“MAKING THE PIECES FIT”

Remember way back to September 3, 1980? It was the first day of our first year in high school. We were the incoming class of 1984, the freshman class. We carried a label, yet we were each different, and we each carried different feelings about school. We selected different classes, and participated in various sports, clubs, and activities.

Well, four years have passed, and the bits and pieces of our individual lives have become unified. This year, the 1984 Ivy Tower tried to puzzle out high school life with the concept of "Making the Pieces Fit."

It Was a Typical Day Trying to Put the Pieces Together

12:30	a.m.	Finally finished that English paper!
1:00	a.m.	Sleep, at last!
6:30	a.m.	What is that blaring noise? Oh no! It can't be morning already! It's still dark outside!
7:00	a.m.	Relax, I'll be out of the bathroom in five minutes!
8:15	a.m.	Will someone please write me a gym excuse?
9:18	a.m.	Let's send out for doughnuts. I'm starved!!
10:12	a.m.	A pop quiz, today ? You can't be serious!
11:35	a.m.	Grumble, grumble. That wasn't my stomach!
1:20	p.m.	Our car had a flat tire. HONEST!!
2:00	p.m.	Is this day ever gonna end?
2:45	p.m.	A yearbook meeting today? Let's skip it!!!

Seniors "Make the Pieces Fit" With the Help of Transportation

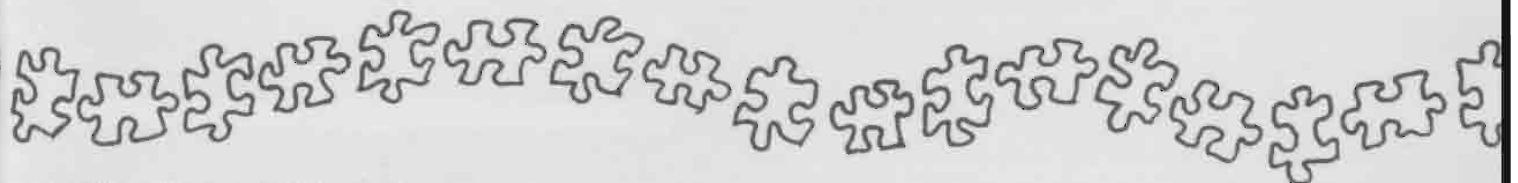

Photos, p. 8: Top: As usual, all these people will somehow manage to fit into Mike Normand's car. Top, Left: Mike Revenew is ready to go home after a long day. Right: Let's hope those girls don't have to push that car!

As more and more of us received our licenses this year, the idea of school transportation created a difficult question. Seniors possessing a steady income sometimes brought their own cars, while others coaxed their parents into lending the family station wagon. Over the years, Blazers, Jeeps, Cameros, Corvettes, Cadillacs, and clunkers have all been parked in the back parking lot at one time or another. With today's high gas prices, many students resorted to motorcycles and mopeds, which could be seen lined up side by side in the front parking lot. Lori, Mary, Mike, and Jeff were just a few of the car owners who pooled together with friends to go to school and for a quick trip to McDonald's at lunch.

A date with Matt Dillon or Brooke Shields . . . a vision of the sunny Florida beaches . . . the mere thought of staying home to indulge in "All My Children" . . . daydreaming.

Throughout our four years of high school, each one of us has been guilty of daydreaming. At one time or another, we've all been confined for 45 minutes every day with a class we felt was far from exciting. Consequently, we could be found staring out windows or gazing into empty space.

While most daydreams were harmless, some resulted into trouble. Once a teacher caught a victim of the Twilight Zone, wishful thoughts of a Big Mac, large fries, and a coke quickly changed to a desperate desire that the floor would open up and swallow him up!

Making the Pieces Fit in Our Daydreams . . .

Seniors Fit in With the Right Style

When walking the halls of DHS, one noticed many different people wearing a wide variety of styles of dress. Each person fit in their own special way to form one interesting and unique picture of life at Dunkirk High.

One of the styles that was evident among our student body was the preppy look. Izod sweaters, loafers, and kilts could be seen on many students. These were just a few examples of the preppy look.

While the more conservative students dressed as preps, some chose to "punk out." Mini-skirts and brightly-colored sweatshirts were examples of this style.

Another popular means of attire was concert t-shirts, (for those of us who were lucky enough to make it to these exciting events). Hats and ties were popular also, even among our female students.

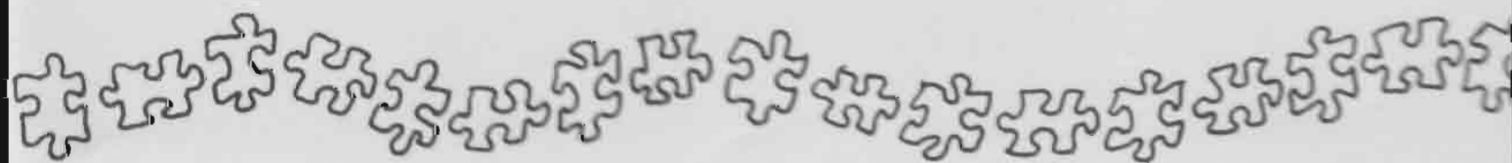

Despite the style a student chose to wear, each person as an individual "fit in."

Bottom, Right: Mary Green and Ray Rushboldt show they could serve as bookends even though they wear contrasting styles of dress.

Is high school just going to school, taking tests, memorizing facts and data? Of course not! High school is a complex era of our life that is flowing with new friends and faces, parties, school cafeteria lunches, escapes to McDonald's, proms, plays, football games . . . the list is endless. The memorable times, embarrassing moments and forgotten incidents all "fit together" into what may be regarded as the best years of our lives.

When we began our freshman year at DHS, we were confronted with strange surroundings and a new way of life. Nineteen eighty was the start of a new decade and an election year. It was also a year of protest as the world was shocked by the Iranian crisis, and back home Dunkirk teachers picketed for a new contract. As freshmen, however, we boldly enforced the slogan, "The class of 1984 will live forever more." We joined together for our first homecoming, using the theme "Fame, we're gonna live forever." As is tradition, our valiant efforts won us fourth place. Toni Ippolito was honored as our homecoming representative, selecting Ken Duliba as her escort. President Jan Elias,

Vice-President Margaret Boettcher, Secretary Lisa Corsi, and Treasurer Kristen Colaiacovo succeeded in creating a fun-filled freshman party.

Our sophomore year began with more stability. Lynn Wisniewski replaced Margaret Boettcher as vice president, while the remaining officers were reelected. With experience behind us, we enforced "Send 'em back in time" as our homecoming theme, receiving third place in competition. Tricia Seibert and escort Darren Quandt represented our class in the homecoming court. A large crowd gathered to prove that our sophomore party was a great success.

Junior year began on a controversial note. While DHS teachers once again battled over their contracts, an all male force overthrew our previous officers. Taking charge were President Bob Grimm, Vice-President Bill Rozumalski, Secretary Sean Mackowiak, and Treasurer Mike Renew. Dave and Dana Berry assisted our class as we entered homecoming competition with the theme "No one can stop us now, tonight we're on the loose!" Our efforts resulted in a mere second and third place finish. Georgia Tederous was our latest addition to the homecoming court, with Bill Ruge as her escort. Advisor Tom Phillips led us through a successful candy sale fund raiser. "Peter Pan," our junior class play, provided fun and entertainment for all who participated. The year ended as we sponsored the well-attended Spring Prom, carrying the theme, "We've Got Tonight."

Our senior year was finally upon us, and once again we chose new officers. Bob Grimm was re-elected President, while Mike Renew became vice-president, Debbie Gregoreski recording secretary, Lisa Corsi corresponding secretary, Mary Kuzdale treasurer, and Chris Lanski sergeant-at-arms. Bearing confidence, and senioritis, we submerged ourselves in various activities. Homecoming, the senior class play, the magazine drive, the winter ball, and, ultimately, graduation were all pieces that interwove themselves throughout the year.

As we now leave DHS, we bring with us not only fond memories, but four years of growth, maturity, and ambition for a bright future.

"The people in our class were the best part of school," emphasized senior class president Bob Grimm. After spending at least a year of leadership and involvement with the class of 1984, the officers took time to reflect over the years, the good times and the bad.

Each of them agreed that they liked the people in school the best. "The people are really great," Vice-President Mike Renew commented. "From the teachers and students all the way down to the lunch ladies!" Chris Lanski, sergeant-at-arms, described the senior class as "special people you couldn't make it without."

The spontaneity of each year is something no one wanted to give up. Mary Kuzdale, treasurer, reflected "I wish I would have become more involved in my freshman and sophomore years. I feel I missed out on a lot." Recording Secretary Debbie Gregoreski added that she would change "absolutely nothing. I had a great time."

Corresponding Secretary Lisa Corsi summed up everyone's feelings about what she wants to remember. Lisa said, "I want to be able to come to a reunion ten years from now and still know everyone and talk about the old crazy times."

Those who have served as officers: Row 1: Lynn Wisniewski, Margaret Boettcher, Lisa Corsi, Mary Kuzdale. Row 2: Sean Mackowiak, Debbie Gregoreski, Bill Rozumalski, Bob Grimm, Chris Lanski, Mike Renew. Missing from picture was Kris Colaiacovo.

Having a high scholastic record and being a dedicated student won RAY RUSHBOLDT the prestigious title of "Most Intelligent Male." Ray has been very busy participating in Conceptions in Dialogue, Student Council (serving as Secretary during his Junior year), Honor Society, Junior Class Play, French Club (serving as Treasurer during his Sophomore year), and presiding as Ivy Tower Editor-in-Chief during his Senior year.

Ray also holds a part-time job at Aldrich Dairy in Dunkirk. His hobbies include reading, fishing, tennis, writing, swimming, and "just having a good time."

Ray plans on attending college at Fredonia State to become either a political analyst or to go into teaching. He strongly believes in the following quote by Lawrence Sterne, "The desire of knowledge, like the thirst of riches, increases even with the acquisition of it."

"Dream big and don't let anyone take your dreams away from you" is one of MARY GAVIN'S favorite quotes and which she has proved to follow. Being elected "Most Intelligent Female" has resulted from dedication, hard work, and following her dreams.

Besides being in Honor Society Mary has also participated in Key Club, Band, Jazz Band, Girl's "D" Club, Marauder 3R, Conceptions in Dialogue, Student Council, and CYO. She has also won various awards for Girls Varsity Basketball and band besides being Band President and a McDonald's All-American Band Nominee.

Mary has been involved in community activities such as volunteer work at the hospital canteen and a candy striper. Her hobbies include playing the sax, tennis, jogging, water skiing, swimming, and all outdoor sports.

Mary plans to major in medicine at a four-year college.

After looking at her many outstanding achievements in high school, it is not a surprise that KELLY HOLLANDER has been selected as "Most Likely to Succeed" by her classmates. Kelly has participated in many varied activities during her high school years. She serves as Editor-in-Chief of the "Citizen," and as Copy Editor of the yearbook. Over the past summer, Kelly attended the Scholastic Press Institute at Syracuse University. She is the regular writer of our school column, "Happenings at D.H.S."

Kelly is also a very gifted student. She is a member of the National Honor Society and also attended Girls' State. Rounding out her impressive list of activities is the fact that through all her high school years, she has been a member of Marauder 3-R, Student Council, and Key Club.

In addition to her school activities, Kelly holds down a part-time job at McDonald's.

Kelly plans on attending Syracuse University where she will major in communications and political science.

Because of his ambitions, and excellent activities to back them up, DUANE CLEMENT has been chosen "Most Likely to Succeed." Duane has served as Vice-President of Upsilon Delta Gamma, which he co-founded. He served the Key Club as President and was Vice President of the D-Club.

Duane also showed his many talents when he represented DHS at Boys' State. A well-rounded student, Duane participated in football and track, for which he received 3 varsity letters. He also was a member of the Honor Society.

Duane's hobbies included playing basketball and lifting weights. He was more well-known, however, for his motorcycle. He also works part-time at the Galley restaurant.

Duane plans to attend the Air Force Academy, where he will major in Aeronautical Engineering and become a pilot or astronaut.

Duane summed up his high school years and life by saying, "Set yourself a goal and don't rest until you've reached it."

We are the music-makers,

And we are the dreamers of dreams,
Wandering by lone sea breakers,
And sitting by desolate streams;
World-losers and world forsakers,
On whom the pale moon gleams;
Yet we are the movers and shakers
Of the world forever, it seems.

Student From Brazil "Fits In."

How would you feel if, during your senior year, you were temporarily transferred to a country where English, your native language, was never spoken? Would you welcome this exciting opportunity, or would you dread the thought of abandoning your friends during your last year of high school?

This was not merely a hypothetical situation for Juliana Mansur. An 18-year-old senior from Vitorio, Brazil, Juliana spent five months at DHS, living with cousins in Dunkirk, the Boorady family.

Juliana made the most of her opportunities at Dunkirk High. She made many new friends in school, taking English, American studies, sociology, French, and typing classes. Although Portuguese is her native language, Juliana studied English in Vitorio for five years. "I'm not understanding everything yet," she commented shortly after her arrival. "The people talk too fast."

When asked how she felt about living in Dunkirk, Juliana explained that she liked living in Dunkirk and enjoyed seeing her relatives. She enjoyed the switch from her large hometown in Brazil to the smaller one of Dunkirk. Although homesickness is inevitable to anyone away for such a long period, Juliana reasoned that she would see them all again quite soon.

Once adjusted to life at DHS, Juliana spoke highly of the school. She stated, "Everyone is good to me. All the teachers are very nice."

SANDY GOULD'S musical abilities are superior. A talented flutist, pianist, and vocalist, Sandy rightfully captured the title as "Most Musical Female." She has participated in both band and chorus since grade school. Serving as band vice-president and flute section leader during her senior year, Sandy was nominated for McDonald's All-American Band. She has also attended the NYSSMA Solo Competition and was a participant in the Chautauqua All-County Music Festival for seven years. In addition, Sandy has sung in the small group ensemble and was a member of the pit orchestra for school musicals.

As honor student, Sandy served as managing editor of the "Citizen" and the "Ivy Tower." She was also active in the French club, Honor Society, and Marauder JR. After high school, Sandy plans on attending Gannon University to become a Physician's Assistant.

Sandy summed up her feelings with this thought of Susan Polis Schulz: "Music touches feelings words cannot. It is the melody of the heart, the voice of the spirit. It inspires some to think of the past, some to create, and some to cry."

A talented, experienced voice was the key to PAUL CARISON's nomination as "Most Musical." Paul has sung in school choirs for seven years. He attended All State Sectionals, N.Y.S.M.A., and has sung at Chautauqua Institute five times. His musical dedication won him the title of choir president his senior year, and choir librarian as a sophomore.

Paul's distinguished musical ability was also displayed in the D.H.S. musicals "Camelot," "South Pacific," "The Music Man." In addition, he was involved in the D.H.S. plays "Peter Pan" and "The Crucible."

In his spare time, Paul served as Student Council treasurer and was active in the men's dress club, "D" club. In addition he played football for four years.

After graduation, Paul plans to attend Fredonia State.

"My high school years have been great," confides LISA CORSI. "I loved being involved." Lisa's pride and involvement rightfully earned her the title of "Miss D.H.S."

Much of Lisa's involvement centered upon her interest in cheerleading. She cheered enthusiastically for both football and basketball games all four years at D.H.S.

Her enthusiasm also helped her to be selected by her peers as class secretary for three years. She also found time to participate actively in Marauder 3-R, Key club, and the Student Council. In addition, Lisa served as feature editor of "The Citizen" and program manager of "High School Highlights."

After graduation, Lisa hopes to major in communications and dance at Fredonia State.

There is no doubt why TIM KWIEJ was selected "Mr. D.H.S." of the Class of '84. Tim participated actively in all phases of high school scholastically, socially, and athletically.

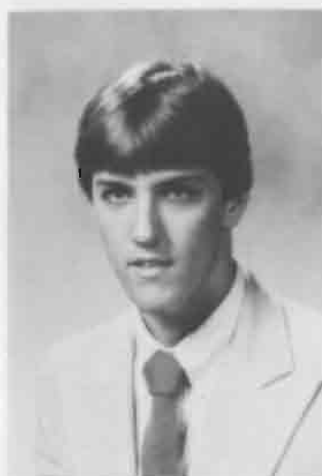

He played four years of football, and volleyball, acting as captain of his volleyball team his third and fourth years. Tim also played two years of basketball and three years of track. During his sophomore year he joined the Boy's "D" Club and served as treasurer of it his senior year.

Scholastically, he was a member of the National Honor Society, serving as treasurer his senior year. He also participated in "Conceptions in Dialogue" for selected students. Socially, he was chosen as Junior Prom King in June of 1983.

During the summer Tim enjoyed playing softball in the city youth league, but also was working alot at A. Sam and Son Co. to earn money for college. Other hobbies include weightlifting, motorcycling and fishing.

When asked about most memorable moments at D.H.S., Tim recalled the day he was leaving the high school after football, and somehow the pillar in front of the school landed on top of his car.

As for future plans, Tim hopes to attend college for electrical and computer engineering at either Rochester Institute of Technology, Virginia Polytechnic University, or the University of Dayton.

*Life is like a puzzle,
You make the pieces fit.
It's not something you buy in a store,
It's not a game or kit.
High school is a part of life,
A major part, and
Now as the proud end nears
at graduation ceremonies,
They clap — you want to bow!
As you look back you will see
The things that made your puzzle complete:
The sports, activities, awards and such,
The ups, the downs,
The victories and defeats.
When it's over, my friend,
You'll find the way.
You'll carry on.
College, jobs, and future plans
Will soon be part of every day.
Remember high school as one small bit,
But remember is as a part of the puzzle,
When you've finally made the pieces fit.*

— Jane Jasinski

Throughout the school hallways, when one heard the name Lori, he could automatically associate it with Debbie. Likewise, if that same person heard the name Debbie, the name Lori also came to mind. For this reason, it is only logical that DEBBIE GREGORESKE and LORI OZGA were voted as "Best Friends" by their fellow classmates.

"I don't even remember how we met," admitted Debbie, "we've been friends since grade school." The two girls spend much of their time together and with their other friends. They enjoy partying, eating, and just having a good time.

Both active school participants, Lori was a member of the French club, serving as vice president; a "D" club officer, Key club, Marauder 3-R, the girls volleyball team, and the girls Varsity basketball team. She also participated in the 3-1-3 program at Fredonia State during her senior year. Debbie was involved in the French club, "D" club, Key club, Marauder 3-R, the girls volleyball team, and served as class recording secretary throughout her senior year.

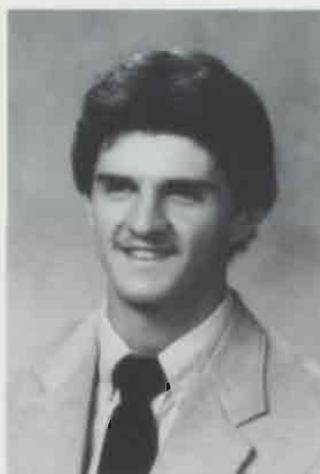

Both girls are unsure of which college they will attend after graduation. Although they feel that their choices will differ, Lori stated, "It would be great if we went away to school together."

The most obvious person to be chosen winner of "Most Dramatic Male" was SEAN MACKOWIAK of the class of '84. Sean has used his acting talent in many of the high school plays DHS has had, including "Camelot," "South Pacific," "The King and I," "Guys and Dolls," and "Peter Pan." He played the lead role in "Peter Pan," but he felt "Guys and Dolls" was the best play he had participated in. Besides musicals, Sean has participated in the French Club, Biology Club, Earth Science, and Boys' D Club. He served as president of the Biology Club as a sophomore. Because of his academic achievements, Sean was a member of the Honor Society as well. And in his junior year, he served as secretary of his class.

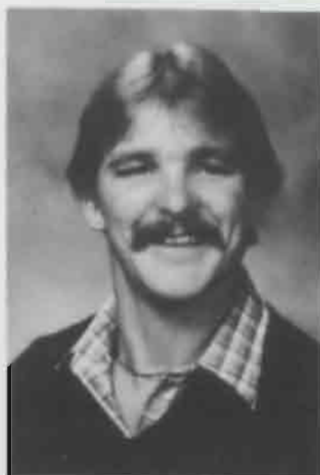

Another facet of Sean's life has been his activity in sports. He was on the soccer team. Besides sports, Sean worked on the youth committee for his church. His hobbies include listening to music.

Upon graduation, Sean plans to attend the University of Syracuse to major in engineering.

"All the world's a stage, and we are but players on it." This quote by Shakespeare expresses GINNY MILLER'S feelings about acting, and gives us a good idea of why she was voted the "Most Dramatic Female" of the class of 1984.

Ginny has been interested in theatre for many years. While at St. Elizabeth, she participated in several musicals. At that time she also began participating in Summer Theatre workshops. In high school, she has held roles in four musicals and two plays. As a freshman, she was the understudy to Guinevere in "Camelot." She held the lead roles of Sarah Brown and Nellie Forbush in "Guys and Dolls" and "South Pacific" respectively. She played Wendy in "Peter Pan," her junior class play, as well as held roles in "The Crucible" and "The Music Man," during her Senior year.

Aside from being involved in theatre, Ginny has participated in the French Club, serving as secretary for one year, and the Chorus, also serving as secretary for three years. She was also a member of the Honor Society.

Outside of school, Ginny participates in many other activities. She is a member of the C.Y.O. and other church-related organizations. An excellent pianist, she gives lessons to several students. She also participated in the Community Chorus during her junior year.

Ginny's future plans include going on to college to pursue a career in music education.

"Know who you are . . . There's a world wants to know you; Know where to go, There's a world wants to touch you; Feel all you can, Let your heart speak and guide you; Don't be afraid, Of the love deep inside of you."

This quote from Supertramp is one of KIM MACKOWIAK's favorites. The intense feelings expressed in it are reflected in her artwork and is why she was chosen as "Most Artistic Female."

Along with being on the yearbook staff, Kim also has been a member of Marauder 3R, the Computer Club, and Honor Society. In addition to those activities, Kim holds a part-time job at Wendy's while maintaining a good average. During her free time Kim enjoys bicycle riding, swimming, and of course, drawing and painting. She also enjoys spending time with family and friends. Kim's future plans include attending RIT.

Who's Who: Students Who

If you attended any school functions of activities during the past four years you can easily see why CHERIE MICHALSKI was chosen "Most School Spirit" of the class of '84. Cherie was seen at many of the activities at DHS, cheering on several of the athletic teams and supporting the school in any way she could.

Cherie has actively been involved in athletics at DHS. She was a member of the girls' basketball, volleyball, and softball teams for all four of her years at Dunkirk. She participated in Girls' D Club and Marauder 3R for three years, acting as vice-president of the former in her senior year.

Although she is undecided about her future plans, she enjoys working at the Big Dipper for now.

When asked about being chosen for "Most School Spirit," Cherie was quoted as saying, "Being in sports encourages you to have spirit because when you hear people cheering for the team, you want to push yourself to do better."

The scene? A typical Friday morning homeroom on the day of a football game. As senior BOB GRIMM enters the room, no one misses his enthusiasm and vibrating energy geared toward the evening's game.

As president of the senior class, it seems only "fitting" that Bob was chosen among his classmates as having the "most school spirit."

Always involved, Bob was an active member of the German Club, "D" Club, Student Council, and was elected as a Boys' State Delegate. Captain of the Varsity football team, Bob was named to the All Star team's list for two years. He also participated in track and volleyball.

A constant activity supporter, Bob's zany enthusiasm can't be missed at most school functions and sports events.

Upon graduation, Bob is considering entering the service.

Heads may turn as senior GREG BUCKLEY walks the halls at DHS. Greg was voted "Best Looking" by his fellow classmates.

Rather than spend his time breaking the hearts of Dunkirk's female population, Greg chose to spend his time working out and displaying his athletic abilities. A member of the Boys' "D" Club, Greg played Chadakoin basketball, Chadakoin and Varsity football, Varsity wrestling, and was a member of the baseball team for four years.

Greg plans to attend college next year and hopes to continue participating in athletics. His good looks and charm may just get him where he wants to be in the future.

"Most Artistic Male"

"So Much to Learn, So Little Time to Go" is a quote that STEPHANIE PULVINO feels touches her life in a special way. When asked about how she felt being voted "Most Artistic Female," a position for which she tied with fellow senior Kim Mackowiak, she replied, "I was stunned. I didn't think I would get it." All the hours of hard work and dedication are being appreciated as everyone becomes aware of Stephanie's work.

Besides art, Stephanie is an active participant in volleyball, track, and Girls' D Club. She enjoys lifting weights, working at the Dunkirk Fitness Center, and drawing. Stephanie's future plans include pursuing a career in criminal justice.

Stand Out . . .

Upon discovering that she had been selected by her class as "Most Attractive," TONI IPPOLITO's immediate reaction was "Why me?"

One glance at Toni's stunning, model-like appearance leaves no doubt about why she was chosen. Although elected freshman homecoming queen, Toni emphasized that she never considered herself any prettier than her friends.

A BOCES student, Toni has studied beauty culture for two years. She was a member of Marauder JR, and she worked as a waitress at Christopher's Restaurant. She also was involved with the Holy Trinity CYO. After graduation, Toni hopes to attend Beauty School in Florida.

Voted "Most Athletic Male" of the senior class, JOHN BUCHANAN has been a participant in several sports. In his four years at DHS, John has played football, basketball, and baseball, receiving letters in all three sports on the varsity level. As a senior he held the position of captain of the football team.

Besides his participation in sports, John is also a member of the Boys' D Club. In addition to that, he also enjoys hunting and fishing in his spare time. In the future he plans on attending college to study business.

"I've been playing in sports as long as I can remember," explained Senior JULIE DELAND.

Julie's athletic abilities rightfully earned her the title of "Most Athletic" among her classmates. Throughout her four years at DHS, Julie could be found in various team uniforms, complete with baseball mitt, knee pads, or high top sneakers. She was actively involved in volleyball, basketball, softball, and track — earning a Varsity letter in each sport. In her spare time, Julie could also be found working part-time at the DHS pool.

Julie studied Data Processing at BOCES for two years and hopes to become a Computer Programmer.

Seniors "Fit in" by Preparing for the Future With Jobs, Taking Tests, and Planning for College

"I need a job!" complained senior Kris Colaiacovo. Her words expressed the sentiments of many high school students who longed for that extra cash.

Part-time jobs were excellent financial benefits towards Christmas presents, cars, clothes, college, and extras. Although local jobs were few and far between, many students managed to find work for minimum wage at local supermarkets, restaurants, and the hospital.

Although the idea of a job may appeal to some, others found that they just didn't have the time. Sports, clubs, plays, and homework often interfered with students' schedules. "After I close, I always feel like a zombie in school the next day," commented one working student. "And if I have a test, forget it!"

Priorities are discovered quickly, and it may be true that "when money talks, people listen."

A large gym filled with empty desks, on a sweltering hot day of final exams, the cold barren rooms at F.H.S. on Saturday morning of SAT exams, and the repulsive thoughts of studying for tomorrow's physics test . . . these were all a part of high school life. Whether they liked it or not, students found themselves faced with tests, quarterlies, SAT and ACT exams, and finals.

Preparing for an exam was dealt with in various ways. While the scholastic genius never opened a book and still aced 99's, the conscientious student gave up a night of "Dynasty" in favor of their social studies book. However, the most typical example was the "average" student who chose to "go out for wings" on Tuesday night and make time to cram everything later. Quarterly report cards were the only accurate factor as to how well each system worked.

Seniors Stage "The Crucible"

For the past few years, sophomore English classes have been reading "The Crucible" by Arthur Miller. This year, they were given the opportunity to see the play as the Senior Class presented it.

The play, set in 17th century Massachusetts during the Salem witchcraft trials, dealt with several people whose lives were thrust into the superstitious realm of witchcraft.

Twenty seniors participated in the play directly on stage, while several others worked behind the scenes. The show was directed by Mr. Michael Bernet and Mrs. Janine Goulding. Melinda Mead was the student director.

The prom of 1983 proved to be a memorable event for all those who attended. Shown here are Tom Alessi and his escort: Scott Korzenski and Cherie Michalski; Bill Krupinski and Stephanie Pulvino; Jeff Julian and Sandy Gould; Joel Seibert and Julie DeLand; and Donna Nasca and her escort; and Rick Kokocinski and Tina Kussey, Tim Kwiej and Jane Jasinski are also shown receiving the honor of king and queen.

Seniors "Fit in" With DHS Life

After long classes, students need to take time out to relax and have a good time. It's all part of fitting into DHS life.

Faculty Members

Whether a student was college-bound studying academics, a BOCES student studying a trade, or just someone being prepared to enter the work field, the faculty of DHS all played a part in helping students to "fit in" to life after high school. Some programs gave students an opportunity to learn about the increasingly important world of computers, while others offered students the chance to learn about the more traditional use of pots and pans. Some programs eased a student into speaking English, while others drilled a student in a new language foreign to the rest of us. Teachers showed students how to write, analyze, discover, probe, question, memorize, and in general to hopefully cope with whatever the world offers to them. If they do "fit in" somewhere, somehow it will be at least in part due to one of the faces shown on these pages.

Varsity Football Nearly Wins Championship

The 1983 Varsity Marauders had another great season, ending up 7-1. A great deal of closeness existed between the players and coaches; the team worked, laughed, and cried together on its way to its goal of Rich Stadium. Yet for another year, that was not to be. Nevertheless,

Coaches Dan Elvin and Tom Phillips did a superb job of coaching a truly great team.

Both offense and defense were dominated by seniors this year. The offense included Grimm (center), Kwiej, Leamon (guards), Katta, Tilley (tackle), Duliba (end), Carlson (up-back), Lanski (fullback), Rozumalski (QB), Alessi, Buchanan (tailbacks), and Snyder at tightend. Defense included Leamon, Kwiej (ends), Promber, Gary Katta (tackle), Bob Katta, Grimm, Buchanan, Rozumalski (linebackers), Alessi, Duliba (cornerbacks).

The Marauders opened their season by defeating the tough Springville Griffins 21-6. Bill Rozumalski scored all 3 touchdowns, while the opposition was held tightly by Dunkirk's defense.

Dunkirk next met Salamanca, and the Marauders got revenge by defeating the warriors 14-6. The two touchdowns were a run by Alessi and a pass to Duliba. The next victory was over the hard-hitting Panthers of Gowanda. The defense held their opponent to just 6 points, while Dunkirk scored 20. Next playing away at Southwestern, Dunkirk flew by the confused Trojan defense to score 36 points. The offense had a whopping 353 yards, with Alessi, Lanski, Duliba, and Yacklon. The defense again held Southwestern to only 12 points.

The Marauders won their fifth straight by white-washing East Aurora 44-0. Buchanan led the touchdown-bound offense with 3. The defense held the opposition to just 36 yards.

The Dunkirk offense proved even more formidable by next whipping Pioneer 50-19. Dunkirk capitalized on turnovers, including two interceptions by Duliba. Lanski scored 3 times, while Rozumalski, Duliba, Alessi, and Salisbury each scored once. This was the homecoming game, and everyone who attended the game had no trouble celebrating.

In its seventh game, the undefeated Marauders met the undefeated Olean Huskies. Each team played their hearts out, but Dunkirk came out short. A heartbreaking 28-26 loss crushed the Marauder dreams of winning the division and going to Rich Stadium. Dunkirk scored on an interception by Snyder, a pass (continued below) to Duliba, and two runs by Lanski and Buchanan. Every player gave it his all, but luck seemed to go against the team.

In their final outing, Dunkirk bounced back and defeated Fredonia. Gaining 294 yards, Rozumalski, Duliba, and Buchanan scored touchdowns, while holding Fredonia to 12 yards defensively.

Homecoming '83 Proves a Great Success

Dunkirk High celebrated Homecoming 1983 on October 21st, with each class contributing the spirit and energy to make the day a success.

The seniors' theme, "Whale on the Panthers," earned them a tie with the juniors for first place in the spirit competition. The entire class participated in the skit by singing "King of Pain" by "The Police," while the mighty "Marauder Whale" attacked and "devoured" the Pioneer Panther. Their float consisted of a large whale atop a paper mache ocean. It received the second place prize in the float competition.

Chosen as Homecoming Queen was Stephanie Pulvino; her escort was Ray Rushboldt. Other senior members of the Homecoming court were Lisa Taylor and her escort Alan Cerrie, and Jane Jasinski and her escort Tom Lokietek.

The juniors were triumphant in both the spirit and the float competitions, tying with the seniors in the spirit competition as well as winning first place with their float. Their float, a giant computer, had a keyboard that read: "Rich Stadium — Input: Marauder Pride: Output: Marauder Victory." Their theme was "Marauders Compute to Victory." Representing their class as Homecoming Queen were Melissa Shareno and escort Mike Kuzzdal.

The sophomore theme, "Never Surrender," earned them third place in the float competition and second place in spirit. An army tank decorated the sophomore float. The class of 1986 could be seen in army fatigues the afternoon of Homecoming. Chosen as Homecoming Queen was Becky Cordero; her escort was Brian Granata.

The freshman class, with their theme, "Stairway to Victory," won fourth place in the float competition and third place in spirit. Chosen as Homecoming Queen was Charmaine Osar, who was escorted by Sean Durkin.

Later that night, the DHS team, one of the best our school has ever seen, beat their opponent Pioneer team by a score of 50-14, in a game played in quite cold weather. Senior Chris Lanski scored three times, while Bill Rozumalski, Tom Alessi, Ken Duliba, and Paul Salisbury each scored once.

Once again, while Homecoming has changed somewhat over the years, it will always be one of the most important traditions at Dunkirk High.

JV's Break Even

The Dunkirk High Junior Varsity Football Team finished the 1983 season with a final record of 4-4. Coached by Mr. Larry Perdue and Mr. Paul Salisbury, the Marauders showed excellent team effort.

This year's Marauders were anchored by a strong defense including Sean Raynor, Kevin Valentine, Mike Kubera, Pat Wheeler, Pete Fischer, Kris Ahlstrom, and Mike Timmerman. This defense shut out one team and held three other opponents to single-figure scores. One loss was by a mere one point, while another was by two points.

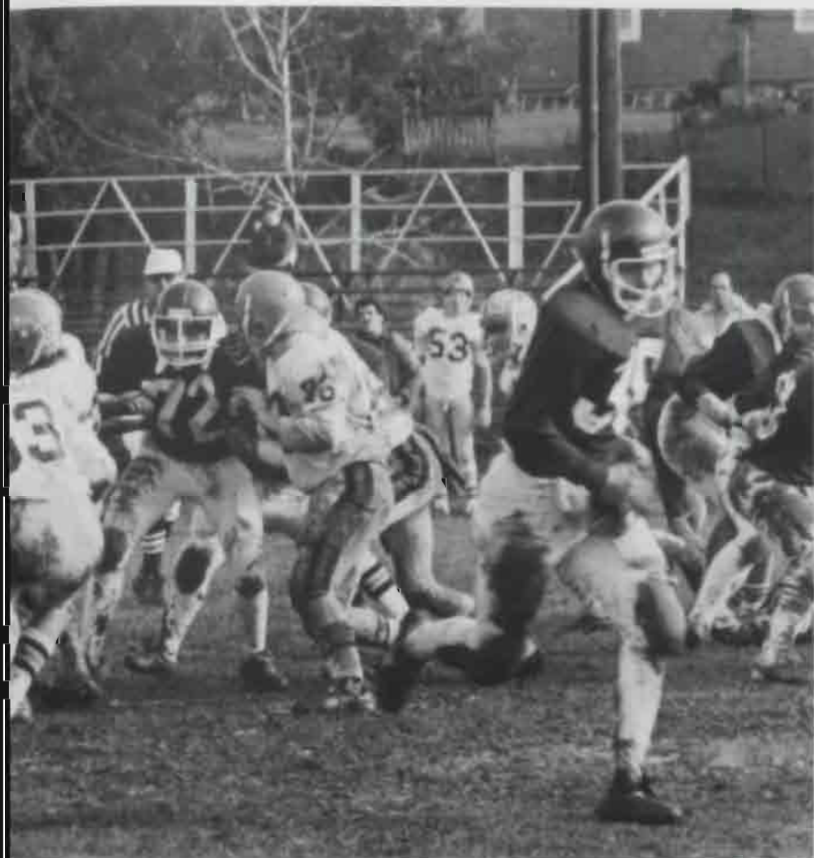

Good performances were also made by the strong running of Joe Thompson, as well as Sean Raynor and Sean Durkin on offense, Joe Trippi, Joe Wdowiasz, Frank Sysol, Tim Catalano and Rick Slaven also contributed to the offense.

Soccer Team Has Disappointing Season

The Dunkirk High soccer team struggled to a 1-10-1 season; despite their record, there were several bright spots. Captains Gary Haase and Mike Gugino, along with fellow-senior Sean Mackowiak, used their experience to lead the team. Gugino and Haase were team leaders in statistics. Kyle Gaszynski had some fine moments in goal, with 176 saves. Other contributors included Gary Sobczak, Ron Romance, George Cortes, and Jeff Ricotta.

Coach Jim Findlay hopes for an improved season next year, with many team members returning.

Girls' Swim Team Has Disappointing Season

Although the "Swimmin Women" finished with a 2-9 season record, the team put forth a lot of effort this year, led by coach Kathy Findley.

Seniors Leanne Price and Kris Nopper both had a rewarding '83 season. Price set personal records in 100 yd. breaststroke, and helped out considerably in the medley relay. Nopper proved to be a strong contender in all freestyle events, capturing many firsts in the 50 and 100 yrd. free.

The medley relay team of Sue Rusch, Leanne Price, Josie Rosie, and Amy Callahan kicked into many firsts, while Callahan Kitty Lyons, Nopper, and Dara Davis formed a strong 400 relay team.

New to varsity this year, Rusch did an excellent job in 200 free, 100 backstroke, and 100 yds. fly. Distance swimmer Kitty Lyons consistently boosted the team with places in 500 free and 200 free, as did Rosie in 100 fly and 200 IM. On the boards, Laura Price and Mandy Kubera racked up many points this season.

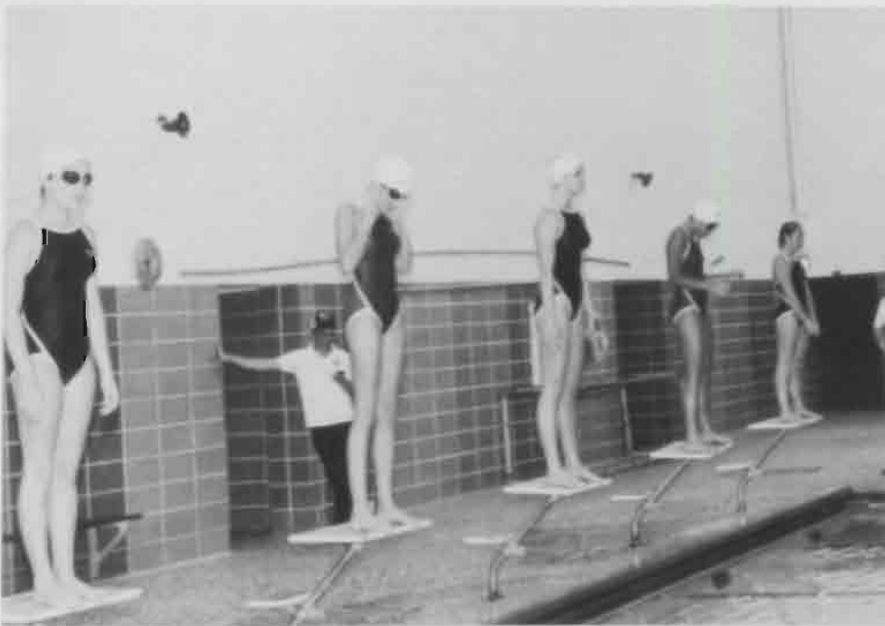

The DHS Girls Swim Team looks to a bright future in sophomores Traci Kubiak

(100 fly, 200 IM) and Janet Carlson; and freshman Davis (100 back, freestyle), Callahan (100 back, 50 freestyle) and Debbie Karin (200 IM, 100 breaststroke). Distance freestyles Kris Wenderson and Jean Price should also prove to be strong swimmers in the 200 and 500 yd. freestyle.

Most of the season was spent on the road, and holds many memories for the team. Not to be forgotten are the "live" concerts, bus 29, or the B-52's and U2.

Girls' Tennis Team Has 3-9 Season

The girls' tennis team, under second year coach Dixie Dugan, finished the 1983 season with a record of 3-9. Senior co-captain Debbie Repert, a member of the team for four years, played first singles, and had a record of 5-7. Joanne Brochetti, in her third year on the team, played second singles and had a record of 7-4. In addition, Junior Sue Steffan, in her second year of play, amassed a score of 3-9. Other members of the team included Molly Anderson and Michelle Zielinski, first doubles; and Chris Glowski and Moira Callahan, second doubles.

Girls' Volleyball Team Struggles

The girls' volleyball team this year dropped from last year's excellent season to a poor one, ending with a record of 1-11 overall. Their sole win, against Cassadaga Valley, was comprised of two straight wins, 15-6 and 15-12.

Players who did exceptionally well included Seniors Julie DeLand, Cherie Michalski, Lori Ozga, and Debbie Gregoreski, as well as junior players Nicki Dissell and Anita Antonio.

The team this year was again coached by Jeff Cook, and Grace Crino served as team manager.

Cross Country Team Improves

Despite its inexperience, the Durkirk Marauder Cross Country team finished the 1983 season with a 14-13 record, and placed five of the team members in the Section VI qualifiers.

The team, coached by Mr. Dick Dudzic, was made up mainly of underclassmen. Ray Rolon was the only senior on the team, and since most of the team will be returning next year, it is hoped they will have a good chance for improving their record.

Outstanding members of this year's group included David Fisher, Jose Flores, Jesse Rosario, Colleen Lemanski, and Kelly Mahaney.

Varsity Basketball Team Excels

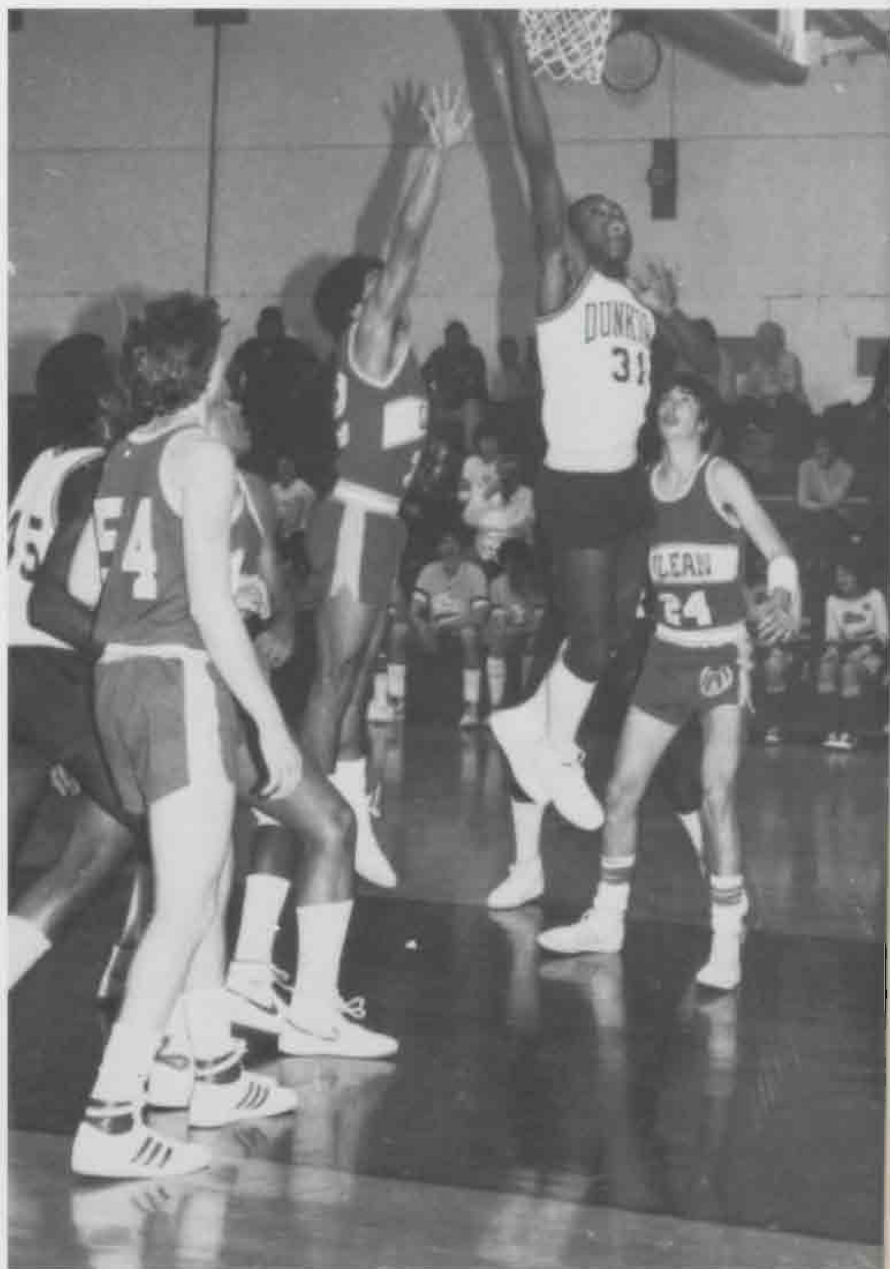

The Dunkirk High Varsity basketball team had an exceptional season under Coach Bob Wisniewski, finishing with a record of 14-3 (including tournament play).

The three Butts brothers, Michael, Charlie, and Darin were the leading scorers of the team. They all brought excitement to the crowds with outstanding plays. Ernie Lockett provided a tough inside game, Darin Moreland made strong contributions, and Jeff Klajbor and John Budniewski provided excellent bench strength.

The Marauders began their season by winning the Moniuszko Club Tip-Off Tournament, as well as the CCBOB Tournament in Jamestown. At that time they were ranked number one in western New York. Later, two wins over Fredonia and other league wins kept the other Marauder juggernaut going. A late-season, home loss to Gowanda kept the team from winning the CCIAC crown, but because of their great record, they advanced to the sectional playoffs.

With many outstanding players returning, there is no doubt that Dunkirk will be back stronger than ever next year.

Girls Varsity Basketball Captures Title

The Lady Marauders had another terrific season and once again qualified for the sectionals. Under the expert coaching of Mr. Paul Olkowski, the girls ended their '83-'84 season 9-1 in league play and 13-2 overall.

While the team had many exciting games in which they came out on top, the Lady Marauders overwhelmed several teams, including Fredonia and Salamanca. They also defeated previously unbeaten Lake Shore on the regular season's last day. The girls seemed to be hitting their stride for the sectionals.

Senior co-captains Kris Nopper and Mary Gavin led the team ably. Kris averaged 15 points per game and grabbed 12 rebounds per game. Mary dropped in 13 points per game. Other seniors included Cherie Michalski, Lisa Mahon, Donna Nasca, and Lori Ozga, each making valuable contributions.

The girls' team was a very exciting one, and these players will be missed, as next year seems to indicate a rebuilding year after their graduation.

JV's Win Season

The Dunkirk junior varsity basketball team had a very successful season this year, beginning with winning the Sixth Annual Jamestown High School Junior Varsity Basketball Tournament, defeating Jamestown 42-34. The team also placed third in the St. Francis Red Raider tournament.

Most of the team's games were won with large margins. The one heartbreaking game was that which was lost by three points against Fredonia. After taking an early lead, and with players Buchanan and Voss contributing 26 points, Fredonia pulled ahead and won.

Another exceptional game was that against Silver Creek, a game which saw the team outscore their opponents by 40 points. Four players were in double figures.

The team, coached by Lorrie Corsi, had several outstanding players, including Wheeler, Voss, Lockett, and Buchanan.

Wrestlers Continue Success

For the third year in a row, the Dunkirk High Wrestling team had a winning season, finishing 8-6. They began by overwhelming Westfield by a score of 57-6, followed by wins against Randolph (49-9), Pine Valley (35-25), and Cassadaga (37-24). Perhaps the most outstanding victory happened when the Marauders beat Southwestern 34-27, for the first time ever. The team beat twice-met Silver Creek and in the final match of the season, a barn-burner in the DHS gym, squeaked by Fredonia 27-26.

Dunkirk's six losses included a couple of close contests, one against Salamanca (27-28) and another to Frewsburg (18-29).

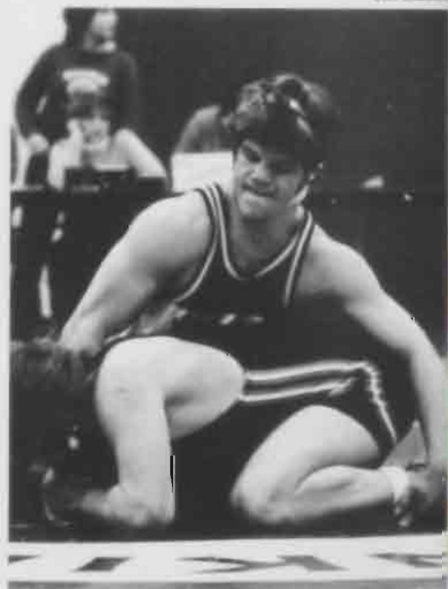

There were many outstanding individual records this year. Senior co-captain Jim Leamon came up with a 30-1-1 record, also winning the Dunkirk, St. Francis, Falconer, and League Tournaments, all at 177 pounds. at 119, Senior co-captain Ed Ruiz had an outstanding 25-6 record, winning the Dunkirk St. Francis Tournaments. Sophomore Chiro Fred, at 105, finished 28-5, winning the Falconer and Dunkirk Tournaments. Senior Al Muniz ended up 15-10-1 at 132, and placed 2nd in the Dunkirk Tournament, as did Senior Greg Buckley at 138 (18-14 overall).

Other wrestlers included Dave Swift (14-8), Dave Ruiz (10-15), Mike Ruiz (8-16), Kevin Boyd (15-16), Roger Baumgartner (7-18-1), Bruce Sharp (6-12), Danny Wysocki (4-9-1), Angel Echevarria (2-10); three with tied records were Norm Odebralski (16-16), Jim Burtner (8-8), and Dean Campese (5-5).

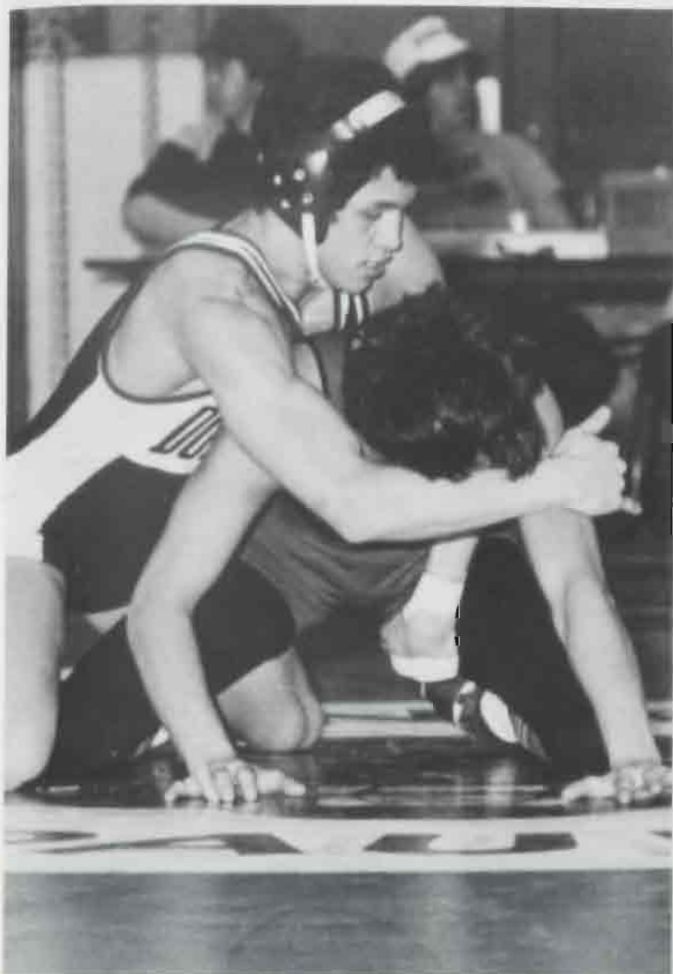

A few records were broken this season. The school record for most pins was broken by Ed Ruiz with 20 falls; he also holds the record for most career pins, with 45. Jim Leamon broke the most wins per season record at 30, and the fewest losses per season with one. Both Roger Baumgartner and David Swift hold the record for quickest pin, each nailing their opponents in 9 seconds.

The Marauders, under head coach Jim Leamon and assistant Tom Rozumalski, are looking forward to next season. Says Coach Leamon, "We're losing a lot of quality senior wrestlers this year, but we hope to have a decent year again with a few talents returning."

Maroon Wave Pulls Out All Stops

The D.H.S. "Maroon Wave" finished the 1983-1984 swim season with quite a flourish. The 14-3 win/loss record established this season as one of the best in history of the Mermen, and reflects the depth and dedication of the team.

Larry Wollert was once again undefeated in diving, while also obtaining victories in breaststroke and 50 free. Co-captains Mike Revenew and Ron Romance contributed both leadership and points to the effort. Revenew swam backstroke, while Romance raced the butterfly and 200 IM. The two were joined by Wollert and Mike Gugino for a powerful 200 M.R. Gugino had an impressive senior year in his event (breaststroke), shaving important seconds from his time. Seniors Mike Haynes, Jeff Baldwin, Jay Szejwbka, and Tom Halasinski also fared well in their swimming, with many places and improvements.

The depth of the team was evident in the performances of younger swimmers, such as Jim Will (500), Pat Revenew (diving), Bruce Thompson (200, 500, 100 fly), Joe Gugino, Steve Haynes, and Jon Szejwbka. Sophomore Fred Mackowiak had an excellent showing in the 50, 100 yard freestyle.

Under the united coaching of Kathy and Jim Findlay, the Mermen came closer to defeating arch-rival Fredonia than they have in years, losing by only 8 points. The "wave" will lose 6 seniors to graduation in June.

Varsity Baseball Wins Championship

The Dunkirk High School Varsity baseball team smashed their way to another incredible season under Coach Al Stuhmiller. The team posted a record of 22-2, and won the Section B-1 title for the 10th time in school history.

This team was led by Mike Porgiglia, who broke 4 school records in a dream season. He batted .517 with 45 hits (including 12 doubles) with 39 RBI's. Ken Duliba pitched fantastically with a 7-1 record and batted .500. Tom Alessi batted .427 with 3 homeruns. John Buchanan pitched his way to a 6-1 record and astounding 1.02 ERA. Kevin Worosz and Steve Sobczak were solid pitchers. Key roles were played by Seniors, Pete Gilray, Ryan Corbett, Joe Jasinski, Rick Kendorski, and Ron Mroczka. Others making contributions were Juniors, Bill Rozumalski, Mike Lammattina, Greg Buckley, and Sophomore, Ed Snyder.

As a whole, the team batting average was also a school record .397. They absolutely crushed their opposition.

Boys Track Wins Title

The Cinderman of 1983 retired the CCIAC track championship trophy for Dunkirk High winning the title and holding the record of an undefeated season.

Head Coach John Bogardus and Assistant Coach Al Baker were especially pleased with the performance of the squad this year. Serving as the team's tri-captains were sprinter Terry Buchanan, long jumper and sprinter Ken DeLand, and sprinter and pole vaulter Steve O'Brocta.

Jeff Williams was the lone record breaker for the squad this year eclipsing the previous mark of 43 feet and 3 inches in the triple jump with 44 feet 5½ inches.

Exceptional performers this year have been distance runners Mike Symans and Steve Mekus, triple jumper Jeff Williams, and sprinter and long jumper Ken DeLand.

Also Larry Klaybor is the high jump, "Papo" Lozada in the intermediate hurdles, triple jump, and high jump, Steve O'Brocta in the pole vault and sprint relay, Bob Ozga in the shot and discus, Bob Thompson in the discus, and Domingo Cortez in the high hurdles.

Promising underclassmen remain on the team and are hoping to retain the title next year.

Girls' Track Has 3-4 Season

Under fourth year coach John Ruska, the Dunkirk High School cinderwomen finished their 1983 season with a 3-4 record. Although the young team lacked experience, four school records were shattered this year.

The Mile Relay team of Jean Price, Loretta Wilson, Colleen Lemanski, and Shirrelle Thompson clocked a 4:18. Lemanski, joined by Laura Price, Michele Odel, and Brenda Shields established a new record for the two-mile relay at 10:33.2.

Individual records were set by Jean Price in the mile run (4:27) and Lemanski in the 440 yard hurdles (68.1).

The team was also assisted by Al Palmatier as assistant coach.

Girls' Softball Have Good Year

The 1983 girls' softball team had a challenging season under head coach Mary Lou Irish, and assistant coaches Kitty Herdzik and John Pokoj. The team finished their season with 9 wins and 5 losses, but failed to maintain their Section II title.

Outstanding seniors Mary Bartkowski and Linda Pencek were named to the all-star team, while senior Amy Dopler and Juniors Julie DeLand and Donna Nasca received honorable mentions.

Captain Mary Bartkowski once again received the award for Most Valuable Player, having had 13 RBI's, 20 homeruns, and a batting average of .417. While Lynn Wisniewski was presented with the Booster Award.

Seniors leaving the team include Mary Bartkowski, JoAnne Cole, Amy Dopler and Linda Pencek.

Bowling Team Rolls on

Under the coaching of Al Stuhlmiller, the bowling team finished the season with a successful record of 27-24. This record placed them third in their division. After the regular season, the team played in the Country Roll-Offs at Lucky Lanes on March 12th.

Players who had an outstanding record included Todd Ellman and Kevin Seybold. Each of these players had averages above 175. Because many team members will be returning next year, they look forward to a promising year.

JV Baseball

The Dunkirk High Junior Varsity had a very good year, finishing at 13-4. This team played solid baseball this year and makes the future of D.H.S. baseball look as promising as the past.

Raul Nieves was a spectacular pitcher, with a record of 6-1 with 95 strikeouts in just 44 innings. Steve Crandall batted .545. John Budniewski had 28 hits, the most of anyone. Sean Raynor led the club in extra-base hits.

Keeping fit was a big part of "fitting in" with the 1980's. Schlichter's bicycles, A.C.K. Honda, and Walt's Sporting Goods all provided as much recreation and excitement as anyone could enjoy. And, while riding throughout the city, enticing places like McDonald's, Lena's, Brigham Express, and Wendy's provided a delicious break... and a few extra pounds to be worked off again!

Beginning in the spring of 1983, preparations began on the 1984 Ivy Tower. Adopting the theme "Making the Pieces Fit", plans were made to coordinate the theme with all aspects of the yearbook — layout, art, and copy. Several members of the staff attended a summer workshop in Jamestown sponsored by the Taylor Publishing Company, and there practiced layouts, cover design, and budget preparation.

Besides deciding on a new type of cover, made of a more durable material and overlaid with a puzzle grain exterior, this year's book was highlighted by the first-ever 8-page color section in DHS yearbooks. The staff in turn worked hard to cover the expense of these extra costly items, and the resulting book is a sign of that work.

Honor Society: Class Leaders

This year's Chapter of the National Honor Society at DHS planned and participated in many activities. Officers were elected in September with Jane Jasinski serving as president and Lisa Woelfle supporting her as vice-president. Ray Rushboldt was chosen as secretary and Tim Kwiej as treasurer. Advising the group again this year were Mr. E. J. Hayes and Mr. Dan Durkin.

Money was raised this year by selling M&M's as well as term paper guides. These guides were meant to assist students in writing their term papers.

The Induction Banquet for new members was held after Christmas at Joseph Anthony's Banquet Room. New members received their official membership cards and pins at this time.

The group also planned to attend discussions at SUNY at Fredonia and to see a play in the area. They hoped to end the year with a visit to the Albright Knox Art Gallery and a picnic at Darien Lake.

Newspaper Staff Has Building Year.

Meeting deadlines, picking up scoops, investigating leads; these were all aspects of "The Citizen" reporters. Editors were busy proofreading, cropping, waxing, and laying out material. Hectic? Yes! Always under pressure, the paper still managed to produce eight issues this year. Defying rising costs, "The Citizen" cut prices in half, with each issue costing merely a dime.

To fit in with new trends and styles, "The Citizen" teamed up with "High School Highlights" to put together two well rounded news sources for high school students.

"High School Highlights", the local radio program, appeared on WDOE each Friday evening with reporters from Dunkirk and all over Northern Chautauqua County.

Members of the journalism/broadcasting class also toured the Evening Observer and the Buffalo News throughout the year.

This year marks a significant change in the way the German Club spends its money. The club has decided to contribute a sum of money to the school, to be used to purchase trees and bushes to beautify the school grounds. Advisor Mr. Charles Horlak hopes that this will be the beginning of a trend, in which the club will do something positive and productive for the school each year.

Der Deutscher Verein planned many activities this year. In addition to fund-raising bake sales, they took part in the annual Christmas Party, along with all the other language clubs. A spring "sports-affair" was held, and, of course, the traditional Lakeview banquet was a great success.

"Bonjour sans Français et comme un jour sans soleil." Unless you've taken French, this quote, given with relish by Mr. Kolodziej, will mean nothing. The French Club advisor is saying that a day without French is a day without sunshine. It is a fitting quote to explain the fun and excitement of the club, which is one of the oldest continuing clubs at Dunkirk High.

The parts of the activities fitted nicely together to result in many good times for the club. Their fine officers were installed at a combined installation banquet held in conjunction with the German and Spanish clubs. Many interesting dishes from all three countries were served, making a delectable dinner. The scavenger hunt that was held had the members searching for clues in French to solve the "puzzle" and find a surprise of candy, pizza, and soda.

Highly successful bake sales were held to raise money and top off the year with attendance at the concert in Buffalo.

Culture to DHS

Spanish Club Meets With Success

After a trip to New York City last spring, the Spanish Club took it easy this year. They had several bake sales and candy sales, but had no major goal for the use of their profits this year.

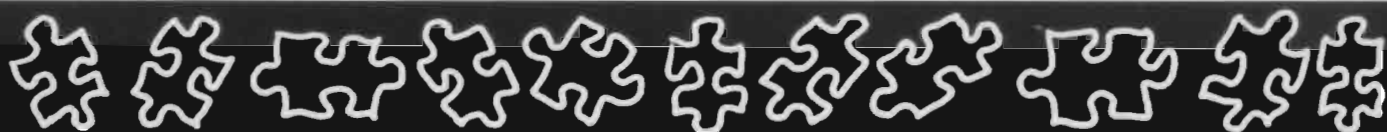

Two events that did take place included a Columbus Day party in October, held under the supervision of advisors Mrs. Mary-Margaret Fogarty and Mrs. Frances O'Donahue. At Christmas time, they joined with the other language clubs for a Christmas party. One of the activities provided by the Spanish Club at that party was the breaking of a pinata.

Band

Supports School Events

The musical sounds of trumpets, clarinets, drums and tubas rang out each afternoon as the band faithfully practiced in the bandroom, on the football field, and on the streets of Dunkirk.

As in the past, the DHS band faithfully performed during the half-time shows for the Varsity football games. The bleachers vibrated with music in support of our successful team.

Participating in the Halloween Parade and the Grape Festival Parade were only a few of the events listed on the band's busy calendar.

Many weeks of practice resulted in excellent performances at the Christmas, Spring, and Jazz concerts. Active members were also involved in NYSSMA Competition, All State Sectionals, and the Chautauqua County Music Festival.

An outstanding year lies behind the band's talented instrumentalists.

Chorus "Fits in" With Songs

"Fa la la la . . . la la la" Christmas carols filled the auditorium once more as the chorus preformed their annual Christmas concert. Songs such as This Little Babe, Alleluia, and Santa Clause is Comin' to Town were sung. As usual the concert was a success.

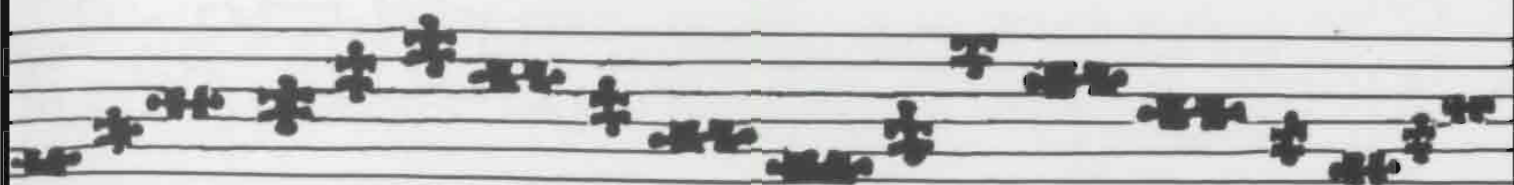

Cheese and sausage forms filled the halls and street of Dunkirk as eager chorus members hurried about making sales to earn money for this year's trip.

Selected chorus members participated in NYSSMA competition, All-State Sectionals, and the Chautauqua County Music Festival. All members represented Dunkirk High with honor and dignity.

Mrs. Mohney, choral director, and Mrs. Madison, piano accompanist, dedicated much time and effort to make the chorus a success. The chorus spent many long hard hours preparing for the Spring and Jazz concerts. Both of which were performed with excellence.

Computer Club Prepares for Future

"Draw a 'CRT' and do a 'handrun' of this 'flowchart':" These instructions could just as well be in a foreign language to those who are not familiar with the computer world. Putting a "floppy disc" into "Drive 1" of the "Muppet" has become second nature to those in the computer club while others are alien to such computer "lingo." The computer room is filled with such computer language which is necessary to operate a computer.

Mr. Jim Will, advisor, has turned the computer room into a computer addict's paradise. Not only does it contain computers such as the Vic, Atari, and Commodore 64, but the Computer Club has its very own robot. This Hero 1 robot can be programmed to speak, travel predetermined courses, and pick up small objects.

At the first meeting of the Computer Club, its officers were elected. Aaron Proweller received the distinction of being elected president, Bill Rys received the position of vice-president, Leanne Price was treasurer, and John Budniewski became secretary. The members of the club raised money through selling suckers and were able to purchase a new computer. This Commodore 64 and disk drive was available to those club members who wished to take it home over the weekends.

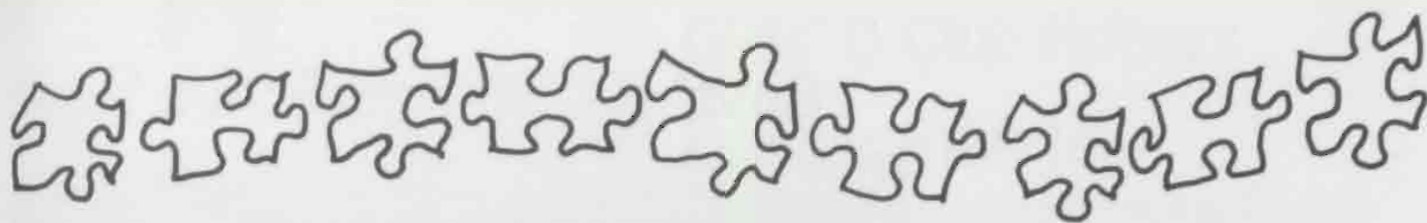

The club also held several game nights, on which members could come in and use the computers to try new programs or do personal work.

Biology Club Experiments With Anatomy

Anyone who has taken Biology in the past is already familiar with the smell of formaldehyde. Those students who have not had this privilege should take a walk past the Biology Club during one of their meetings. As many Biology Club members have in the past, these students are busily dissecting a cat! Of course, this is not the only activity that the Biology Club participates in.

They are also involved in fund raising. The Biology Club is busy raising money, mainly through candy sales, to pay for activities they have planned for the end of the year.

Boys' D Club Has Active Year

Football stars, baseball players, basketball-all stars . . . these athletes all make up the boys' D Club.

Varsity lettermen who chose to join the club found it worthwhile and entertaining.

They supported all the athletic teams throughout the year by organizing tournaments and keeping crowds under control at games.

To put an end to the phrase "All work and no play," the D Club travelled to Buffalo for an exciting Bills' game. They also purchased sweaters and sweatshirts during the year. These athletes did their best to therefore "fit in" to life at Dunkirk High.

Girls' D Club Honors Female Athletes

All you sports minded girls who chose not to join the Girl's D Club this year missed out on a lot of activities.

The first event of the year was an initiation held with the boys D Club. The new initiates were required to dress in Halloween costumes. For three minutes, they were at the mercy of their peers. They had to give a speech, tell about their most embarrassing moment, and perform a number of "dares."

In November the club took a trip to Rich Stadium to see the Buffalo Bills in action.

This year the D Club purchased club sweaters, which were worn to "unify" the club. Money for the purchase was raised through the sale of tumblers. Also, the club worked the "D" club stands at the home football and basketball games.

So, all you dribbling, running, dunking, driving, swimming girls who didn't join this year — consider joining next year. It's fun.

Key Club Supports Community

While most students slept in on Saturday mornings, Key Clubbers could be found playing BINGO with the elderly at the County Infirmary. When kids stopped for wings on Tuesday night, Key Clubbers devoted their time to play hockey with children at St. Joseph's School. Key Club also sponsored Christmas parties for St. Joseph's, and attended Kiwanis Club's luncheons each week at the Vineyard.

But it wasn't all work. Fund raising proved to be the "Key" thought to members who anticipated the annual convention held in the Catskills each Spring. Bake sales, candy sales, and dances were held to raise money to send delegates for a weekend of excitement at the State Convention.

DHS Teachers

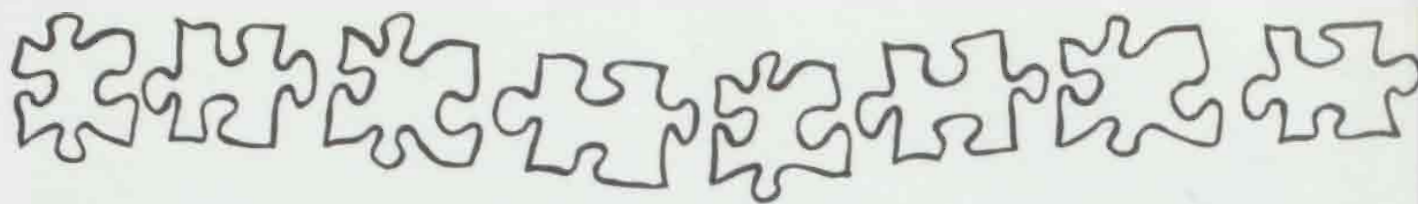

Appreciate TFT

It's surprising that many students at DHS are not aware of the TFT club that our school has. The girls in this club, mainly business students, are a tremendous help to the faculty.

The services they provide range from typing tests and manuscripts to filing papers for teachers. You can often hear them clicking away to their typewriters after school as well as during the day. We can be certain that the teachers appreciate their hard work and dedication.

Rita Bartkowiak, president of this year's club, and the other officers have contributed a great deal of their time and a lot of effort that has made the club the success that it is. All of these hardworking girls deserve a great deal of praise for their efforts.

Upsilon Delta Gamma Sets the Style

Senior Tony Barone stood out among DHS students all through his high school career. The reason? Tony was consistently impeccably dressed; wearing clothes that a Harvard "Preppy" can only dream about.

While the students and faculty pondered over the source of Tony's never-ending supply of name brand quality apparel, Tony himself established the school's first men's dress club, Upsilon Delta Gamma. Its purpose was to establish better dressing throughout the school. Upsilon Delta Gamma also provides ushers and escorts for plays and other school functions.

With the club now well established, and UDG neckties seen frequently in the hallways and classrooms, the club is now tackling a new idea. In an effort to "fit in", the guys hope to establish a female auxiliary in the near future.

Latin Club Reforms

The basic Latin course that is now being offered at DHS provided a reason for forming a Latin Club in our school. Mr. Horlak, who teaches the Latin course, is the club's advisor. Officers include Helen Carreras; Joanne Brochetti; Lisa Mahan; and Chris Bera. The club was formed to promote interest in the Latin course as well as for members to discuss common interests in the Latin heritage. The group plans to raise money for a field trip at the end of the year.

It's Academic Team

The 1984 It's Academic team once again competed aggressively in a battle of intelligence, common sense, and baffling questions. While finishing third, the team tried its best and did answer many of the difficult questions. An enthusiastic group of supporters cheered on their "heroes" as they wracked their brains in search of answers. The show was taped on January 9 and could be seen on Sunday, January 22 on Channel 4.

Marauder 3R

Which do you prefer — a thorn, a petal, or a rose? If you are a member of Marauder 3-R, let's hope you choose the latter.

An organization started to encourage proper attire, Marauder 3-R has proven to be more than merely a dress club.

For those girls interested in modeling, John Powers modeling agency provided a chance to "fit in": to the glamorous world of modeling. At a special Marauder 3-R program, John Powers and other local merchandizers and beauticians provided the assentive to look their best. The program highlighted skin care, fashion design, posture, manicures, and make up tips.

In the Spring, the club planned a special fashion show. They also presented their annual "I Love Mother" banquet in honor of the members' mothers.

As the Spring Prom and graduation came closer, local merchants were helpful in assisting in making our preparations for those two important events in student life. Corsages and boutineers were available at Flowers by Anthony's, with charms purchased at Dodson's Jeweler's. Appropriate presents for the occasion were to be found at Sidey's and Penny's, and the ever-important gift card or book could be gotten at the Book Nook. Clothing took on a greater importance as well, and could be purchased at the local Penny's, Sidey's or Rosing's.

Juniors: Class of '85

For the second consecutive year, the junior class was dominated by all-male officers. Under the advisors of Mr. John Lembke and Mrs. Suzanne Frazier, the class of 1985's new officers included Ron Romance, president; Rod Sheridan, vice-president; Eric Peterson, secretary; Joe Boorady, treasurer; and Ed Pagan, Sergeant-at-Arms.

The junior class displayed their fine talents during the Homecoming season. Once again they placed first in Homecoming competition, using the modern theme, "Input Marauder Pride — Output Marauder Victory". They also tied for top honors with the senior class in spirit competition. During the event, Melissa Sharene was crowned Homecoming Queen of her class, with Mike Kuzdzal as her escort.

The junior class also put forth much effort as they sponsored the Spring Prom in honor of the senior class.

The class of 1985 looks forward to the fun and excitement of their final year and graduation.

Juniors Join in the Spirit!

This year the juniors really showed their spirit during homecoming activities and in school life.

The junior class did their own share of "fitting in" to high school life. In class and during their free time, the juniors found time to relax and spend time to be with their friends.

Meg Elias continued her reign as president while Janet Hilliker was elected vice-president, Sonya Worosz was elected corresponding secretary, Melinda Manzella became recording secretary, and Lydia LaTona was chosen treasurer.

In Homecoming competition, the sophomores captured a respectable third place, using the theme "Marauders Never Surrender". Becky Cordero and Brian Granata were chosen to represent the sophomores in the homecoming court.

The sophomore party was held in the fall with great success. Mr. Daniel Durkin and Mr. E. J. Hayes were the class advisors.

Freshmen Class of '87 "Fits in."

While freshmen traditionally find it rather difficult to "fit in", the class of 1987 were successful in their first attempts to do so.

The freshmen began their high school careers by electing the following class officers: Mike Fermier, president; Debbie Karin, vice-president; Sally Ribij, secretary; and Bob Dorman, treasurer.

In Homecoming competition, the class of 1987 created a float using the theme "Stairway to Rich". Charmaine Osar was selected as Homecoming queen, with Sean Durkin chosen to escort her.

In late fall, the class also presented the freshman party. Miss Carol Carlson and Miss Theresa Odum served as class advisors.

Kneeling: Robert Dorman, Sally Ribij. Standing: Miss Carlson (Advisor), Debbie Karin, Mike Fermier. Absent when photo was taken was Miss Odum, Advisor.

March 27, 1941-February 22, 1984

1983

My first memories of Dan Durkin go back to my senior year in high school. I was on his first yearbook staff, Class of 1969. I remember some of the meetings, one in particular because it was held at his house. We were able to see a little of a teacher's personal life, meeting his family at the time. I remember seeing his oldest son, who at the time was probably three. This year he graduates with the present senior class.

I also remember a trip to Bonaventure

University for a yearbook workshop. He told us a lot of stories on the way there and back, stories about his days in the Navy, and of his family. He paid for the dinner we had that night at the Castle Restaurant. We all had a great time.

That was fifteen years ago; three years ago I took over the yearbook from him. He'd done it for those twelve years, and now knowing how difficult it is to do, I've often wondered why he didn't give it up sooner. Teaching is in itself a difficult profession, and those fifteen years gave Dan Durkin many ups and downs. Many often forget that teachers are human beings, that they have their own problems, that it is so hard to motivate the unmotivated student, that they hurt, and that they are mortal. Yet he continued with teaching, served as advisor in other activities, and will be remembered for the many ways he touched our lives.

We will miss him.

— D.A.
