"The Spirit of '76"

As this yearbook is laid to bed, the United States is just beginning its bicentennial celebration. Across the country people are re-acquainting themselves with the historical facts about their country's beginnings as well as re-examining the ideals upon which it was founded. Amid the waving flags and fireworks, Americans are taking the time to look both backward and forward at what the nation has become and what it intends to be.

Those of us who are leaving DHS are honored to be graduating in such a memorable year. Amid the celebration of commencement exercises, we too must look both backward and forward. Have we acquired the spirit of self-reliance and dedication that inspired our forefathers? Can we push on toward our goals with courage and with faith in God and in our fellow man as they did? Hopefully the enthusiasm that imbued a young nation two hundred years ago can be recalled, and the "Spirit of '76" will be an active force in all our future lives.

Bicentennial Celebration

Besides the work involved in clearing the site for the Bicentennial Park, the class was faced with the task of raising an estimated $15,000 to cover the cost of building materials and landscaping. The first local group to come to the class's aid was Dunkirk Elks Lodge 922. The lodge voted to donate $250 to the DHS committee. In addition, the members of the Elks generously turned over their club's facilities for a fund-raising spagetti dinner and bake sale. Julie Watson was in charge of the dinner and Jane Dill was head of the bake sale. Publicity for the big event was handled by Sue Rusch and Janice Szocki. Faculty members who gave a great deal of time assisting the committee included Miss Hutsebaut, advisor to the Park Committee, Rodney Geiben, committee advisor, Stephen Szczerbacki, class advisor, and John Mancuso, DHS assistant principal.

Once the Elks had shown the way, other civic-minded groups in the city began to send assistance. Pictured below are a group of Junior High students who presented Miss Watson with a check to help with the park's expenses.

From their first days together, the class of '76 recognized that they would be graduating from DHS with a unique distinction – that of graduating during the United States bicentennial celebration. Under the leadership of then Sophomore class president, Julie Watson, the faculty advisor, Miss Dawn Hutsebaut, the class began work toward the construction of a Bicentennial Park directly across from the school. It was easily the most ambitious endeavor ever undertaken by a class at DHS.

The initial step in getting the project off the ground was to obtain the permission and support of the Board of Education. Once the green light had been obtained, the class set about organizing the various committees needed to bring their plan to fruition. Julie Watson was named Bicentennial School Chairman with Sue Rusch as assistant chairman. Janice Szocki and Kim Brown became activities co-chairmen. Mike Steffan and Diane Briggs were co-treasurers. Co-chairmen for construction were Elwood Walters and Bob Wills, with Lisa Orcutt memorial designer.

Pictured at the right is the artist's conception of what the Bicentennial Park will be like when it is completed in June. The center attraction will be an eight-sided gazebo, built at one end of the tract. This area will include a stone court, fountains, and gardens of roses, rhododendron, azalea, and yews.

The entire park will be bordered with flowering trees and shrubs. The creek now flowing through the area will be enhanced with large boulders and there will be a small waterfalls halfway through the area.

Two colonial-type bridges also are planned to be constructed across the park, and colonial electric lights will be installed to illuminate the area during the hours of darkness.

The students and faculty members certainly deserve the highest praise for the countless hours spent making the Park a reality. Julie Watson, Bicentennial School Chairman, indicated that several community organizations have helped and have extended facilities and money to the class in the project. Likewise, city of Dunkirk officials have cooperated with the students on the park project and the city street crews have helped in clearing the underbrush from the site.

The class of '76 can be justifiably proud that when it leaves DHS, it will leave a beautiful reminder of themselves and the country's birthday.

Homecoming

Homecoming '75. Secrets, anxieties, and enthusiastic screams and chants escaped as "Spirit Week" was celebrated. It was a big week with a big and important game to be played.

Starting off Spirit Week with a "blast" were the Freshmen. Their theme "DHS is Dynamite" was appropriately carried out with sticks of dynamite throughout the halls of DHS. Nature played a significant role in the class of 78's theme "Climb Every Mountain". Spin the wheel . . . take a chance . . . here's a tip . . . bet on the Marauders – a sure win! With dice and a gambling wheel, the Juniors were taking bets with odds coming up in favor of the Marauders. As they chose the theme "Marauder Roulette is a Sure Bet". The hand is quicker than the eye forcasts of the future where among the elements in the Seniors magical land with the theme of "Marauder Magic".

The underclassmen representives to the homecoming court were; Juniors Lizzy Cortesand Berry Edwards; Sophomores Laure Spencer and Kevin Russo; and Freshmen Roberta Sobecki and Mike Christopher. The Senior homecoming queen candidates included Diane Bialaszewski and Jim Summerton; Kathy Burke and Ken Adamowicz; and Wendy Szalkowski and Paul Jelonek. Honorary guest was DHS exchange student Per Johansson and escort Margaret Ricotta. Kathy Burke was crowned the 1975 Homecoming queen in the rain by DHS Principal, Mr. Joseph L. Parlato.

Class History

As we opened the front door of the Dunkirk Senior High School in September of '72, little did we know we'd be opening a door to a learning and growing experience of many fun-filled and unforgettable memories.

We began our high school years as we elected class officers. Frank Kane led us as president while other officers included Brian Moore, Laurie Etzel and Bob Wills ... vice president, secretary and treasurer respectively. Giving our Marauder team spirit with "Crush the Orange" as our theme and with queen Colleen Lynch and escort Ralph Nasca, our first homecoming endeavors proved to be quite successful. The class captured top honors in the AFS magazine drive. The freshman party, "Beginnings" was observed in November of that year. Along came springtime and the remaining days of our first year. Kathy Mleczko represented us as queen on Moving-Up Day. Her escort was Rick Nasca.

Our Sophomore year was once again under the watchful eyes of Miss Dawn Hutsebaut and Mr. Bill Walters, advisors. We selected Julie Watson, Shelly Buckley, Mary Corsi and Bob Wills as class officers. During Homecoming, we proved "DHS is Tops". Trish Thompson was class queen, escorted by Kevin Tarnowski. Again, we took first place in the AFS magazine drive. The Sophomore Party was held in February with a special Valentine's air and the theme, "We May Never Pass This Way Again". Along rolled Moving-Up Day. Vera Benenati, as queen, selected Larry Granata as her escort.

As upperclassmen, we entered DHS with a Bicentennial project underway. A park, to be erected across the street from the high school, had taken shape over the summer days. Debbie Doody was elected to lead us with Jill Schoener, vice president; Sue Rusch, secretary; and Bob Wills, treasurer. We also welcomed Mr. Steve Szcerbacki as a new advisor, along with Miss Hutsebaut. Our class took off into the undersea world as we acclaimed our Homecoming theme "We Have a Whale of a Team". Queen Laurie Etzel and escort Dave Leone represented us in the Homecoming Court. For the third year we were awarded high honors in the AFS magazine drive. "Precious and Few" was the theme selected by the Seniors for the Winter Ball held in February. The cafeteria was accented with red and white Valentine hearts. Our class presented "Harvey" as our first stage production. The cast was brilliantly headed by Rich Schunk, Janice Szocki, Chuck Pulawski, Shelly Buckley, Brian Moore and Laura Rosing. Moving-Up Day inched its way toward us. The class elected Lisa Orcutt and Rod Sysol to represent us. It was a beautiful, warm, starry night with an atmosphere of the south as we presented "Summer Breeze" – the Senior Prom.

We, thus walked into our final year at DHS. It was early morning classes and afternoons free as we shared our school with the Dunkirk Junior High while their educational facilities were being remodeled. Again, Miss Hutsebaut and Mr. Szczerbacki guided us. Laurie Etzel was elected class president, Brian Moore, vice president; Debbie Centner, corresponding secretary; Sue Rusch, in her second term as recording secretary; and Bob Wills in his fourth term as treasurer. With our "Marauder Magic", we enhanced and bewitched the Homecoming atmosphere. The Homecoming queen candidates and their escorts included Diane Bialaszewski and Jim Summerton, Queen Kathy Burke and Ken Adamowicz, and Wendy Szalkowski and Paul Jelonek. Swedish Exchange Student, Per Johannson was honorary guest selecting Margaret Ricotta as his escort. In our last stage production, we enacted "Blithe Spirit". The entire setting was headed by cast members Rich Schunk, Laura Rosing, Carmen Torres and Shelly Buckley. For the first time, our Winter Ball was held at a local restaurant. A "Midnight Blue" theme with a Winter Chalet and miniature sleighs decorated the evenings festivities.

Our remaining days at Dunkirk held special memories which, each in his own way, will cherish throughout his life – Senior Class Will, final exams, Senior Prom, and commencement ceremonies. These are only a few of the memories we will carry and hopefully treasure into our future lives. As the words of a current song suggest:

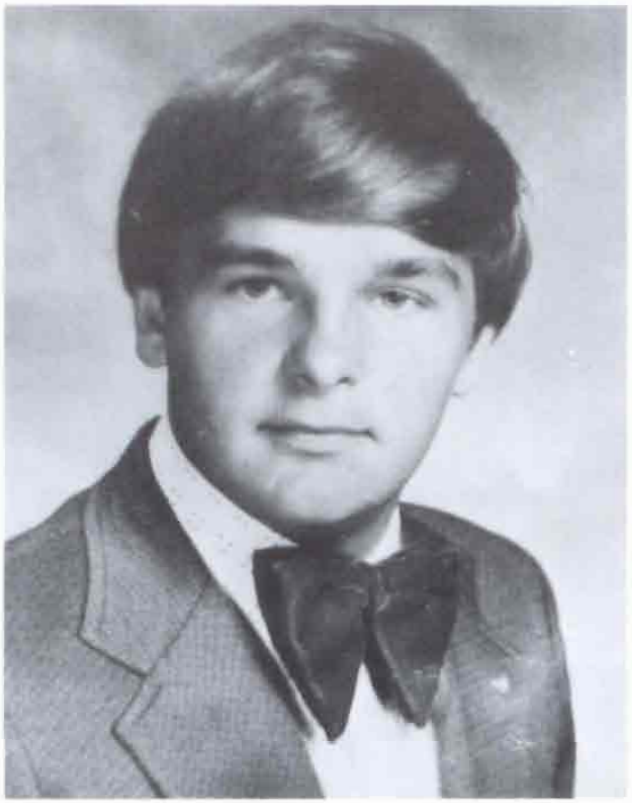
> Gather moments while you may. Collect the dreams you dream today. Remember, will you remember, the times of your life?

Valedictorian

During this, the Bicentennial year, a great change is sweeping the nation. Across the land Americans of all ages and backgrounds are rekindling the fires of pride within themselves as they make ready to celebrate the bicentennial anniversary of the founding of the nation. It is a time when the magnificent heritage of our past is reexamined and studied, and moreover, is an era of great reevaluation, as citizens take the time to see where this nation has been, where it is, and most importantly, where it is heading. It is a time of new self-evaluation of faults, not in malice, but rather, in a genuine constructive effort to set right the wrongs committed in America. It is a time to begin building for the future.

As members of a graduating class upon the threshold of a new phase in our lives, there is an important message in all of this, a message crying out to us to be noticed and heard. In essence it points out to us that like our country, we too, have reached an important step in our development. True, we should rejoice and celebrate at this; that is all well and proper. But so, too, must we make an evaluation of ourselves to see just who we are and where we are going. We must make an evaluation of our goals in life, plan for them, and then make the necessary changes in ourselves and our outlook and actions to make these goals a reality.

In this way, and with God's help, will we find fullfillment in whatever course we choose to follow in life.



Michael Steffan

Salutatorian

Thomas Moch

Just as two hundred years of our country's history is climaxed this year, we climax our high school education. Our country has attained many goals and reached many heights. We, too, have attained many goals through our education. Now we go on to take our places in society, some to follow our natural talents and some to further our education, and together we shall contribute to the greatness of our nation. Now all we have left is our memories of our years here. Yet Dunkirk High School has become a part of each one of us, a part that will never be erased, and a part that will always be an inspiration to us. As each of us goes our own way, we shall strive to attain new goals, just as the United States has and will continue to achieve new ideas in the years to come.

"Hello Dolly"

"Put On Your Sunday Clothes" with the hat that has the "Ribbons Down My Back" so you can go "Dancing With Elegance" "Before the Parade Passes By" for as you know ... "It Only Takes a Moment" ...

The moments were in May and that the cast of "Hello Dolly" presented the Broadway hit on the DHS stage. Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Palermo, directed and choregraphed the production. Mr. Michael Bernet, another faculty advisor, created the sets and designed the lighting along with the members of the stage crew.

Dolly Levi, exuberantly portrayed by Carol Leone, a jack-of-all-trades widow, was on her way to Yonkers to arrange the second marriage of a well-known half-a-millionaire, Mr. Horace Vandergelder, brilliantly enacted by Rich Schunk. In truth, Dolly intends and succeeds in marrying Vandergelder herself.

An excellent supporting cast included Jim Ebert, Brian Moore, Amy Bienko, Cyndi Boner, Jill Schoener, Sue Sosinski, Bob Moore, Laura Rosing, Chuck Pulawski, Stanly Pchelka, and Gerald Schwartz. A round of applause is also extended to the chorus, dancers, and the costume and make-up committees.

A special "note" of thanks to the pit band and its director, Mr. Andrew Christina, for the night's instrumental enlightenment.

From the Editor ....

The task of putting together in a book the record of our last year at DHS was a challenging one. It has meant planning and replanning, worrying over budgets and deadlines. The time and work the task demanded were more than any of us had anticipated. Now it's finished and it all seems worth it. For there is more than pages with photos and drawings between the covers of this book. There are friends here and memories too. Here are the people we studied with, worked and played with, laughed and maybe cried with. If, some years from now, you open this book and remember – then it has been a rewarding task for us.
