

The chiefest action for a man of great spirit is never to be out of action.

Homecoming '68 took place on Friday, November 1, and it was a great finale to a week of enthusiasm on the part of the entire student body. Prior to the big day, the Senior Class chose three candidates for the title of Homecoming Queen, who was then chosen by the student body. Voting was based on the answers given by the girls to questions asked of them at a pep assembly on Friday afternoon. The queen candidates and their escorts were Cindy Pachol and Tim Dykas, Linda Kujawa and Craig McLane, and Mary Jane Dipietro and Bernie Haagensen. During half time at the game it was announced that Mary Jane DiPietro was the students' choice, and she was crowned queen by Mr. Parlato. Her court consisted of Freshman Hedi Haynes, escorted by Joe Russo, Sophomore Sarah Warmbrodt, escorted by Robin Latimer and Junior Mickey Glenn, escorted by Don Swejbka. A dance was held after the game to celebrate the Marauders' triumph over the Olean Huskies. At the dance the Class of '70 received $50 for displaying the most spirit during Homecoming Week.

Other unforgettable events of that week were the burning of a huge bonfire on Thursday night, the crowning of the coach as “King Keough” by the Senior Class at the pep assembly, and a parade of the class floats and the students Friday after school.
The American Field Service, organized to foster goodwill and understanding among countries by means of the interchange of ideas among high school students from various lands, enjoyed another busy year of activity. The presiding officers, advised by Mr. John Mancuso, were Michele Parlato, President; Sally Husch, Vice-President; Marjorie Frankowski, Secretary; Cathy Graf, Treasurer. In addition to the regular meetings, a magazine drive and a victory dance were sponsored by the A.F.S. The magazine drive was one of the most successful events sponsored this year. The quota was $6700, which was to pay for the sponsorship of three exchange students. John Rivera, from Peru, attended D.H.S. this year, and Dunkirk was able to send two students abroad. Neil Rzepkowski journeyed to France, and Kenneth Sage stayed a year in Germany. The enthusiasm of the Dunkirk student body resulted in a total sum of $7000 raised in less than a month. Mr. Mancuso then arranged a very successful victory dance to celebrate this great achievement. A.F.S. also took part in the exchange program of foreign students among area schools. Kum Kum Bhavnana, an area exchange student from England, lived with Virginia Baran at her Dunkirk home for a week. Dunkirk's John Rivera spent a week in Springville. These events have proven the success of the A.F.S. program at Dunkirk High, due in large part to the efforts and support of the entire student body.

ESEA—Photography Course

The Dunkirk High School Band is one of the most active organizations at Dunkirk High School. The band is actively engaged in more functions than any other organization at D.H.S. throughout the year. The band's performances, in and out of school, are numerous and varied.

The first three months of the school year are spent preparing and performing half time shows at all home football games. The D.H.S. Band is one of two bands in Chautauqua county that perform half time shows. Along with the drill team and twirlers, our band has performed for every home game in the past several years. The band also performs for all pep assemblies and the Halloween parade in the fall. The band's activities for the first semester are concluded with the annual Christmas-Pops concert in December.

The first several months of the second semester are spent preparing some difficult concert music. The band then presents a Spring Concert in March. In the past we have shared our program with other groups and have had guest conductors. Every spring the band has taken a spring trip and performed at outside schools. This is the completion of an exchange program.

Also in the spring all band members perform in solo and/or ensemble competition at the N.Y.S.S.M.A. music festival. The students prepare the music by themselves for competition. The last band function for the year is the Memorial Day parade on May 30. In the afternoon the band has a picnic to complete the year.

Athletics
To the shouts of “We’re Number One”, the Maroon Marauders, under the leadership of our new head coach, Vince Keough, fought to a tough 6 and 2 season. Nine members of the squad, led by captain, Frank Penkaty, were selected for the Southwestern League All-Star team. In addition to Penkaty there were five other seniors—Dave Kleparek, Steve Gould, Dave Criscione, Frank Testa, and Frank Nalepa and three juniors—Steve Zielinski, Fred Warmbrot, and Bob Barlette. Because of their hard work and desire, they brought home our first Southwestern League Championship in eleven years.

The varsity basketball team under Coach Al Stuhmiller's direction got off to a quick start and continued to a winning season. Leading the way for the Marauders were co-captains Bill Berek and Dave Criscione. Providing the rebounding power for the team were seniors Nick DiCara and juniors Steve Borowski and Don Szejblka. The team was also supported by a strong reserve team including Steve Zielinski, Jim Pietro and Tom Duncan. Highlights of the season were our second consecutive “Little Three” championship and a closely fought battle with Silver Creek and Mindszenty.
J.V. Basketball

The Junior Varsity basketball team finished another hard fought season under Coach Charles Keib's able direction. Good ball control by Don Kujawa and fine rebounding by Dave Graf along with a well balanced defense led the team to their successful season.

Farewell

The year is closed, the record made;
The last deed done, the last word said.
The memory alone remains
Of all its joys, its griefs, its gains;
And with purpose full and clear
I turn to meet another year.
