Mr. English, I'm Joe Soblo.

I've had you for three years, and I still don't know your name. Remember during the summer, I hope you take a long walk off a short pier. Remember your face because all the crummy jokes you use to tell me might make an exception. (Emily)

MOTHER - I never forget a face, but in your case...

I'll make an exception. (Emily)

Your friend, mine.

Joe, Mr. English, 115670

P.S. I didn't want to waste any thing but I wanted to waste space in your book.

This year faculty and students were shocked at the sudden death of Miss Edith Osborne, who gave to Dunkirk High School many years of devoted service.

Miss Osborne accepted her first assignment in Dunkirk in September 1931, after completing her graduate work at the Universities of Rochester and Syracuse. Here, within a period of fifteen years, she had to re-establish the library in three different locations.

Her interest in the community led to Miss Osborne's unusual record of contributions to many local groups. Among these were: the Dunkirk Democratic Women's Club, of which she became the first president in 1951, the Women's Literary Club, and the Business and Professional Women's Club, both of which she served as president, the American Association of University Women, as well as the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Her own scholarly inclinations gave Miss Osborne the high qualities required of a competent school librarian. She was never too busy to help people find the information they were looking for. Her shrewd judgment of things literary provided Dunkirk High School with ever fresh, well-balanced choices of reference works, periodicals, and special editions.

Miss Osborne has left us a skillfully-selected, zealously cared-for library, a legacy for which we are most grateful and in which we can take great pride.
seniors
The class of 1970 has the special distinction of being Dunkirk's first graduating class to complete their full four high school years in the present high school building.

We began an eventful Freshman year under our class advisor, Mr. Henry Colicchia, who has since guided us through four very productive high school years. Under Mr. Colicchia, we elected Ed Rusch, Ann Meister, Judy Polichetti, and Kitty O'Connell our class officers.

Homecoming was a novel experience for us, and we plunged into the activities, building a float entitled "Moon River"; and electing Lynne Callis our Freshman Queen. Soon after Homecoming, we found ourselves working on our first class party whose theme was "Three Coins in a Fountain". The end of the year arrived swiftly and we were "moving up". We elected Kathie Lasky our Moving Up Day queen and Chip Orcutt her escort.

Ed Rusch, Chip Orcutt, Kathie Lasky, and Mike Poleski were the officers who led our Sophomore class. The year's fondest memories include our Homecoming float, "Up, up, and Away", our Homecoming queen Ann Meister, and "Fantasy of the Sea", the theme of our class party. All too swiftly, our Sophomore year came to a close and we moved up once again with our class queen Charmaine Baglia and her escort Bob Barlette.

Again under the leadership of Mr. Colicchia, our Junior class elected Mark Woods, Kathie Lasky, Judy McKay, and Steve Zielinski our class officers.

With a great show of spirit and much hard work we began our first project of the year, the building of a float for the school's Homecoming parade. The finished product was the "Mighty Marauder", a huge replica of our school mascot, which brought us the coveted first prize for school spirit offered annually by the Student Council.

In January we put on our first class play, "Romanoff and Juliet", a satire on the life of an ambassador and his family in a tiny, fictional country in Europe. Leading roles were held by Kitty O'Connell, Rich Rzepkowski, and Chip Orcutt.

Among the other activities of our Junior year were the Winter Ball, entitled "Camelot", and the Moving Up Day ceremonies, including Mary Nowicki, our class queen, and Chip Orcutt, her escort.

In June, the year closed with the traditional Junior-Senior Prom, which our class put on for the Seniors with the theme "Gay 90's".

In our Senior Year we elected Mark Woods our class president; Mary Nowicki, vice president; Kathie Lasky, recording secretary; Ann Meister, corresponding secretary; and Andrea Beatty, treasurer. Once again, Mr. Colicchia acted as our class advisor, giving us invaluable assistance and advice.

We began our Senior year eager to put all our efforts into making a success of our last Homecoming week at D.H. S. In an expression of the school spirit that we felt, we produced a Homecoming float entitled "For Whom the Bell Tolls" in honor of the old school bell which had recently been installed in front of the football field. We nominated three Homecoming Queens: Darlyn Krzyzanowicz, escorted by Don Szwejbka; Mary Nowicki, escorted by Terry Bender; and Sue Russo, escorted by Mark Woods. At half-time of our last Homecoming game, Darlyn Krzyzanowicz was crowned Homecoming Queen and our class was once again announced the winner of the prize for school spirit. Dunkirk's trouncing victory over Mindszenty and the ringing of the school bell in celebration made our last Homecoming one we will never forget.

With Homecoming behind us, we turned our efforts toward our Senior class play, "It Happens Every Summer", a comedy about young girls working on a fashion magazine in New York. Leading roles were held by Sue Gould, Marlan Zielinski, Andrea Beatty, and Bob Schoener.

As our Senior year came swiftly to a close, we attended our last spring prom, and finally, our commencement exercises.

At the end of these four years our class possesses a collection of memories that we will treasure for the rest of our lives. We feel a great pride in our school and only hope that such will be the feelings of the classes who will attend Dunkirk High School in the years to come.
salutatorian

During the past twelve years of schooling each of us has asked his teachers more than once, "What's our assignment for tomorrow?" This question arises again, quite ironically, as we think about graduation: What is our assignment for tomorrow?

But who can tell us?

In Dunkirk High School we have been given the fundamentals necessary for completing any task we encounter. Let us undertake every task as we have our favorite subject. Let us meet each requirement and greet each challenge with our best efforts.

If we are able to do this, we shall complete our assignment for tomorrow.

A Recipe

Take several grains of knowledge,
Sprinkle generously with understanding;
Season with experience,
Vitalize with the aspirations of youth,
Flavor with humor,
Blend with wisdom,
Immortalize with the grandeur of faith;
Frost with the humble dignity of a diploma.
And we shall distinguish ourselves
As educated young men and women.

senior class play

Under the able direction of Mr. Anthony Palermo, the Senior Class proudly presented “It Happens Every Summer”, a three act play by David Rogers.

This light comedy related the misadventures of several college girls who come to New York City to work as guest editors on a fashion magazine. They meet several young men in the course of their work, and a few fall in love, all under the eyes of the magazine’s bemused regular staff.

Some of the Sub-Deb Editors were played by Andrea Beatty, Susan Gould, Lynne Callis, Darlyn Krzyzanowicz, and Lynn Kardibin.

The men in their lives were portrayed by Bob Schoener, Sam Ricotta, Marlan Zielinski, Paul Mrózeka, Doug Mahaney, and Mark Woods.

Some of the regular Debutante staff were played by Marlene Burgstrom, Linda Mekus, Mary Lou Riskey, Mary Ann Ellman, Michel Campese, and Wendy Schoener.

Much of the credit for this play’s success goes to the hard working production staff, including Jack Sheedy, stage director; Kathy Briska, student director, and also those people who worked on make-up, lighting, properties, design, sets, tickets, programs, and ushering.

Schools at best are designed to help individuals develop themselves. No doubt you have discovered by now that schools and education are not necessarily the same. Although formal schooling may cease, the quest for enlightenment and education never does. May your search for self-development and self-fulfillment, so auspiciously begun, continue unabated, whatever your walk of life, and may you achieve all the goals you set for yourself.

The best wishes of the Board of Education and staff of the Dunkirk Public Schools go with you.

You are graduating at a critical time in our history; a time when there are injustices to be corrected, social problems that require new solutions and institutions that are in need of improvement.

You can assist in rejuvenating society, but not with impetuosity and not without serious effort. You should seek to identify, calmly and carefully, those things in society that frustrate or limit your potential, and, after examination, change what needs changing and preserve those features strengthening you as an individual living in and contributing to a free society.

Obviously, no one person can change society; but young people all over the nation, working together, might just provide the catalyst, the incentive; just the push of youthful idealism that this nation needs to move on to our next stage of development.

Joseph L. Parlato, Director of Secondary Education.

The class of 1971 began an eventful year with the election of officers. The Juniors chose Frank Corsoro, president; David Graf, vice-president; Carolyn Cole, treasurer; and Joan Fedyszyn, secretary to lead their class through this very busy year.

With the help of class advisor, Mr. Anderson, the Juniors participated in their first project of the year, Homecoming. Marcia King, escorted by Jon Washburn, represented the Junior Class in the Homecoming court. Junior spirit was reflected in their fine Homecoming float entitled “Might Conquors Mite”.

In November the Juniors happily received their class rings, the distinction of upper classmen.

Another long-awaited event was the presentation of the Junior class play, “Don’t Drink the Water” in March.

After a very successful school year, the Juniors eagerly look forward to an exciting Senior year.

As our first activity of the year, we elected class officers. Chosen to lead the Sophomore Class under the direction of Mr. Dudziec were: President—James Pelletter, Vice-President—Ron Hallquist, Treasurer—Janet Bracizewski, Secretary—Dennise Maslakowski.

Next, the Class of '72 showed its great spirit by winning the A.F.S. Magazine Drive again and its prize of $150.

Sophomore Class Day and Homecoming proved to be very successful events. On Class Day, D.H.S. halls were decorated vividly with many signs supporting our football team. Sophomores could be identified by their carnations and class ribbons of yellow and green. The theme of our float for Homecoming was “Hour of the Marauders”. It represented proudly all the hard work which went into it. Our representative to the Queen’s Court that evening was Dennise Maslakowski, escorted by James Pelletter.

Our Sophomore Class Party was held on February 14, 1970. The theme was “Cupid is Calling.” Valentine decorations highlighted the scenery and the evening proved to be enjoyable to all that attended.

To the delight and pride of Dunkirk High School, the Maroon Marauders had still another unforgettable season. Under the able leadership of Head Coach Vincent Keough, the team achieved a level of drive and desire that brought them another winning season with a 5-3 record.

The team's high level of performance was rewarded when senior halfback Bob Barlette was placed on the All Western New York State team. In addition to Barlette, the All Western New York Team found marauders Pat Barone and Steve Zielinski on the squad. Dunkirk High also packed the roster of CCIAC All Conference League. Named to the team by the league coaches were: Offensive team: Bob Barlette, Dave Graf, and Ed Rusch; Defensive team: Vince Piglowski, Dan Kuzdale, Pat Barone, and Steve Zielinski.

The Varsity Basketball team, lead by high scoring center Steve Borowski, aided by the consistently sharp performances of starters Fred Warmbrodt, Don Swebjka, Don Kujawa, and Steve Dziduch, rolled to one of the best records in D.H.S. basketball history. Following a defeat with strong Erie Academy, the Marauders mowed down opponents to arrive at an enviable 11-1 record by early February, including a championship in the Maryvale tournament. Coach Allan Stuhmiller received invaluable help from a strong bench which included senior Steve Zielinski, and juniors Dave Graf, Keith Ahlstrom, Jerry Campese, Pat Reilly, Bob Horey, Dick Purol, Frank Corsoro.

The student body was justifiably proud of their team who “put it all together” this year and especially of their super star Steve Borowski. The team’s coordinated offense and aggressive defense excited the fans and really let D.H.S. know the pleasure of being on the winning side.

Any doubt about whether DHS has school spirit was certainly erased when Spirit Week and Homecoming invaded the halls and hearts of our school.

Spirit Week, which began on the Monday before our Homecoming game, gave each class one day to show their spirit and put their support behind our football team. Throughout the week, every school hall was covered with spirit signs and students and teachers wore Homecoming pins, all showing the pride they felt in their school.

A tremendous turnout of Marauder fans attended the pep rally and bonfire, which were held the night before the game.

On Homecoming Day, DHS students were introduced to the three Senior Homecoming Queen candidates and their escorts. These were: Darlyn Kryzanowsk and Don Nowicki, and Terry Rendor and Suzanne Russo and Mark Woods. These three candidates answered questions at the assembly in order to help them make their choice for Homecoming Queen. The court was also presented to the student body including Junior Marsha King and escort Jon Washburn; Sophomore Demetra Mustakoski and escort Jim Yellen; Freshman Queen Karen Lewis and escort Dennis Kryzanowski.

The long-awaited Homecoming game against arch rival Mundzyn was on the night of November 7, 1969. Playing to an overflow crowd, Duclair's Maroon Marauders soundly defeated the Mundzyn Mustangs' 32-8.

The focus of attention at half time was on Darlyn Kryzanowsk, who was crowned Homecoming Queen of 1969 and on the happy Senior Class, who were announced the winners of the coveted first prize for their show of school spirit. Our Homecoming Queen Darlyn presided over the victory dance which was held after the game.

Among the most unforgettable moments from Homecoming Week are the hard work all the classes put into the making of floats and signs, Mundzyn's "casket" in the main lobby, the Senior's ominous cry, "For whom the bell tolls" and most precious of all the sound of the old school bell as it rang out the news of victory for the Maroon Marauders.
The Student Council had a very successful year under the able leadership of Mr. Anthony Gary.

The biggest event of this year was Homecoming. Student Council sponsored Spirit Week prior to the Homecoming game against Mindszenty. This included a huge pep rally, bonfire and Homecoming assembly. The Council offered a $50 prize to the class showing the most school spirit, and during halftime awarded this prize to the Senior Class. The Council also ran the election of Homecoming Queen and crowned the winner, Darlyn Krzyzanowicz at the game.

In December another important project was launched, the Salvation Army Drive. Members collected canned goods to be given to the unfortunate over the holidays.

One of the new projects of the year was the printing and issuing of student identification cards.

In January the Harlem Diplomats comic basketball team played the faculty in an exciting game that was enjoyed by all who attended.

Future projects include the selling of stationery for the purchase of an outdoor bulletin board, the making of a time capsule to be opened fifty years from now, membership pins for Student Council representatives, and an end-of-the-year banquet for all council members. Two Student Council scholarships and one Sarah Callagee Scholarship will be awarded to three graduating seniors.

The Student Council officers and representatives gave much time and effort for the betterment of Dunkirk High School, and only hope this will be a practice for many years to come.

from the editors . . .

It is indeed a difficult task to compile the memories of an entire school year into a volume of pictures and print. Yet this is accomplished each year by a handful of hardworking people: the yearbook editorial staff and advisor.

The publication that the school eagerly awaits each year is made through the personal sacrifice of this small staff, who has put much time and thought into its task, and has finished with a feeling of pride and satisfaction.

We, the yearbook staff, have enjoyed the busy months we have spent in producing this yearbook. We did, however, suffer the heartbreaking loss of our talented art editor, John Benedict, who designed this year’s cover.

Your recollection of personal memories in this yearbook will be a mark of our success. Your enjoyment of the book, now and in future years, will be plentiful payment for our time and effort.

World fellowship and understanding through youth exchanges among the United States and other countries are the aims of the American Field Service.

This year to help fulfill these aims, the AFS members led the school in a successful magazine drive for the purpose of earning money to aid in their student exchange program. This money earned in the drive was spent to send DHS student Richard Rzepkowski to Iceland and have Methee Nakaphun from Thailand, come to Dunkirk as our exchange student for the year.

During the year AFS members were invited to special meetings, where they were addressed by students who had been to Iceland, France, and Thailand. Through discussions our students had the opportunity to learn about life and young people in other countries, from students who had lived in these countries.

This year's AFS advisors were: Mr. Mancuso, Mrs. Belden, and Mr. Byers. The officers were: President—Neal Rzepkowski, Vice-president—Doug Mahaney, Secretary—Linda Mekus, and Treasurer—Marlon Zielinski.
honor society

Under the leadership of their advisor, Mr. Guido Guayasamín, the Theta Psi Omicron Chapter of the National Honor Society had another very busy year.

This year Dunkirk’s Honor Society hosted the District Conference, which was attended by honor societies from numerous area schools. The conference included a tour of the school, a dinner, and a series of group discussions.

After an Induction Banquet for their new members, the society began their annual activities including the selling of Senior calling cards, the tutorial program for high school students, and the forums, at which local figures of interest speak to students. The Honor Society also launched a new weekly Radio Program, put on by its members over the local radio station, WDOE. This show features school news, music, discussions and interviews, and has enjoyed success in the community.

This year the Honor Society was led by its officers, and the members of its executive board: Mary Monahan, Tom Patterson, Neal Rzepkowski, and Carol Kaufman.

This year the Dunkirk High School Concert Band participated in a great variety of activities. Among the first of these activities were playing at the high school pep assemblies and football halftime shows. Dressed in costumes for the occasion, the band marched in the city’s Halloween parade. In December, the traditional Christmas Concert was put on by the band along with the school chorus.

The spring was busy, as always, for band members who traveled to the Alfred University Music Festival, the N.Y.S.S.M.A. Music Festival, and also to Dundee, New York as part of an exchange program between school bands. Our band also put on a spring concert at the high school and marched in the Memorial Day parade.

In June, a picnic was held for band members, and the end of a busy year was marked when the band played at Commencement Exercises.

To once thought you were a rotten teacher. Now I know it. Anyway, have fun this summer and stay off the wine and women. Just remember I'm smarter than you are.
With the cooperation of the Board of Education and the Board of Cooperative Educational Services, eight issues of DHS news reached the student body in the pages of the Citizen. Already a member of both the National and Western New York Press Associations, the Dunkirk High School Citizen was recently enrolled in the Quill and Scroll, a national journalism honor society.

This year’s editor-in-chief, Bob Schoener, assisted by news editor, Judy McKay, feature editor, Mary Lou Rickey, sports editor, Don Szwejbka, business manager, Darlyn Krzyzanowicz, and publicity director, Nancy Pakulski, attended the annual Press Day for Journalists at St. Bonaventure University during May of this year. Headlining this convention were several well-known journalists including Jim Bishop, Walter Cronkite, Carl Rowan, and Nancy Dickerson. This proved to be an extremely interesting and memorable day for the editors of our Citizen Staff.

New staff positions for the 1970 school year were appointed by Mr. Valvo in February. Heading the publication will be Paul Lancaster, editor-in-chief; Liz Barbknecht, news editor; Leslie Roman, feature editor; Louis DiPalma, sports editor; Frank Corsoro, business manager; Paul Miehl, photo editor; and Lynn Ogden, publicity director.

As part of the full-year course in literary writings, the journalism class also toured the Dunkirk Evening Observer and the Buffalo Evening News.

Later in the year, the entire class and staff held a banquet as a reward for their hard work and many endeavors.

1969-1970 has truly been a most successful year for the Citizen and its staff.

Dear Miss Jones,

I have not really been able to make this year, even though we had Sadler. It's been alright. Back to luck, and stay away from the girls.
